David Muresan,
Appellant		Supreme Court # 101532-1
		Court of Appeal div1 # 838784
Vs.		Superior Court. # 21 2 00471 15
State of Washington		Motion for
Respondent		Supplemental Information

Appellant David Muresan, Pro Se, asks the Supreme Court to accept my supplemental information, created by the Mortgage Company, sending me on Mar 3rd 2023, a notice for foreclosure of my property at 1578 S Crestview dr. Camano Island WA 98282.

The reason for my mortgage behind is the island County action against me, because I housed 14 homeless people on my property. I thought that my action will be rewarded and not punished, as happen. I was arrested on May 7th 2022, and after 4 months of jail I am not allowed to live on my property.

I violated zoning by housing homeless people on my property. Island County in Washington state put me in jail for 4 Months, forced me homeless, cut all my income and in danger of losing my house in foreclosure. They took away my right to use my toilet and to work on my inventions on my property. Court of Appeal Div.1 from Seattle, Commissioner Masako Kanazawa denied my requests to prevent my arrest and homelessness. In his decision he wrote "David Muresan is safer as homeless or arrested than to live on his property."

I attach here the Mortgage company Notice for default.

I emailed to Supreme Court the same Notice of Default on Mar 3rd 2023
