IN THE COURT OF APPEALS OF WASHINGTON
DIVISION II

Keith L. NASH
Appellant,
v.
STATE OF WASHINGTON
Respondent.

Cause No. 38514-7

APPELLANT'S STATEMENT OF ADDITIONAL GROUNDS FOR REVIEW also with this Notice of Change of Circumstances To THE COURT. Pursuant to (RAP) 10.10

I. IDENTITY OF MOVING PARTY:

Comes Now, the appellant Keith L. Nash, respectfully requests this court to except this pleading in reference to him timely filing his 'Statement of Additional Grounds for Review' but this is 'Notice of Change of Circumstances to the court' in order for appellant to timely have his 'Statement of Additional Grounds for Review' to be entertained in this court and or amended to its proper format pursuant to (RAP) 10.10.

II. RELIEF REQUESTED:

Appellant requests for relief by granting this motion for record purposes and to liberally construe appellant's 'Statement of Additional Grounds' or in an alternative to allow appellant to cure his deficiencies upon his release date from total confinement which is thirty (30) days or less for an allege probation violation.

III. STATEMENT OF CASE:

On January 27th, 2010, appellant Nash received from this court to grant him with an Extension of Time until February 18th, 2010. The order directed that there will not be any other Extension of Time for appellant Nash to file his 'Statement of Additional Grounds'. On February 4th, 2010 appellant Nash was placed in custody of his probation Officer 'Beth Graves' for an alleged probation violation while placed on community Custody. Appellant has been without no 'Legal Access' such as law library or any attorney and therefore, has to submit this pleading as part of his 'Statement of Additional Grounds for Review' as part of the record in case appellant Nash's grounds for review are not incompliance with (RAP) 10.10.

IV. GROUNDS FOR RELIEF AND ARGUMENT:

Pursuant to (RAP) 18.8(a) a party may request for an extension of time within the time frame the orginal time were prescribe. However, appellant Nash is not requesting for an extensions of time. He requesting that this court liberally construe his "Statement of Additional Grounds for Review" pursuant to (RAP) 10.10 until he is release from total confinement and to accept his handwritten "Statement of Additional Grounds for Review" so that his issues can be timely filed until he is able to send his "Statement of Additional Grounds for Review" which complies with (RAP) 10.10 and the record which he intends this court to review.

V. CONCLUSION:

Wherefore, appellant Nash respectfully requests this court to keep this motion on file for the record purposes and to liberally construe appellant Nash's 'Statement of Additional Ground for Review' pursuant to (RAP) 10.10 until Nash is released from total confinement and can provide this court with records pertaining to his 'Statement of Additional Ground' which complies with (RAP) 10.10.

Accordingly, It should be so Ordered.

Dated this February 5th, 2010.
RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED:
