Hawkins incorporates by reference the argument he put before the Court on pgs. 8-12 of the motion cited above.

The case, as argued in Hawkins pleadings, has a prima facie showing that his sentence is unlawful, based upon the application of an inapplicable Statute. (See pgs. 2-5, a overview to the relevant parts of the 1987 sentencing transcripts provided in the CrR 7.8 Motion, attached to the motion as "Exhibit 2").

Mr. Hawkins is not an attorney, nor trained in the law, and he requests that this Court direct briefing in regards to the above.

He stands on the argument that was submitted before the Superior Court, and the fact that the State conceded to his issue by failing to respond with facts and caselaw to dispell his contentions that he has served Over 24 years on an invalid sentence, and the time meets the standard for a dismissal to be granted, and he so moves.

The error he raises violates his fair trial rights and due process rights under Article 1, § 22, and the 5th, 6th, and 14th Amendment of the united States Constitution.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

CHARLES D. HAWKINS
