THE SUPREME COURT OF WASHINGTON

Wells Fargo Bank,
Petitioner,
vs.
Christopher L. Short,
Respondent.

NOTICE OF BANKRUPTCY FILING

Supreme Court No.
90399-9

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Respondent Christopher L. Short has filed a Petition for Voluntary Bankruptcy under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington at Seattle under Case No. 14-16615-TWD on September 4, 2014.

The Automatic Stay provisions of 11 USC § 362 state as follows:

(a) [A] petition filed under section 301, 302, or 303 of this title . . . operates as a stay, applicable to all entities, of—

(1) the commencement or continuation, including the issuance or employment of process, of a judicial, administrative, or other action or proceeding against the debtor that was or could have been commenced before the commencement of the case under this title, or to recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title;

(2) the enforcement, against the debtor or against property of the estate, of a judgment obtained before the commencement of the case under this title;

(3) any act to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate;

ORIGINAL

(4) any act to create, perfect, or enforce any lien against property of the estate;

(5) any act to create, perfect, or enforce against property of the debtor any lien to the extent that such lien secures a claim that arose before the commencement of the case under this title;

(6) any act to collect, assess, or recover a claim against the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title;

(7) the setoff of any debt owing to the debtor that arose before the commencement of the case under this title against any claim against the debtor; and

Therefore, all collection action in this matter with regard to Respondent Christopher L. Short must cease immediately until such time as Petitioner obtains a court order to proceed.

DATED this September 16, 2014.
