Home state j	urisdiction – Washington is the children's home state because (check all tha	t apply):

(Children's names):	lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at leas	t the 6 months just before this case was filed, or if the children are less than	6 months old, they have lived in Washington with a parent or someone acti	ng as a parent since birth.

- There were times the children were not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if they are less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.
- (Children's names): ___ do not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the children's home state some time in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent or someone acting as a parent of the children still lives in Washington.
- (Children's names): ______ do not have another home state.

No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for (children's names):
or a court in the children's home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:

7.

	<ul> <li>The children and a parent or someone acting as a parent have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the children's care, protection, education and relationships in this state.</li> </ul>
	Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be (children's names):''s home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.
	☐ Temporary emergency jurisdiction – The court can make decisions for (children's names): because the children are in this state now and were abandoned here or need emergency protection because the children (or the children's parent, brother or sister) were abused or threatened with abuse. (Check one):
	A custody case involving the children was filed in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): Washington should take temporary emergency jurisdiction over the children until the Petitioner can get a court order from the children's home state (or tribe).
	There is no valid custody order or open custody case in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): If no case is filed in the children's home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for 6 months, (date):, Washington should have final jurisdiction over the children.
	Other reason (specify):
	The court cannot approve a Parenting Plan because the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.
8.	Parenting Plan
	My spouse and I have no children together who are still dependent.
