WASHINGTON COURTS

ITG Request 1344 – Protection Order Document Sharing (PODS) for Judicial Officers – Final Project Update

SRIRAM JAYARAMA, PROJECT MANAGER

February 24, 2023

Project Overview

- As part of the HB 1320/1901, the legislature mandated a mechanism for all judicial officers statewide to be able to electronically view Protection Order documents
- There are two deadlines
  - By January 1, 2023 all judicial officers statewide must be able to view Protection Order documents from the 39 superior courts
  - By January 1, 2026 all judicial officers statewide must be able to view Protection Order documents from the courts of limited jurisdiction as well

Completed Activities

- Document images are available for all judicial officers from both superior courts and courts of limited jurisdiction.
- JABS features to display Protection Order Document images went live on January 1, 2023.
- Document images from 37 out of 39 superior courts are available for judicial officers to view.
  - We are continuing to work with the last two courts to get their document images available.
Weekly Transaction Volume