Motion for Reconsideration
(MTRC)

Motion for Reconsideration

Use this form if you believe the court's decision was legally incorrect or you have newly discovered evidence, and you want the same judge or commissioner to reconsider their decision. If you want a judge to review a commissioner's decision, use the Motion for Revision (form PO 110).

To the person filing this motion:

Deadline! Your papers must be filed within 10 days after entry of the order you want reconsidered, or by the deadline for reconsideration in your county's Local Court Rules, whichever is later. Court Rules and forms are online at www.courts.wa.gov.

If you want the court to consider your motion, you must:

- File your original motion and documents with the court clerk in the same court that heard your case;
- Have a copy of your papers served on all other parties or their lawyers at least 5 days before the hearing unless your Local Court Rule requirement is different;
- Schedule a hearing on your motion to take place within 30 days after entry of the order you want reconsidered, unless your Local Court Rules or a court order allows more time; AND
- Check your Local Court Rules for any additional requirements for reconsideration.

Extend temporary surrender of weapons

If you had a temporary Order to Surrender and Prohibit Weapons, your full protection order was denied, and you are filing this motion to ask a judge or commissioner to reconsider that denial, the court must extend the temporary Order to Surrender and Prohibit Weapons until your motion is decided. The court can decide not to extend if it finds that extending would be a manifest injustice.

To get the extension, when you file this motion you must also present a proposed Order Extending Order to Surrender and Prohibit Weapons, WS 400, to a judicial officer to sign before the deadline for reconsideration passes.

To the person receiving this motion:

Check your Local Court Rules to see if you are allowed to file a response to a Motion for Reconsideration. In some counties, no response is allowed unless the court specifically requests it.

If a response is allowed (or the court asks you to respond) and you do not agree with the motion, file a declaration with the court clerk explaining why the court should not approve the motion. Use form PO 018, Declaration. You must have a copy of your papers served on all other parties or their lawyers.

5. Legal Authority

I ask the court to reconsider its previous order based on Civil Rule 59(a):

Grounds for New Trial or Reconsideration. On the motion of the party aggrieved, a verdict may be vacated and a new trial granted to all or any of the parties, and on all issues, or on some of the issues when such issues are clearly and fairly separable and distinct, or any other decision or order may be vacated and reconsideration granted.

Specifically, my motion is based on one or more of the following reasons in CR 59(a) that materially affect my substantial rights (check all that apply):

- Irregularity in the proceedings of the court or the other party, or any order of the court, or abuse of discretion, by which I was prevented from having a fair hearing;
- Misconduct of prevailing party;
- Accident or surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;
- Newly discovered evidence, material to my case, which I could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the hearing;
- Damages so excessive or inadequate as unmistakably to indicate that the decision must have been the result of passion or prejudice;
- Error in the amount of recovery whether too large or too small for the injury or detention of property;
- That there is no evidence or reasonable inference from the evidence to justify the decision, or that it is contrary to law;
- Error in law occurring at the hearing that I objected to at the time; or
- That substantial justice has not been done.
