IN RE:
GUARDIANSHIP OF OMANA THANKAMMA

Case # 99904-0
MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

1. PRAYER

The Honorable Supreme Court Clerk Erin Lennon had asked the petitioner to file a motion for extension for time and a properly formatted petition for review. Petitioner is a pro-se, learning the legal system like “drinking from a fire hose” under the most exigent and trying circumstances in order to save his mother’s life, protect his assets that have been jeopardized by being scammed into a fraud bankruptcy while holding a net worth of nearly $5 Million, and to cure the injustices that have been done to his family by certain unscrupulous legal professionals. The Supreme Court is his final resort for justice he is looking up for succor from these dastardly abuses of the legal system. This matter is also of supreme public interest: if these evil, Kafkaesque experiences can happen to such highly erudite, upstanding, innocent, law-abiding immigrants as the petitioners’ family, then it points to a deeply vulgar, systemic peril that the Supreme Court has the mandate to eradicate, in order to protect the Constitution. Petitioner is completing the revising of his filed petition as ordered by Hon. Lennon to the formatting and page requirements of RAP 13.4(e) and (f) and 10.4(a), and is hereby humbly praying for an extension of time.
