IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

In re KIMBERLY L. GRIJALVA, Lawyer (Bar No. 29771).	Supreme Court No. ASSOCIATION'S PETITION FOR INTERIM SUSPENSION [ELC 7.2(a)(3)]

Under Rule 7.2(a)(3) of the Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct (ELC), the Washington State Bar Association (Association) petitions this Court for an Order of Interim Suspension of Respondent Kimberly L. Grijalva pending cooperation with the disciplinary investigation.

This Petition is based on the Declaration of Senior Disciplinary Counsel Joanne S. Abelson, filed with this Petition.

RECEIVED
SUPREME COURT
STATE OF WASHINGTON
07 MAY 16 AM 8:00
CATHERINE R. CARPENTER
CLERK

Statement of Grounds/Argument

1. Respondent Kimberly L. Grijalva failed to respond to the Association's requests that she respond to a grievance filed against her, and failed to appear at a non-cooperation deposition to which she was subpoenaed.

2. Respondent failed to produce her client file in response to a subpoena duces tecum issued by Disciplinary Counsel under ELC 5.3(f)(1). The subpoena was issued due to Respondent's failure to respond to the grievance filed by her client.

3. It is necessary to obtain Respondent's response and records so the Association can determine whether Respondent committed misconduct in connection with this matter. By refusing to respond, appear at a deposition or produce her client file, Respondent has impeded and delayed the disciplinary process. Accordingly, the Association asks this Court to order Respondent's immediate interim suspension pending compliance with the Association's investigation.

Standard

4. Under ELC 7.2(a)(3), a respondent lawyer may be immediately suspended from the practice of law when a lawyer fails without good cause to comply with a request from the Association for information or documents or fails without good cause to comply with a subpoena.[1] Respondent's failure to comply with the Association's requests for response and subpoena meets this standard.

Effect of Respondent's Failure to Cooperate

5. The lawyer discipline system provides "protection of the public and preservation of confidence in the legal system." In re Disciplinary Proceeding Against McMurray, 99 Wn.2d 920, 930, 655 P.2d 1352 (1983). Given the limited resources available to investigate allegations of lawyer misconduct, "such investigations depend upon the cooperation of attorneys." Id. at 931.

6. "Compliance with these rules is vital." In re Disciplinary Proceeding Against Clark, 99 Wn.2d 702, 707, 663 P.2d 1339 (1983). Because Respondent has not responded to the grievance, appeared for a deposition or produced her client file, the Association's effective and timely investigation of the grievance and protection of the public have been impeded and delayed.

[1] ELC 7.2(a)(3) provides:

Failure to Cooperate with Investigation. When any lawyer fails without good cause to comply with a request under rule 5.3(f) for information or documents, or with a subpoena issued under rule 5.3(f), or fails to comply with disability proceedings as specified in rule 8.2(d), disciplinary counsel may petition the Court for an order suspending the lawyer pending compliance with the request or subpoena. If the lawyer complies with the request or subpoena, the lawyer may petition the Court to terminate the suspension on terms the Court deems appropriate.

Conclusion

Respondent's failure to cooperate with a disciplinary investigation is an ongoing violation of ELC 5.3. Accordingly, the Association asks the Court to issue an order to show cause under ELC 7.2(b)(2) requiring Respondent Kimberly L. Grijalva to appear before the Court on such date as the Chief Justice may set, and show cause why this petition for interim suspension should not be granted.

DATED THIS 15th day of May, 2007.

Respectfully submitted,

WASHINGTON STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

In re KIMBERLY L. GRIJALVA, Lawyer (Bar No. 29771).	Supreme Court No. DECLARATION OF SENIOR DISCIPLINARY COUNSEL JOANNE S. ABELSON

I, Joanne S. Abelson, declare and state:

1. I am a Senior Disciplinary Counsel with the Washington State Bar Association and am assigned to the disciplinary proceedings against Respondent Kimberly L. Grijalva.

2. Angie Ramirez filed a grievance against Respondent on February 22, 2007. The grievance alleged that Ms. Ramirez paid Respondent to perform certain services but that Respondent did not perform them.

3. On February 27, 2007, Disciplinary Counsel sent Respondent a letter requesting her response within two weeks. See Exhibit A.

4. Respondent did not submit a response.

5. On April 3, 2007, Disciplinary Counsel sent Respondent a certified letter requesting a response within 10 days of service, and advising Respondent that if she did not file a response she would be subpoenaed to a deposition and could be subject to interim suspension. The certified letter was received on April 5, 2007. See Exhibit B.

6. Respondent did not submit a response.

7. On April 24, 2007, I issued a subpoena duces tecum for a deposition at the Association's offices on May 11, 2007. The subpoena duces tecum commanded Respondent to bring her complete client file regarding her representation of Ms. Ramirez. A cover letter accompanying the subpoena advised Respondent that her appearance was mandatory and that failure to appear could result in a petition to this Court for interim suspension. See Exhibit C.

8. The subpoena was personally served on Respondent on May 4, 2007. See Exhibit D. I have not heard from her since that date.

9. Respondent did not appear for the deposition. See Exhibit E.

I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

OFFICE OF DISCIPLINARY COUNSEL

Acknowledgment That We Have Received A Grievance

Date: 2/27/2007 WSBA File: 07-00341

To the Grievant:

We received your grievance against a lawyer and opened a file with the file number indicated above.

We are requesting a written response from the lawyer. You generally have a right to receive a copy of any response submitted by the lawyer. After we review the lawyer's response, if it appears that the conduct you describe is not within our jurisdiction, does not violate the Supreme Court's Rules of Professional Conduct (RPC), or does not warrant further investigation, we will write you a letter to tell you that. If we begin an investigation of your grievance, we will give you our investigator's name and telephone number. If, as a result of an investigation and formal proceeding, the lawyer is found to have violated the RPC, either the Washington State Bar Association Disciplinary Board or the Supreme Court may sanction the lawyer.

Our authority and resources are limited. We are not a substitute for protecting your legal rights. We do not and cannot represent you in legal proceedings. You should consider contacting another lawyer to represent you in any ongoing civil or criminal case or to determine whether other remedies may be available to you. If you believe criminal laws have been broken, you should contact your local police department or prosecuting attorney. There are time deadlines for both civil and criminal proceedings, so you should not wait to take other action.

Please read the enclosed form for additional information about the grievance process. Our office handles a large number of files. We urge you to communicate with us only in writing until we complete our initial review of your grievance. You should hear from us again within four weeks.

Request for Lawyer Response

To the Lawyer:

Although we have reached no conclusions on the merits of the grievance that has been filed against you, we are requesting your preliminary written response within two (2) weeks of the date of this letter. Please provide any information you believe is relevant. You must personally assure that all records, files, and accounts related to the grievance are retained until you receive written authorization from us, or until this matter is concluded and all possible appeal periods have expired. Absent special circumstances, and unless you provide us with reasons to do otherwise, we will forward a copy of your response to the grievant. If the grievant is not your client, please clearly identify any information that you believe we should withhold. The grievance process is governed by the Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct (ELC). ELC 5.3(e), a copy of which is enclosed with related rules, sets out the obligations of a respondent lawyer, including the duty to promptly file a written response. If you believe further action should be deferred because of pending litigation, please so indicate and explain the basis for your request under ELC 5.3(c)

Sincerely,

Grievance filed by Angie Ramirez

Dear Ms. Grijalva:

We asked you to provide a written response to the above referenced grievance. To the best of our knowledge, your response, which is required by Rule 5.3(e) of the Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct (ELC), has not been received.

Under ELC 5.3(e), you must file a written response to the allegations of this grievance within ten days after service of this letter, i.e., on or before April 16, 2007. If we do not receive your response within the ten-day period, we will subpoena you for a deposition. If we must serve a subpoena, you will be liable for the costs of the deposition, including service of process, and attorney fees of $500. ELC 5.3(f)(2). You should be aware that failing to respond is, in itself, grounds for discipline and may subject you to interim suspension under ELC 7.2(a)(3).

Re: Grievance of Angie Ramirez against lawyer Kimberly L. Grijalva
WSBA File No. 07-00341

Dear Ms. Grijalva:

Enclosed is a subpoena duces tecum compelling your attendance at a deposition in accordance with Rules 5.5 and 5.3(f) of the Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct (ELC). The subpoena has been issued because of your failure or refusal to cooperate with this investigation. As you already have been informed, you will be liable for the costs associated with the deposition, including service of the subpoena, court reporter charges, and a $500 attorney fee.

We wish to avoid any further delay in the completion of this investigation. Accordingly, we will not cancel or continue the deposition unless disciplinary counsel so confirms in writing. Absent a written confirmation of cancellation or continuance, your appearance at the deposition in our offices on Friday, May 11, 2007 at 10:00 a.m. is mandatory. If you fail to appear, we may treat your failure to appear as a violation of disciplinary rules, we may refer this grievance to Review Committee with a recommendation of a public disciplinary hearing without your response, and we may petition the Washington Supreme Court for your immediate interim suspension from the practice of law under ELC 7.2(a)(3).
