To the Supreme Court of State of Washington, Jerry Moberg & Associates, P.S.,

Petitioner to the Supreme Court of State of Washington Mr. Roy Cheesman would like to seek permission to modify the "Appeal, Petition for Review" because it does not contain a signature of the Petitioner Mr. Roy D. Cheesman and the cover page format titled "Brief of Petitioner".

Due to the Covid-19 nationwide alarmed, concerns and Mr. Cheesman severe anxiety , the Petitioner has been destructed on how to understand to read the Supreme Court Rap's procedures even without a directional manual from the supreme court despite of paying huge amount of toll fees for the appeal procedure on how to file and write the "PETITION FOR REVIEW" without an idea of where to look and read the RAP's procedures and because of Tort illness from the side effect of medicine 'atenolol" to control high blood prescribe by Community Health of Central Washington doctor from 1998 -2018 who are not acknowledging the side effect complain of the petitioner ever since, Petitioner eye's also has been blurry vision and has white ring around eye and has a disability because of an infected colon because of wrong medicine prescribed by the Community Health doctor that no one would like to talk about it, Mr. Cheesman also has a very limited education below high school (6-7 grade) from the Philippines contributing severely to the wrong failed representations of the Petition for review.

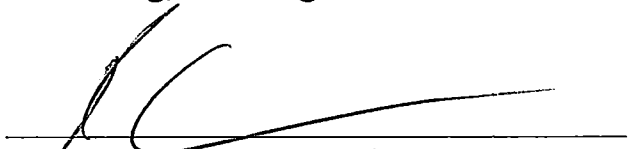

Mr. Cheesman is seeking to the Supreme court permission to modify the "brief of petitioner" and replace it accordingly to " Petition for Review". Rap 13.4 (c, 1-9) and to modify the pages to 20 pages as require by RAP 13.4. (f) complained by the responder's lawyers.

The Petitioner Mr. Cheesman Has filed “ Brief of Petitioner” and would like to modify the format and title, to “Petition for Review” as required by the rule of RAP 13.4 and to modify “Appeal, Petition for review” because it does not contain a signature on the cover pages or any declaration statement for the appendices of the Appeal, petition for review that are accordingly to the rule of RAP 13.4 (c)

Petitioner Mr. Cheesman filed a “Brief of Petitioner” and exceeded to 24 pages and is not permitted by the RAP without a permission to do so from the Supreme Court. Petitioner seek permission to modify the “Brief of Petitioner” and “Appeal, Petition for Review (appendices)” to “Petition for Review” and limit the excess pages accordingly to Rap 13.4 (c)

I certify under penalty of perjury under the laws of the state of Washington that the foregoing is true and correct.

DATED this 1st day of August 2020, at Ellensburg, Washington.
