Parties shall file a status report with the court no later than the close of business on the seventh court day before the day set for hearing, except for those matters noted with an * above. For example, if the hearing is scheduled for a Friday, the status report shall be filed by the close of business on the Wednesday of the week before the hearing date unless there is an intervening court holiday. If necessary and where appropriate, the court may issue an Order Setting Case Schedule (Form A) to provide a trial date. If the parties file a status report in accordance with this rule the parties do not need to appear for the mandatory court review hearing unless directed to appear by the court. Failure to attend the hearing or file a status report may result, when appropriate, in dismissal of the case without prejudice or closure of the matter without further notice. In paternity matters, it may result in a resolution of the case without dismissal.

(c) Civil (Non-Family) Cases Receiving an Order Setting Case Schedule at Filing. When a new civil, non-family case of a type not specifically identified in sections (a) or (b) above is filed, or as otherwise provided in these rules, the clerk shall issue an Order Setting Case Schedule and shall provide one copy to

The plaintiff/petitioner shall serve a copy of this Order on the defendant/respondent along with the initial pleadings; provided that if the initial pleading is served prior to filing, the plaintiff/petitioner shall within five (5) court days of filing serve this Order. If the initial pleading is served by publication, the plaintiff/petitioner shall serve this Order within five (5) court days of service of defendant's/respondent's first appearance. When this Order is served pursuant to this section, it may be served by regular mail with proof of mailing/service to be filed promptly in the form required by these rules, see PCLR 5. The Order Setting Case Schedule shall contain the case heading and otherwise be as set forth in Appendix, Form A.

(d) Family Law (Type 3) Cases. These cases are governed by PCLR 40\(d\). As set forth more fully in that rule, it depends on the particular type of family law case whether the matter receives a trial date at the time of filing.

When a new Petition for Dissolution (with or without children) or a Petition to Establish a Residential Schedule/Parenting Plan is initiated, the clerk shall issue an Order Setting Case Schedule – Family Law and shall provide one copy to the petitioner. The Order Setting Case Schedule – Family Law shall contain the case heading and otherwise be as set forth in Appendix, Form I. See PCLR 40\(d\).

When a new dissolution, legal separation, or invalidity case is filed, the court shall issue an automatic temporary order, per PCLR 65.

Certain other types of Family Law Cases such as Petitions to Modify an Existing Parenting Plan shall be issued an Order Setting Case Schedule at filing pursuant to PCLSPR 94.04\(g\) and assigned to a department or to Family Court in accordance with existing court policy and practice.

In every newly initiated family law case or modification proceeding, the petitioner shall serve a copy of the applicable order(s) on the respondent along with the initial pleadings; provided that if the initial pleading is served prior to filing, the petitioner shall within five (5) court days of filing serve the applicable order(s). In the event of non-service of the applicable order(s), if the respondent has filed a response or appeared at a judicial proceeding, the court may, upon inquiry of respondent to verify respondent's understanding of the case schedule, excuse this service requirement if no prejudice results to respondent as a consequence of that excusal. If the initial pleading is served by publication, the petitioner shall serve the applicable order(s) within five (5) court days of service of respondent's first appearance. (e) Amendment of Case Schedule. The court, either on motion of a party or on its own initiative, may modify any date in the Order Setting Case Schedule for good cause, including the track to which the case is assigned, except that the trial date may be changed only as provided in PCLR 40\(g\). If an Order Setting Case Schedule is modified or the track assignment is changed, the court shall prepare and file the Order Amending Case Schedule and promptly mail or provide it to the attorneys and self-represented parties. Cases which are transferred to arbitration pursuant to PCLSCCAR 2.1 will have their existing case schedule stricken upon transfer. The assigned judicial department will then set a mandatory court review hearing to monitor the case status. Once a case is resolved, closed or dismissed, the assigned judicial department will cancel any pending mandatory court review hearing. A written request for a trial de novo shall cause a new Order Setting Case Schedule to be issued on an expedited track assignment (per PCLR 3\(h\) below) by the assigned judicial department when the request for trial de novo is filed pursuant to PCLSCCAR 7.1.

The Note for Motion Docket, motion, and supporting documents shall be filed with the Clerk and served on the opposing party no later than the close of business on the seventh court day before the day set for hearing. For example, if the motion is scheduled for a Friday, it shall be filed by the close of business on the Wednesday of the week before the hearing date unless there is an intervening court holiday. This rule shall not relieve the moving party from any greater notice or filing requirements established by law or court rule. See PCLR 7(c)(1)(2) & (3) regarding Motions for Reconsideration to be heard before a judge. See also PCLSPR 98.20 regarding periodic guardianship hearings.

(B) Trial Assignments. If the attorneys or any self-represented party fails to appear on the date set for assignment of a trial date, the case shall be dismissed without prejudice unless the assignment of a trial date has been previously obtained or the case has been fully resolved with the entry of all final documents.

(4) Failure to File or Serve - Sanctions. If the motion, supporting documents, and Note for Motion Docket are not all filed with the clerk, the court may strike the motion. No motion shall be heard unless proof of service upon the opposing party is filed no later than the time set forth for confirmation of motions under PCLR 7\(a\)\(9\) or there is an admission of such service by the opposing party. Electronic service under PCLGR 30 does not excuse this requirement to file proof of service. The court may also, in its discretion, impose terms upon the offending party.

(5) Opposing Papers. Any party opposing a motion shall file and serve responsive papers in opposition to a motion not later than 12:00 noon three (3) court days before the date the motion is scheduled for hearing.

(6) Reply. Any papers in strict reply shall be served no later than 12:00 noon two (2) court days before the date the motion is scheduled for hearing.

(7) Working Copies. The assigned judicial department shall be furnished with a working copy of all motion papers. Anyone e-filing motion papers shall be responsible for ensuring working copies are timely provided to the assigned judicial department. All working copies are to be delivered no later than the date and time they are required to be served on opposing parties. The working copies of papers in support or opposition shall be marked on the upper right corner of the first page with the date of hearing and the name of the Judge. A fax or email transmittal of working copies shall not be acceptable delivery. For a motion that is re-noted, a new set of working copies shall be provided, absent permission of the Court.

(8) Page Limits. The initial motion and opposing memorandum shall not exceed twelve (12) pages without authorization of the court; reply memoranda shall not exceed five (5) pages without the authority of the court. Provided, however, for Motions for Summary Judgment pursuant to CR 56 the parties' moving and opposing memoranda shall not exceed twenty-four (24) pages without authorization of the court; reply memoranda shall not exceed twelve (12) pages without authority of the court.

(9) Confirmation of Motions. All motions shall be confirmed by the moving party no earlier than five (5) court days prior to the motion, but no later than 12:00 noon three (3) court days prior to the hearing (e.g. for a Friday motion without any intervening holidays, no earlier than the Friday the week before, and no later than the Tuesday the week of the hearing by 12:00 noon). Attorneys and any self-represented party shall confirm motions by contacting the judicial assistant of the assigned judicial department or electronically, through the internet by those with LINX accounts and PIN (Personal Identification Numbers), in accordance with the procedures adopted by the Pierce County Superior Court Clerk's Office. Motions filed by those persons physically confined under a court order shall be deemed confirmed at filing. The court may strike motions that are not timely confirmed. For information regarding confirmation of motions before a Commissioner, please refer to PCLR 7\(b\)\(1\)\(E\)\(iii\) for show cause calendar motions or PCLSPR 94.04\(c\)\(7\) for family law motions.

(10) Procedures for Hearing. The cases on the motion docket for each motion day shall be called and oral argument may be presented. Motions may be continued by the court, at the court's discretion, for hearing at other specified times. The trial court may, in its discretion or for good cause shown, waive oral argument for civil motions. Motions requiring more than ten (10) minutes for argument may be placed at the end of the calendar.

(11) Motions for Summary Judgment

(A) Scheduling the Motion. The Note for Motion Docket shall be filed with the motion and supporting documents and served upon the opposing party at the same time. The Note for Motion Docket, motion, and supporting documents shall be filed with the Clerk and served on the opposing party no later than the close of business on the 28th day before the day set for hearing. For example, if the motion is scheduled for a Friday, it shall be filed by the close of business on the fourth Friday before the hearing date.

(B) Confirmation of Motions. All motions for summary judgment shall be confirmed in the manner prescribed by PCLR 7\(a\)\(9\) above. Any motion for summary judgment not confirmed shall be stricken. No hearing upon a motion for summary judgment shall be continued except upon the explicit permission of the assigned Judge. Any summary judgment motion that is continued shall be reconfirmed as set forth above.

(C) Testimony. If testimony transcribed at any pretrial deposition is used in support of or in opposition to a motion for summary judgment, such testimony shall be presented by affidavit containing excerpts of the testimony relied upon by the party using such testimony, with reference to the line and the page of source.

(A) Timing. Within ten (10) days of the entry of a written order or judgment by a Court Commissioner, either party may file a motion for revision pursuant to PCLR 7\(a\)\(3\)\(A\), absent an order shortening time. The transcript, if required, shall be filed as per subsection (E) of this rule. (C) Content of Motion. All motions and cross-motions shall state with specificity any portion of the Commissioner's order or judgment sought to be revised, identifying those portions by paragraph or page and line numbers. Any portion not so specified shall be binding as if no revision motion has been made.

(D) Costs and Fees. The judicial department has the right to award reasonable costs or attorneys fees where allowed on all motions for revision without the necessity of a written motion.

(E) Transcript Required. When seeking revision of a ruling of a Court Commissioner which was based upon sworn testimony, such testimony shall be transcribed in accordance with RAP 9.2\(e\) and \(f\), GR 35, and PCLGR 35. (3) Civil Mental Health Division. Court Commissioners hear matters arising in this division as set forth in PCLR 0.4\(a\)\(3\), except where a trial by jury is requested. Jury trials are assigned to one of the judicial departments by the Court Administrator.

(c) Motions held before Judges or Commissioners

(1) Motions for Reconsideration. A Motion for Reconsideration shall be heard by the Judge or Commissioner who initially ruled on the motion or to the Presiding Judge or his/her designee upon a showing of good cause. Temporary assignment of the Judge or Commissioner to a location other than the courthouse shall not be considered good cause. No Motions for Reconsideration of Pro Tem Commissioners' rulings are permitted.

(2) Time for Motions for Reconsideration. A Motion for Reconsideration shall be filed within 10 days and noted for hearing within 30 days after entry of the judgment, decree, or order. (3) Disposition of Motion for Reconsideration. No response to a motion for reconsideration shall be filed unless requested by the Court. No motion for reconsideration will be granted without such a request. If a response is called for, a reply may be filed within two days of service of the response. If the moving party has been unable to notify all parties of the Motion to Shorten Time, it is within the judicial officer's discretion to proceed with the Motion to Shorten Time.

(B) Judicial Department Motions. If the underlying motion is to be heard by a Judge, the moving party shall contact that department's judicial assistant to obtain a date and time for the hearing on the Motion to Shorten Time. The moving party shall make a good-faith effort to notify all other parties of the date, time, and place of the hearing. The Motion to Shorten Time and the underlying motion shall be filed and served pursuant to PCLGR 30, except that hard copies shall also be delivered to the assigned judicial department. (1) Non-Family Law Cases and Family Law Cases Without Children. At least 30 days prior to trial the parties shall each submit a certification or declaration that they have participated in one or more types of ADR, including, but not limited to: formal negotiations that included an exchange of written proposals; private settlement conference; arbitration; or mediation.

(E) Settlement of Case. When a settlement has been reached, the settlement agreement or partial agreement shall be placed on the record or reduced to writing.

(iv) Where the court upon motion finds that allegations of child abuse involving at least one of the parties are such that it would not be appropriate to mandate alternative dispute resolution; or

(v) For other good cause shown.

Motions for Waivers of ADR in Family Law must be brought in accordance with the provisions of PCLR 7. The Motion to Waive Mandatory Settlement Conference shall contain the case heading and otherwise be as set forth in Appendix, Form R.

■ SUPERIOR COURT CIVIL ARBITRATION RULES –
PCLSCCAR (Back to Top)

PCLSCCAR 1 -- SCOPE AND PURPOSE OF RULES

1.1 Application of Rules - Purpose and Definitions

(a) Purpose. The purpose of arbitration of civil actions under RCW 7.06, as implemented by the Superior Court Civil Arbitration Rules, is to provide a simplified and economical procedure for obtaining the prompt and equitable resolution of disputes involving claims of $100,000.00 or less. The Superior Court Civil Arbitration Rules, as supplemented by these local rules, are not designed to address every question which may arise during the arbitration process, and the rules give considerable discretion to the arbitrator. The arbitrator should not hesitate to exercise that discretion. Arbitration hearings should be informal and expeditious, consistent with the purpose of the statutes and rules.

(b) "Director" Defined. In these rules, "Director" means the Clerk of the Pierce County Superior Court.

[Amended effective September 1, 2023]

1.2 Matters Subject to Arbitration. The limit for claims subject to arbitration is $100,000.00. For the purpose of this rule, a "claim" is defined to be the net value of the claim, after all reductions for comparative negligence or set-offs; e.g. if the plaintiff's damages are $140,000.00 and the plaintiff is 50% comparatively negligent, the plaintiff's claim is for $70,000.00.

[Amended effective September 1, 2020]

1.3 Relationship to Superior Court Jurisdiction and Other Rules – Motions

(a) Motions. All motions before the court relating to arbitration shall be noted on the civil motions calendar in accordance with PCLR 7, except as otherwise provided in these arbitration rules.

2.1 Transfer to Arbitration

(a) Statement of Arbitrability. A party may file a Statement of Arbitrability [Form S] requesting arbitration at any time after all requirements set forth in the certificate of readiness on the Statement of Arbitrability have been met and no later than the discovery cutoff date. After the discovery deadline has passed, the Statement of Arbitrability may be filed only by leave of the court for good cause shown.

(b) Response to Statement of Arbitrability. Any person disagreeing with the Statement of Arbitrability shall serve and file a response to the Statement of Arbitrability on the forms prescribed by the court within 20 days of service of the summons and complaint, or 7 days after the receipt of the Statement of Arbitrability, whichever time is greater.

(c) Failure to File - Amendments. A person failing to serve and file an original response within the times prescribed may later do so only upon leave of the court. A party may amend a Statement of Arbitrability or response at any time before assignment of an arbitrator or assignment of a trial date, and thereafter only upon leave of the court for good cause shown.

(d) By Stipulation. A case in which all parties file a stipulation to arbitrate under SCCAR 8.1 will be placed on the arbitration calendar regardless of the nature of the case or amount in controversy.

(e) When Transfer to Arbitration Occurs for Purpose of Application of Local Rules. The case is transferred to arbitration upon the filing of a Statement of Arbitrability indicating that the case is subject to arbitration, unless an objection to arbitration of the case is received within the time limits found in PCLSCCAR 2.1\(b\). This transfer shall also trigger the restriction on discovery contained in SCCAR 4.2 and PCLSCCAR 4.2.

(f) Trial Date. Once the Statement of Arbitrability has been filed, the trial date and Case Schedule shall be cancelled. A Mandatory Court Review Hearing shall be set 6 months from the filing of the Statement of Arbitrability.

(b) Response by Parties. Each party may, within 14 days after a list of proposed arbitrators is furnished to the parties, nominate 1 or 2 arbitrators and strike 2 arbitrators from the list. If both parties respond, an arbitrator nominated by both parties will be appointed. If no arbitrator has been nominated by both parties, the presiding Judge or designee will randomly appoint an arbitrator from among those not stricken by either party.

(c) Response by Only One (1) Party. If only one party responds within 14 days, the presiding Judge or designee will appoint an arbitrator nominated by that party.

The oath of office on the form prescribed by the court must be completed and filed prior to an applicant being placed on the panel. Pierce County Superior Court shall waive the three continuing legal education credits for arbitrators who have acted as an arbitrator five or more times previously.

(b) Refusal; Disqualification. The appointment of an arbitrator is subject to the right of that person to refuse to serve. An arbitrator must notify the presiding Judge or designee immediately if refusing to serve or if any cause exists for the arbitrator's disqualification from the case upon any of the grounds of interest, relationship, bias, or prejudice set forth in CJC Canon 3\(D\), governing the disqualification of Judges. If disqualified, the arbitrator must immediately return all materials in a case to the presiding Judge or designee.

3.2 Authority of Arbitrators. An arbitrator has the authority to:

(a) Payment of Expense/Attorney Fees. Require a party or attorney, advising such party, or both, to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, caused by the failure of such party or attorney, or both, to obey an order of the arbitrator unless the arbitrator finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust. The arbitrator shall make a special award for such expenses and shall file such award with the clerk of the superior court, with proof of service of a party on each party. The aggrieved party shall have 10 days thereafter to appeal the award of such expense in accordance with the procedures described in RCW 2.24.050. The arbitrator shall consider the nature and complexity of the case, the amount in controversy, values at stake, the discovery that has already occurred, the burdens on the party from whom discovery is sought, and the possibility of unfair surprise which may result if discovery is restricted. Authorized discovery shall be conducted in accordance with the civil rules, except that motions concerning discovery shall be determined by the arbitrator.

If the answer above is “Yes”, describe the crime for which you were convicted and the outcome: _____

(9) Civil Proceedings. Describe any civil or administrative proceeding in which there was a finding that you had engaged in dishonesty, misappropriation of funds, breach of fiduciary duty, or mistreatment of any person. Also identify any proceeding(s) where there was a settlement, even if such settlement was without specific findings by the Court:

(10) Disciplinary Proceedings. Describe any disciplinary proceeding against you by any disciplinary body or licensing agency that resulted in a finding of misconduct. This would include any proceedings by any professional organization such as a state bar association or a medical disciplinary review board:

(11) Ability to Secure Bond. In some cases, it is necessary for the Guardian or Conservator to secure a bond, which is insurance coverage providing protection to the Individual in the event of financial loss or personal harm caused by the negligent or intentional conduct of the proposed Guardian/Conservator. Is there any reason (such as bankruptcy or poor credit record) why you would have difficulty obtaining a bond? _____

(12) Compensation and Reimbursement. State whether you intend to request hourly compensation for your services and describe expenses for which you expect to be reimbursed. _____

(13) Summary of Guardian/Conservator Duties. The below signed proposed Guardian/Conservator understands and agrees that:

My duties as Guardian/Conservator are more fully described in:

- (1) the Court Order that appoints me,
- (2) the statutes of the State of Washington – generally RCW 11.130.
- (3) the case law.

I should consult with my attorney if I have any questions. I am presumed to understand my duties and responsibilities. I can be held personally responsible if I do not properly carry out my duties as Guardian and/or Conservator.

As Guardian/Conservator, I act in a fiduciary capacity in my dealings on behalf of the Individual. This means that as the Guardian/Conservator, I am required to put the interests of the Individual ahead of my personal interests in all transactions, as well as any transaction in which my interests and the interests of the Individual may be in conflict.

Additionally, if I have been appointed Conservator, I am charged with the responsibility of acting as a reasonably prudent person in dealing with the investment and conservation of the assets of the Individual and to avoid self-dealing.

For health care decisions, “Before any person authorized to provide informed consent on behalf of a patient who does not have the capacity to make a health care decision exercises that authority, the person must first determine in good faith that that patient, if he or she had the capacity to make the health care decision, would consent to the proposed health care. If such a determination cannot be made, the decision to consent to the proposed health care may be made only after determining that the proposed health care is in the patient’s best interests.” RCW § 7.70.065(1)(a)(C)(c).

If my personal beliefs could be in conflict with the interests of the Individual subject to guardianship and/or conservatorship, I must first do what I believe the Individual would do if competent. If that cannot be determined, either because of lack of knowledge or because the Individual has always been disabled, I may act in the manner that I believe is in the best interest of the Individual. I understand that at any time I can seek direction from the court if there is any question of what is in the best interest of the Individual

Any attorney whom I retain to assist me in this guardianship/conservatorship proceeding will have independent responsibilities and obligations to the Court. The attorney-client privilege may not extend to information regarding misfeasance or malfeasance of a fiduciary. The attorney-client privilege may not extend to information given by me, the Guardian/Conservator, to my attorney, for any failure to follow the laws of a court-appointed Guardian/Conservator.

If I am appointed the Guardian or Conservator, I must:

- Give the Individual and notice parties a copy of the Order with the notice of the right to request termination or modification within 14 days of appointment;
- Give the Individual and notice parties the Notice of Right within 30 days of appointment;
- keep the Court informed of any change in my name, address, or bonding status;
- file a Change of Circumstance Report within thirty (30) days of any change of location, major or permanent changes in health or finances, or of the death of the Individual;
- file a Final Accounting within ninety (90) days after the termination of a conservatorship. RCW 11.130.570
- If I am appointed Conservator, I must also:
- keep the Individual's funds separate from my own, in a separate conservatorship bank account;
- make all payments in a timely manner and with a method so there is a record of all transactions that can be verified by the Court at the time of each accounting (e.g. checking account);
- file, within ninety (90) days of my appointment, a Conservator's Plan and an Inventory of the assets in the conservatorship estate, and
- file, within ninety (90) days of the anniversary date of my appointment (as shown on the Letters of Conservatorship), an Accounting showing the receipts and disbursements made on behalf of the Individual during the previous accounting period.

If I am appointed the Guardian, I must also:

- file, within ninety (90) days of my appointment, a Guardian's Plan describing the care needs and condition of the Individual with the court.
- file, within ninety (90) days of the anniversary date of my appointment (as shown on the Letters of Guardianship), a Report describing the care and condition of the Individual during the previous reporting period.

If I am appointed the Guardian and/or Conservator, I cannot:

- spend, sell, borrow, loan, invest or give away ANY of the Individual's property (including money), without a court order;
- spend, loan, invest, or give away any of the Individual's principal or income for any purpose without a court order;
- borrow money on behalf of the Individual, without a court order;

- use the Individual's money for myself or my needs, without a court order;
- pay myself a fee from the Individual's money, without the filing of a verified petition with an Affidavit detailing the time spent, services provided, and compensation requested, and a corresponding court order approving said petition; or
- force the Individual to live ANYWHERE, including a mental institution or nursing home facility.

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY UNDER THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT.
