IN THE SUPREME COURT OF WASHINGTON

The State of Washington, Respondent	No. 91083-9
v.	Answer to State's Response and, Appellant Objects
John M. Bale, Appellant

I. FACTS

On February 27, 2015, the appellant, John M. Bale, filed a Supplemental Brief to the petition for review, which the court granted. In the motion, the appellant argues that not having a full copy of court transcripts impedes the execution of a proper and lawful appeal.

On March 2, 2015, the appellant received a letter from Kitsap County Superior Court denying his request for the transcripts. On March 13, 2015, the appellant filed a Second Supplemental Brief, in regards to the lack of proper transcripts and showing cause and/or the Court's actions. No new issues were raised in the Second Supplemental Brief.

II. CONCLUSION

The appellant requests that his Second Supplemental Brief be granted on the grounds that he has not raised any new issues or arguments.
