STATEMENT OF ADDITIONAL GROUNDS FOR REVIEW

I, Ali A. Ali, have received and reviewed the opening brief prepared by my attorney. Summarized below are the additional grounds for review that are not addressed in that brief. I understand the Court will review this Statement of Additional Grounds for Review when my appeal is considered on the merits.

Additional Ground 1

I just want to mention the fact that Mr Harris, the victim, identified each one of us, inside of Officer Batolo's police car, approximately an hour after the car jacking; and he said ~~that~~ Ibrahim was the one who put the gun on him, earlier that night, the youngest and the shortest guy. I'm going on 37 years, for God's sake and I'm 5'11 feet, but he pointed me on trial. That shows, Mr Harris, was excited to get his car back but did not know who was in it, or NOT.

Additional Ground 2

Honorable judges the night we got stopped inside Mr. Harris's car, I was sitting at the backseat waiting to be dropped off at my girl friend's house; just got picked up from Tukwila, did not know nothing about the car and these guys were normal to me, until we got stopped by the whole police force in Seatac, I was shocked. If there are additional grounds, a brief summary is attached to this statement.

RULE OF APPELLAGE PROCEDURE 10.10
STATEMENT OF ADDITIONAL GROUNDS FOR REVIEW

(a) Statement Permitted. A defendant/appellant in a review of a criminal case may file a pro se statement of additional grounds for review to identify and discuss those matters which the defendant/appellant believes have not been adequately addressed by the brief filed by the defendant/appellant's counsel.

(b) Length and Legibility. The statement, which shall be limited to no more than 50 pages, may be submitted in handwriting so long as it is legible and can be reproduced by the clerk.

(c) Citations; Identification of Errors. Reference to the record and citation to authorities are not necessary or required, but the appellate court will not consider a defendant/appellant's statement of additional grounds for review if it does not inform the court of the nature and occurrence of alleged errors. Except as required in cases in which counsel files a motion to withdraw as set forth in RAP 18.3(a)(2), the appellate court is not obligated to search the record in support of claims made in a defendant/appellant's statement of additional grounds for review.

(d) Time for Filing. The statement of additional grounds for review should be filed within 30 days after service upon the defendant/appellant of the brief prepared by defendant/appellant's counsel and the mailing of a notice from the clerk of the appellate court advising the defendant/appellant of the substance of this rule. The clerk will advise all parties if the defendant/appellant files a statement of additional grounds for review.

(e) Report of Proceedings. If within 30 days after service of the brief prepared by defendant/appellant's counsel, defendant/appellant requests a copy of the verbatim report of proceedings from defendant/appellant's counsel, counsel should promptly serve a copy of the verbatim report of proceedings on the defendant/appellant and should file in the appellate court proof of such service. The pro se statement of additional grounds for review should then be filed within 30 days after service of the verbatim report of proceedings. The cost for producing and mailing the verbatim report of proceedings for an indigent defendant/appellant will be reimbursed to counsel from the Office of Public Defense in accordance with Title 15 of these rules.

(f) Additional Briefing. The appellate court may, in the exercise of its discretion, request additional briefing from counsel to address issues raised in the defendant/appellant's pro se statement.
