A. ISSUES PERTAINING TO APPELLANT'S ASSIGNMENTS OF ERROR.

1. Should this court remand for the criminal filing fee to be stricken?
2. Should this court remand for the DNA collection fee to be stricken?

B. STATEMENT OF THE CASE.

The statement of facts is contained in the State's response brief and incorporated here by reference.

C. ARGUMENT.

1. THIS COURT SHOULD ORDER THAT THE IMPOSITION OF THE CRIMINAL FILING FEE BE STRIKEN.

In this case, the trial court found the defendant to be indigent. CP 141 - 142. The defendant's direct appeal is still pending. House Bill 1783{ TA \l "House Bill 1783" \s "House Bill 1783" \c 4 }, effective March 27, 2018, prohibits the imposition of the $200.00 filing fee on defendants who were indigent at the time of sentencing. As the court held in State v. Ramirez, __ Wn.2d __, 426 P.3d 714 (2018){ TA \l "State v. Ramirez, __ Wn.2d __, 426 P.3d 714 (2018)" \s "State v. Ramirez, __ Wn.2d __, 426 P.3d 714 (2018)" \c 1 }, House Bill 1783{ TA \s "House Bill 1783" } is applicable to cases that are on appeal and therefore not yet final. The State agrees that the criminal filing fee of $200.00 that was imposed in this case should be stricken. The State further agrees that House Bill 1783{ TA \s "House Bill 1783" } eliminates any interest accrual on nonrestitution legal financial obligations.

The State acknowledges that this defendant was found indigent by the sentencing court, and therefore the $200.00 criminal filing fee should be stricken.

2. THIS COURT SHOULD ORDER THAT THE IMPOSITION OF THE DNA COLLECTION FEE BE STRIKEN.

The appellant in this case also appeals the imposition of a $100 DNA-collection fee in the judgment and sentence, asserting that a DNA sample was previously submitted to the state as a result of a prior qualifying conviction. A legislative amendment to RCW 43.43.7541{ TA \l "RCW 43.43.7541" \s "RCW 43.43.7541" \c 4 }, which took effect June 7, 2018, requires imposition of the DNA-collection fee “unless the state has previously collected the offender’s DNA as a result of a prior conviction.” The amendment applies to defendants whose appeals were pending — i.e., their cases were not yet final — when the amendment was enacted. State v. Ramirez, ___ Wn.2d ___, 426 P.3d 714, (2018){ TA \s "State v. Ramirez, ___ Wn.2d ___, 426 P.3d 714 (2018)" }.

The State's records show that this appellant's DNA was previously collected and is on file with the Washington State Patrol Crime Lab. The State respectfully asks this Court to remand this case to the superior court to amend the judgment and sentence to strike the imposition of the $100 DNA collection fee.

D. CONCLUSION.

This court should remand for the trial court to strike the imposition of the $200.00 filing fee, the imposition of the $100 DNA collection fee and the interest accrual provision and affirm all other issues as stated in the State's response brief.
