I. In Summary

Mr. L'Hommedieu (Petitioner) has become accustomed to filing an erroneous number of motions and petitions that are not supported with any facts, law or evidence. His allegations of some kind of an alleged sex trafficking ring are false. Ms. L'Hommedieu and the parties' daughters are not involved in a cabal or sex trafficking ring with anyone. It's absurd.

II. Petitioners Issues Identified

1. Issue No. 1: Should the Trial Court (Judge Baker) sanction himself $50 million for trafficking Petitioner's daughters?
2. Issue No. 2: Is the Final Decree valid when the signature of Petitioner was garnered via fraud, later withdrawn via affidavit at the court of appeals level, and the Respondent did not sign it?

III. Respondents Argument for each Issue

3. Respondent's Argument for Issue No. 1:

The appeals court was never asked to review or decide whether there is an alleged sex trafficking ring run by Judge Baker. Mr. L'Hommedieu requested the appellate court to reconsider an alleged sex trafficking ring that was never an issue that they had considered in the first place in order to come to their findings or decision about the spousal support. Thus, how could they reconsider something they never considered in the first place. Their denial of the motion for reconsideration was accurate.

4. Respondents Argument for Issue No. 2:

The law states that only non-contested divorce decrees need to be signed by both parties. Contested divorces require only the judge to sign. This was a contested divorce.

IV. Conclusion

Mr. L'Hommedieu was given numerous extensions to provide a response brief to the appeals court in defense of Ms. L'Hommedieu's appeal. After several months of the appellate court allowing him extensions for time to file his brief, they finally entered an order prohibiting him from providing one. These extension cost Ms. L'Hommedieu two years while waiting for this case to be heard. It was after the court prohibited him from providing a responsive brief when he then submitted his issue of an alleged sex trafficking ring and cabal. A sex trafficking ring and cabal which allegedly consists of all of the courts in Washington State, Judges, Governors, Senators, Commissioners, Sheriff Departments, Attorneys, the CIA, FBI, Bill Gates, DB Cooper, JFK etc. The motion was abhorrently frivolous.

Signed this 15 day of Jan 2022, in Juniper Falls county Idaho state.
