Warning! If there is a dependency (CPS) case for the children, you must get approval from the dependency court to file this case.

15. Tribal Heritage

If there is a reason to know that a child has tribal heritage (including ancestry or familial political affiliation), the court must treat the child as an Indian child unless and until the affected tribe/s decide otherwise or decline to respond after receiving proper notice.

An Indian child is a child who is a member of an Indian tribe, or who is the biological child of an Indian tribe member and eligible for membership. You must try to find out if any child in this case is an Indian child. If so, the federal and state Indian Child Welfare Acts will apply to your case.

Could any of the children be Indian children? (Check all that apply):

No.

None of the children are Indian children.

These children are not Indian children (name/s): _____

I know this because (explain if the children have no tribal heritage, or if any possible tribal heritage has already been explored and decided in another court proceeding that complied with ICWA): _____

I do not know if any of the children are Indian children or have tribal heritage. I have done the following things to try to find out:

16. Jurisdiction Over Indian Children

Does not apply. None of the children are Indian children.

A state court can decide this case for the Indian children because:

(Children's names): _____ are not domiciled or living on an Indian reservation, and are not wards of a tribal court. (25 U.S.C. § 1911)

(Children's names): _____ are domiciled or living on an Indian reservation, and (check all that apply):

The children's tribe agrees to Washington State's concurrent jurisdiction.

The children's tribe decided not to use its exclusive jurisdiction (expressly declined). (RCW 13.38.060)

Washington State should claim emergency jurisdiction for Indian children temporarily located off the reservation to protect the children from immediate physical damage or harm. (RCW 13.38.140)

17. Jurisdiction Over the Children (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)

This Court can decide this case for the children because (check all that apply; if a box applies to all of the children, you may write "the children" instead of listing names):

Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a custody order or parenting plan for the children, and the court still has authority to make other orders for (children's names): _____.

Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the children's home state because (check all that apply):

(Children's names): _____ lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed, or if the children are less than 6 months old, they have lived in Washington with a parent, or someone acting as a parent, since birth.

There were times the children were not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if they are less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.

(Children's names): _____ do not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the children's home state sometime in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent, or someone acting as a parent of the children, still lives in Washington.

(Children's names): _____ do not have another home state.

No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for (children's names): _____

or a court in the children's home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:

- The children and a parent, or someone acting as a parent, have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and
- There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the children's care, protection, education, and relationships in this state.

Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be (children's names): _____'s home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.

Temporary emergency jurisdiction – The court can make decisions for (children's names): _____ because the children are in this state now and were abandoned here or need emergency protection because the children (or the children's parent or sibling) were abused or threatened with abuse. (Check one):

A custody case involving the children was filed in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. Washington should take temporary emergency jurisdiction over the children until the Petitioner can get a court order from the children's home state (or tribe).

There is no valid custody order or open custody case in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. If no case is filed in the children's home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for 6 months, (date): _____, Washington should have final jurisdiction over the children.

Other reason (specify): _____

18. Parents' Visitation

Important! If you are asking for limited or no visitation, you must explain why in the Residential Schedule (form GDN M 408) or Reasons for Minor Guardianship (form GDN M 103).

I ask the court to confirm and order the following contact or visitation between the parents and children:

I ask to court to approve (names) _____ proposed visitation:

I ask the court to approve (names) _____ proposed Residential Schedule. This schedule may include reasons for limiting one parent's visitation. I am filing and serving my proposed Residential Schedule with this Petition.

I ask the court to give no visitation to a parent because the limiting factors from RCW 26.09.191 apply and are severe enough to justify no visitation.

19. Decision-making Authority

22. Fees and Costs

Filing Fee – In some situations the court will not charge a fee for filing this case.

- When the proposed guardian is a relative, the fee is waived automatically.

- [] No request.
[] No fee shall be charged because the proposed standby guardian is a relative of the children, not a professional guardian.
[] Order who should pay for court costs, Court Visitor fees, and other reasonable fees.
