21. ARGUMENT

22. The suppression of the evidence found in
23. Showers truck Being raised for the frist time
24. on appeal and if the search of the vehicle
25. was illegal under ARIZONA V. GANT, 556 U.S. 332, 129
S.Ct. 1710, 173 L.Ed. 2d 485 (2009).

1 State v. Robinson, 171 Wn.2d 292, 253 P.3d 84 (April 14, 2011)
2 [171 Wn.2d 296] 1 The petitioners in these two consolidated 3 cases seek to challenge, for the first time on appeal, the 4 admissibility of evidence against them. In both cases, the 5 trials were concluded prior to the United States Supreme Courts
6 decision in ► Arizona v. Gant, 556 U.S. --, 129 S.Ct. 1710, 173 L.Ed.
7 2d 485 (2009), a case that limited the circumstances in which 8 police may conduct a warrantless search of an automobile 9 incident to arrest. Though the trials were concluded, the 10 cases were still pending on direct appeal at the time
11 ► Gant was decided. In Francisco Millan's case, the court
12 of appeals concluded that any error was waived by his failure
13 to object to the admission of evidence at trial.
14 ► State v. Millan, 151 Wash. App. 492, 499-500, 212 P.3d 603 (2009), 15 review granted, ► 168 Wash.2d 1005, 226 P.3d 781 (2010).

16 In Michael Robinson's case, the court of appeals considered
17 and rejected his argument that the search was unconstitutional
18 without considering the effect of ► Gant. We conclude that,
19 in this circumstance, principles of issue preservation and waiver
20 do not preclude criminal defendants from raising a 21 constitutional objection for the first [171 Wn.2d 297] time on appeal.

22 We therefore reverse the court of appeals in both cases ►
23 (FN1) However because neither the petitioner nor the state had 24 the opportunity or incentive to develop the record, we remand
25 - - - - 253 P.3d 86 - - - - each case to the Superior Court
26 for a suppression hearing in light of ► Gant and its progeny.

1. State v. Nyegaard, 172 Wash. 2d 1006, 260 P.3d 208 (2011)

2. In Ryan Joseph Nyegaard, we incorporate by reference the
3. facts recited in our February 23, 2010 published opinion affirming
4. Nyegaard's conviction and sentence. State v. Nyegaard, 154 Wash. App.
5. 641, 226 P.3d 783 (2010) (J. Houghton dissenting). We held that,
6. under our decision in State v. Millan, 151 Wash. App. 492, 212 P.3d
7. 603 (2009), Reversed sub nom. State v. Robinson, 171 Wash. 2d 292,
8. 253 P.3d 84 (2011), because Nyegaard had failed to move to suppress
9. the evidence seized from his car, which police had searched
10. incident to his arrest, he had failed to preserve for appeal
11. whether this seizure was illegal under ►Arizona v. Gant, 550
12. U.S. 332, 129 S.Ct. 1710, 173 L.Ed. 2d 485 (2009). (FN1) Nyegaard, 13. 154 Wash. App. at 646, 226 P.3d 783. [164 Wn. App. 627] Our
14. --- 267 P.3d 382-83. --- State Supreme Court granted
15. Nyegaard's petition for review and remanded his appeal to
16. us to reconsider in light of Robinson. ►State v. Nyegaard,
17. 172 Wash. 2d 1006, 260 P.3d 208 (2011). The parties submitted
18. supplemental briefs addressing the effects of ►Robinson on
19. Nyegaard's appeal.

20. In Robinson, our supreme court held that (1) ►Gant
21. applies retroactively to appellants whose cases were pending on
22. direct appeal when the United States Supreme Court issued
23. Gant and (2) failure to raise a suppression issue below does not
24. bar a defendant from raising a Gant issue for the first time
25. on appeal if he meets four specific criteria.

26. (FN2) Robinson, 171 Wash. 2d at 303-08 P.3d 84. In its

1. Supplement brief the state concedes that (1) under
2. Robinson, Nyegaard is entitled on appeal to challenge the
3. vehicle search that led to his arrest and conviction; and
4. (2) the vehicle search incident to Nyegaard's arrest was
5. improper under Gant on the current record, which, in the
6. absence of a motion to suppress based on Gant below,
7. was made without exploring other possible legal grounds
8. for the search. The parties agree that the proper
9. remedy is to remand this matter back to the superior
10. court for a new suppression hearing.

11. Accepting the state's concession of error and
12. Nyegaard's concession that remand is the proper remedy,
13. we hold that the vehicle search and seizure of evidence
14. incident to Nyegaard's arrest was illegal under Gant and
15. [164 Wn. App. 628] the facts before us in this appeal,
16. and we remand to the trial court for further proceedings
17. consistent with Robinson.

18. State v. Cross, 166 Wn. App. 320, 271 P.3d 264 (JAN, 31 2012)

19. Kevin cross appeals his jury conviction for first degree
20. unlawful possession of a firearm, [166 Wn. App. 321] gross
21. misdemeanor harassment, resisting arrest, and obstructing a law
22. officer, arguing that the search of his car was unlawful
23. under ► Arizona v. Gant, 556 U.S. 332, 129 S.Ct. 1710, 173 L.Ed.
24. 2d 485 (2009). In our earlier opinion filed on June 29, 2010,
25. we concluded that cross did not preserve for review any
26. error related to the vehicle search incident to arrest.

1. But the WASHINGTON State SUPREME Court held other
2. wise in State v. Robinson, 171 Wash. 2d 292, 253 P.3d 84 (2011),
3. and remanded Cross's appeal to us for further consideration.

4. The parties agree that the proper remedy is to remand
5. this matter back to the Superior court for a new
6. suppression hearing.

7. State v. Slichte, 164 Wn. App. 717, 267 P.3d 401 (Nov. 8 2011)
8. [164 Wn. App. 718] (1) on August 24, 2010, we issued an
9. opinion affirming Jason Ronald Slichte's Jury conviction for 10. methamphetamine possession with intent to deliver.

11. We held that, under our decision in State v. Millan, 151
12. Wash. App. 492, 212 P.3d 603 (2009) reversed sub nom.,
13. State v. Robinson, 171 Wash. 2d 292, 253 P.3d 84 (2011), because
14. Slichte had failed to move to suppress the methamphetamine
15. seized from his car, which police had searched incident to 16. his arrest, he had failed to preserve for appeal whether
17. this seizure was illegal under Arizona v. Grant, 556 U.S. 332,
18. 129 S.Ct. 1710, 173 L.Ed.2d 485 (2009) (FNL) State v. Slichte,
19. 157 Wash. App. 618, 621, 623, 238 P.3d 83 (2010). Our State
20. Supreme Court granted Slichte's petition for review and
21. remanded back to us to reconsider Slichte's appeal in
22. light of Robinson. State v. Slichte, 172 Wash. 2d 1003, 257
23. P.3d 1112 (2011). We ordered the parties to submit
24. supplemental briefs addressing the effect of Robinson
25. on Slichte's appeal.

1. State v. Pearsall, 164 Wn. App. 720, 267 P.3d 402 (Nov. 8, 2011)

2. [164 Wn. App. 721] (1) Karla Gae Pearsall appeals her jury
3. conviction for unlawful possession of a controlled substance.

4. ►(FN 1) She argues that the search of her vehicle incident
5. to her arrest was illegal and, therefore, the evidence should
6. be suppressed. We remand to the trial court for further
7. proceedings.

8. (2) We incorporate by reference the facts set forth in our
9. May 25, 2010 published opinion affirming Pearsall's conviction.

10. State v. Pearsall, 156 Wash. App. 357, 231 P.3d 849 (2010) (J. Houghton
11. dissenting). We held that, under our decision in State v. Millan,

12. 151 Wash. App. 492, 212 P.3d 603 (2009), Reversed sub nom.

13. State v. Robinson, 171 Wash. 2d 292, 253 P.3d 84 (2011), because
14. Pearsall had failed to move to suppress the drug evidence
15. seized from her car, which police had searched incident to
16. her arrest, she had failed to preserve for appeal, whether
17. this seizure was illegal under Arizona v. Gant, 556 U.S. 332,

20. Supreme Court granted Pearsall's petition for review

22. of Robinson. State v. Pearsall, 172 Wash. 2d 1003, 257 P.3d 1113
23. (2011).

24. The parties submitted supplemental briefs
25. addressing the effect of Robinson on Pearsall's
26. appeal.

State v. Johnson, 164 Wn. App. 486, 273 P.3d 446 (Oct. 25, 2011)

[164 Wn. App. 487] (1) Jesse Ray Johnson appeals his jury conviction for two counts of unlawful possession of a controlled substance (heroin and cocaine), count I and V, and one count unlawful use of drug paraphernalia, count II. He argues that the search of his vehicle incident to his arrest was illegal and that the evidence should be suppressed. We reverse and remand to the trial court for further proceedings.

(2) We incorporate by reference the facts recited in our May. 11, 2010, published opinion affirming Jesse Ray Johnson's conviction. (EN 1) State v. Johnson, 156 Wash. App.
