II. ISSUES PRESENTED 1

III. STATEMENT OF THE CASE 2

IV. ARGUMENT 5

A. THE TRIAL COURT COULD NOT ESTABLISH PROBABLE CAUSE WITH A FACT THAT WAS SUBJECT TO REASONABLE DISPUTE 6

B. GREEN LEAF MATERIAL SEIZED FROM MS. ROBERTSON'S HOME DID NOT CONTAIN THE REQUISITE THC CONCENTRATION TO QUALIFY AS MARIJUANA 10

1. The trial court misinterpreted the legislative history for how "marijuana" was defined. 10

2. Based on the legislative history, SSB 5416 was in effect when Ms. Robertson was charged 14

C. A QUESTIONABLE MEASURING DEVICE AND FAULTY MEASURING TACTICS WERE NOT ENOUGH TO SUPPORT THE SENTENCE ENHANCEMENT 16

1. There was no proof the device police used to measure distance from Ms. Robertson's home to the bus stops was accurate 17

2. The officer measured from the bus stops to the wrong end point 19

D. THE TRIAL COURT VIOLATED EQUAL PROTECTION RIGHTS PRINCIPLES WHEN IT ORDERED MS. ROBERTSON TO REFRAIN FROM USING MARIJUANA 20

1. Ms. Robertson raises this issue for the first time on appeal 20

2. Ms. Robertson is entitled to equal protection under the law to use marijuana as a citizen of this state 21

I. ASSIGNMENTS OF ERROR

1. The trial court erred when it failed to suppress evidence police seized without probable cause. CP 105-107.

2. The trial court erred when it concluded facts contained within the warrant application established probable cause, and provided a sufficient nexus between the suspected criminal conduct and the place to be searched. (Conclusion of Law #3) CP 105-107.

3. The trial court erred when it found the appearance of green leaf material the confidential informant received coupled with the field test police used to determine marijuana satisfied probable cause. (Finding of Fact #7) (emphasis added); CP 105-107.

4. The trial court erred when it took judicial notice field tests police used detected the requisite level of Tetrahydrocannabinol (THC) in effect at the time.

5. Evidence presented at trial did not prove beyond a reasonable doubt green leaf material seized from the home was marijuana. CP 294-300.

6. The trial court erred when it imposed a sentence enhancement for violations that occurred within 1000 feet of a school bus stop, without proof the measuring device was reliable and without proof the officer's measurements corresponded to the law. CP 294-300.

7. The trial court abused its discretion when it imposed a "no marijuana use" condition on a Family and Offender Sentence Alternative?

II. ISSUES PRESENTED

1. Did the trial court establish probable cause when it ventured outside the four corners of the affidavit and took judicial notice the field test used to detect marijuana was reliable? (Assignments of Error ##1, 2, 3, & 4)

2. Whether green leaf material seized from the home qualified as marijuana? (Assignments of Error ## 4 & 5)

3. Was there state sufficient evidence to support the sentence enhancement? (Assignment of Error #6)

4. Did the trial court violate equal protection principles when it imposed "a no marijuana use" condition on a Family and Offender Sentence Alternative? (Assignment of Error #7)

III. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Ephrata police had single mother of three, Cassie Kay Robertson (Ms. Robertson), under surveillance for six weeks in a narcotics investigation. CP 66-74. A confidential informant told police Ms. Robertson sold narcotics out of her home. She kept bags of green leaf matter, white powdery substance, and white crystal like substance in her bedroom. An officer later told the court Ms. Robertson admitted she sold marijuana off and on for years to fund her addictions to methamphetamine and cocaine. 1/6/16 RP 29-30.

On January 23, 2014, as part of the investigation, Ephrata police orchestrated a control buy, where they used the confidential informant to purchase narcotics from Ms. Robertson. 1/6/16 RP 27. Police gave the confidential informant marked money to make the purchase. The confidential informant returned and gave an officer a bag of green leaf material. CP 66-74.

The officer weighed and tested the material, and in an affidavit for a warrant to search Ms. Robertson's home, the officer affirmed under oath the material tested positive for marijuana. CP 66-74. Ephrata police searched Ms. Robertson's home and seized from her bedroom, money the confidential informant used, green leaf material, cocaine, methamphetamine, and drug paraphernalia. CP 66-74; 1/6/16 RP 151-52; 1/6/16 RP 26-29.

The state charged Ms. Robertson with possession with intent to manufacture/deliver marijuana, possession of methamphetamine, and possession of cocaine. CP 1-3. The state later added a sentence enhancement, because her home was situated near two school bus stops. CP 95-97.

Ms. Robertson moved the court to suppress evidence seized from her home. She pointed out a list of flaws with the affidavit police used to establish probable cause for the search. 5/21/14 RP 90. She challenged the confidential informant's veracity and the fact the state omitted relevant information about the confidential informant's criminal history. She also pointed out the affidavit did not verify that the field test the officer used detected requisite THC concentration for the material to qualify as marijuana. 5/21/14 RP 90-96.

The trial court took judicial notice the field test was reliable. It found the appearance of the material the confidential informant received along with field test satisfied probable cause for the search warrant. The court left the issue of whether the material contained the requisite THC concentration for the state to prove at trial. CP 105-107; 5/21/14 RP 105.

Ms. Robertson did not challenge her other two charges for possession of methamphetamine and possession of cocaine, at trial, and the court found her guilty. CP 294-300. She did challenge evidence the state used to prove she possessed marijuana with intent to manufacture and deliver it near a protected zone.

A forensic scientist testified the material seized from Ms. Robertson's bedroom was marijuana based on its THC concentration. However, the scientist based her analysis on a definition for "THC concentration" that was not in effect when Ms. Robertson was charged. Under the definition the scientist applied "THC concentration" meant "a combination of delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol and delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinolic acid." 1/6/16 RP 147-48.

Ms. Robertson objected to the state's analysis because a bill, based on the initiative that legalized marijuana, became effective on July 28, 2013. The bill, which was in effect when she was charged, defined "THC concentration" as "percent of delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol content per dry weight of any part of the plant Cannabis, or per volume of weight of marijuana product." CP 234-293.

Based on the state's analysis for THC concentration, the trial court concluded the material was marijuana and found Ms. Robertson guilty of possession of marijuana. CP 294-300.

Ms. Robertson also argued the state did not prove her bedroom, the place where police seized evidence, was within 1,000 feet of the two bus stops. A school district transportation supervisor testified although bus stops were not marked, there were two near Ms. Robertson's home. 1/6/16 RP 87; 1/6/16 RP 96. According to an officer, the school bus stops were within half a block or less from Ms. Robertson's house. 1/6/16 RP 78. He used a roller tape, which the state compared to a standard ruler, to measure the distance from the location [bus stops] back to Ms. Robertson's house. 1/6/16 RP 79.

The officer explained how he measured the distance from one bus stop to the edge of Ms. Robertson's property to be 290 feet and the distance from the other bus stop to the edge of her property to be 280 feet. 1/6/16 RP 84-85. Although the officer had the roller for eight years, he told the court he never calibrated it. 1/6/16 RP 24; 1/6/16 RP 79.

Ms. Robertson argued the officer's testimony alone was not enough to prove roller tape device was accurate. She also pointed out the officer's measurements from the bus stops to the edge of her property, went against case law, which required the measurement to end where the offense occurred. CP 234-293.

The trial court disagreed and imposed the sentence enhancement. It concluded the state's evidence was sufficient to prove the roller tape was accurate and the officer's measurements were enough to surmise the offense occurred within a school, bus stop, or other protected zone. CP 294-300.

At sentencing, Ms. Robertson moved the court for a Family and Offender Sentencing Alternative (FOSA), which offered an alternative to total confinement for non-violent offenders with children. She submitted a risk assessment report prepared by a community corrections officer from the Department of Corrections (DOC) that determined Ms. Robertson was eligible for and suitable for a FOSA. CP 315-348. Based on DOC's recommendation, the court granted the FOSA. CP 358-372. As a condition, the court restricted Ms. Robertson from marijuana use. 5/9/16 RP 228; CP 358-372.

Ms. Robertson filed a notice to appeal her conviction. CP 373-389.

A. THE TRIAL COURT COULD NOT ESTABLISH PROBABLE CAUSE WITH A FACT THAT WAS SUBJECT TO REASONABLE DISPUTE.

Standard of review

At the suppression hearing, the trial court acts in an appellate-like capacity; its review, like this court's review, is limited to the four corners of the affidavit used to support probable cause. State v. Neth, 165 Wash.2d 177, 182, 196 P.3d 658 (2008) citing State v. Murray, 110 Wash.2d 706, 709–10, 757 P.2d 487 (1988); Wong Sun v. United States, 371 U.S. 471, 481–82, 83 S.Ct. 407, 414, 9 L.Ed.2d 441 (1963); State v. Amerman, 84 Md.App. 461, 581 A.2d 19 (1990). Although this court must defer to the magistrate's determination, the trial court's assessment of probable cause is a legal conclusion this court must review de novo. State v. Chamberlin, 161 Wash.2d 30, 40–41, 162 P.3d 389 (2007). State v. Neth, 165 Wash.2d 177, 196 P.3d 658. Despite the fact de novo review applies to questions of law rather than discretionary decisions, this court must afford great deference to the magistrate's probable cause determination. State v. Cord, 103 Wash.2d 361, 366, 693 P.2d 81 (1985).

Analysis

To establish probable cause, the affidavit used to support the search warrant must "set forth facts and circumstances sufficient to establish a reasonable inference that the defendant is probably involved in criminal activity and that evidence of the crime can be found at the place to be searched." State v. Thein, 138 Wash.2d 133, 140, 977 P.2d 582 (1999). Accordingly, the affidavit must show "a nexus between criminal activity and the item to be seized, and also a nexus between the item to be seized and the place to be searched." Id., citing State v. Merkt, 124 Wash. App. 607, 612-13, 102 P.3d 828, 831 (2004);(citing Wayne R. LaFave, Search and Seizure § 3.7(d), at 372 (3d ed.1996)). A

"nexus" is the connection between the defendant, the criminal activity, and the place. State v. Neth, 165 Wash.2d at 183.

Courts generally are not allowed to go beyond the four corners of the affidavit to determine probable cause. United States v. Damitz, 495 F.2d 50 (9th Cir.1974),State v. Jansen, 15 Wash.App. 348, 350, 549 P.2d 32 (1976). However, CrR 2.3(c) implicitly allows courts to consider facts extrinsic to the affidavit. See State v. Jansen, 15 Wash.App. 348, 350, 549 P.2d 32, review denied, 87 Wash.2d 1015 (1976); see also State v. Gonzalez, 77 Wash.App. 479, 891 P.2d 743 (1995), review denied, 128 Wash.2d 1008, 910 P.2d 481 (1996). State v. McReynolds, 117 Wash. App. 309, 331, 71 P.3d 663, 673 (2003). Under this rule, courts may inquire into the sworn recorded or summarized testimony, if any, upon which the issuing magistrate relied. State v. Jansen, 15 Wash. App. 348, 350, 549 P.2d 32, 34 (1976).

An inquiry beyond the affidavit allows the court to make use of matters within the field of judicial notice and permits the court to consider the experience and special knowledge of the magistrate and of the police officers who applied for the search warrant. Dean v. Maryland, 205 Md. 274, 107 A.2d 88 (1954). State v. Jansen, 15 Wash. App. 348, 351, 549 P.2d 32, 35 (1976). However, if a court takes judicial notice of a fact, then the truth of that fact must be so notorious or well known, or so authoritatively attested, it cannot be doubted. For that reason, when a court takes judicial notice of a fact, it raises a question of law this court must review de novo. Fusato v. Washington Interscholastic Activities Ass'n, 93 Wash. App. 762, 771–72, 970 P.2d 774, 779 (1999).

Certain facts are not proper for judicial notice; only those facts "not subject to reasonable dispute" in the sense that they are "generally known" or "capable of accurate and ready determination by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned." Evidence Rule (ER) 201(b); State v. Anderson, 80 Wash. App. 384, 390, 909 P.2d 945, 948 (1996).

For example, Division One of this court concluded the issue of whether or not a particular speed gun model was reliable or accurate was not a proper matter for judicial notice. City of Seattle v. Peterson, 39 Wash. App. 524, 529, 693 P.2d 757, 759 (1985). In City of Seattle v. Peterson, a Seattle police officer used a radar unit to pull over Peterson for speeding. City of Seattle v. Peterson, 39 Wash. App. 524, 525, 693 P.2d 757, 757 (1985). The officer issued Peterson a citation for traveling 43 m.p.h. in a 30 m.p.h. zone. Peterson testified he was going 30 m.p.h. He objected to the radar's results and argued the officer was not qualified to operate the radar. City of Seattle v. Peterson, 39 Wash. App. at 525, 693 P.2d 757, 757 (1985). The only other evidence the City offered was the officer's testimony that, before he locked in a reading on the radar unit of 43 m.p.h., it appeared to him Peterson's vehicle was traveling between 40 and 45 m.p.h. City of Seattle v. Peterson, 39 Wash. App. at 525–26.

The municipal court judge who heard the case took judicial notice of the accuracy of the radar unit and stated he was satisfied the radar was accurate. Peterson appealed to the superior court, which concluded "[t]he process or system of a particular model of traffic radar is a proper subject of judicial notice." Id.

Division One reversed the superior court's decision on discretionary review. It found the court was required to have proof the radar was so designed and constructed that, when properly operated, the results or readings were accurate, according to ER 901.

Id., at 527. Federal and state courts generally adopted the evidentiary requirement employed in ER 901 before our state adopted it in 1979. Frye v. United States, 293 F. 1013 (D.C.Cir.1923) held evidence of a polygraph test based on scientific principles was not admissible until it could be shown the test involved was generally accepted as reliable by the relevant scientific community. Only then would the court be justified to admit the evidence. Id.

Like the process or system of the radar in City of Seattle v. Peterson, the field test procedure used to detect marijuana here was subject to reasonable dispute and was not a proper subject for judicial notice. At the time police applied for the search warrant, our Legislature changed the definitions for "marijuana" and for "THC concentration." That meant in order for material the confidential informant received to qualify as marijuana, it had to have the requisite THC concentration.

The trial court dismissed this argument and found the legal definition for "marijuana" did not diminish probable cause. 5/21/14 RP 99. It reasoned there was sufficient basis for the magistrate to have taken judicial notice the "presumptive field test for the presence of marijuana is the field test for the presence of THC." The court left the legal issue of requisite THC concentration for the state to prove at trial. CP 105-107; 5/21/14-RP 105.

Whether or not material the confidential informant handed over to police was in fact marijuana would have affected probable cause. One reason being, there was no way for the officer to affirm under oath the material tested positive for marijuana, if he did not administer a field test capable to detect requisite THC concentration. Moreover, there was nothing in the affidavit to establish whether the relevant scientific community deemed the field test the officer used as reliable to detect requisite THC concentration. CP 66-74. And on top of that, the affidavit did not identify the field test or even describe the officer's qualifications to administer it. Without these facts, probable cause was diminished and the trial court should have suppressed evidence seized.

B. GREEN LEAF MATERIAL SEIZED FROM MS. ROBERTSON'S HOME DID NOT CONTAIN THE REQUISITE THC CONCENTRATION TO QUALIFY AS MARIJUANA.

Standard of review

When reviewing a challenge to the sufficiency of evidence, this court must determine "whether, after viewing the evidence in the light most favorable to the prosecution, any rational trier of fact could have found the essential elements of the crime beyond a reasonable doubt." Jackson v. Virginia, 443 U.S. 307, 319, 99 S.Ct. 2781, 61 L.Ed.2d 560 (1979). The purpose of this standard of review is to ensure the trial court fact finder "rationally appl[ied]" the constitutional standard required by the due process clause of the Fourteenth Amendment, which allows for conviction of a criminal offense only upon proof beyond a reasonable doubt. Jackson, 443 U.S. at 317–18, 99 S.Ct. 2781; In re Winship, 397 U.S. 358, 364, 90 S.Ct. 1068, 25 L.Ed.2d 368 (1970). This Jackson standard is designed to ensure the defendant's due process right in the trial court is properly observed. State v. Phuong, 174 Wash.App. 494, 502, 299 P.3d 37, 42 (2013).

Analysis

1. The trial court misinterpreted the legislative history for how "marijuana" was defined. To support Ms. Robertson's conviction for possession with intent to manufacture and deliver marijuana, the state had to first prove beyond a reasonable doubt Ms. Robertson possessed marijuana. RCW 69.50.401.

Our state Legislature re-defined marijuana when voters approved Initiative Measure 502 (Initiative), which legalized marijuana production, possession, delivery and distribution. The Initiative defined "marijuana" in pertinent part, as "all parts of the plant Cannabis, whether growing or not, with a THC concentration greater than 0.3 percent on a dry weight basis..." It also defined "THC concentration" as "percent of delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol content per dry weight of any part of the plant Cannabis, or per volume or weight of marijuana product." See Appendix A: Initiative Measure 502.

On April 16, 2013, the Legislature passed Substitute Senate Bill (SSB) 5416, which included the same definitions for "marijuana" and for "THC concentration" as were presented to the people in Initiative 502:

> "Marijuana" means "all parts of the Cannabis, whether growing or not, with a THC concentration greater than .3 percent on a dry weight basis; the seeds thereof; the resin extracted from any part of the plant, and every compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture, or preparation of the plant, its seeds, or resin. The term does not include the mature stalks of the plant, fiber produced from the stalks, (except the resin extracted therefrom), fiber, oil, or cake, or the sterilized seed of the plant which is incapable of germination."

See SSB 5416(s). "THC concentration" means "percent of delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol content per dry weight of any part of the plant Cannabis, or per volume of weight of marijuana product." See SSB 5416(ii).

Although the Legislature passed SSB 5416, the bill could not become law until the governor signed it. Our Supreme Court recognizes the governor's role in the legislative process. It held the governor acts in a legislative capacity, when s/he either approves or disapproves legislation. Washington State Grange v. Locke, 153 Wash. 2d 475, 486–87, 105 P.3d 9, 15 (2005) citing, Hallin v. Trent, 94 Wash.2d 671, 677, 619

P.2d 357 (1980); Wash. Ass'n of Apartment Ass'ns v. Evans, 88 Wash.2d 563, 565, 564 P.2d 788 (1977).

The governor signed SSB 5416 on May 16, 2013 and it became effective July 28, 2013. See Appendix B: Certification of Enrollment Substitute Senate Bill 5416, Chapter 276, Laws of 2013, 63rd Legislature 2013 Regular Session. Before the governor signed SSB 5416, however, the House passed Engrossed House Bill (EHB) 2056 "to correct the definition of "THC concentration" as adopted by Initiative Measure No. 502 to avoid an implication that conversion, by combustion, of tetraydrocannabinol acid into delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol is not part of the THC content that differentiates marijuana from hemp; amend RCW 69.50.101; and declare an emergency" (emphasis added).

EHB 2056 does not refer to SSB 5416, but it defines "THC concentration" differently. See Appendix C: Engrossed House Bill 2056 63rd Legislature 2013 Regular Session. It defines "THC concentration" to mean "percent of delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol content per dry weight of any part of the plant Cannabis, or per volume or weight of marijuana product, or the combined percent of delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol and tetrahydrocannabinolic acid in any part of the plant Cannabis regardless of moisture content." See Appendix C: Engrossed House Bill 2056 63rd Legislature 2013 Regular Session.

The governor signed EHB 2056 on May 1, 2013 and it became effective on May 1, 2013. It remained in effect from May 1, 2013 until SSB 5416 became effective on July 28, 2013. See Appendix B: Certification of Enrollment Substitute Senate Bill 5416, Chapter 276, Laws of 2013, 63rd Legislature 2013 Regular Session.

Presumably to sort the conflict between EHB 2056 and SSB 5416, the Legislature passed Engrossed Substitute House Bill (ESHB) 2304. See Appendix D: Certification of Enrollment Engrossed Substitute House Bill 2304 Chapter 192, Laws of 2014 63rd Legislature-Marijuana Processing Retail Licenses. Like subsection (s) in EHB 2056, subsection (kk) in ESHB 2304 defined "THC concentration" to "mean percent of delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol content per dry weight of any part of the plant Cannabis, or per volume or weight of marijuana product, or the combined percent of delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol and tetrahydrocannabinolic acid in any part of the plant Cannabis regardless of moisture content." See Appendix B. The governor signed ESHB 2304 on April 2, 2014 and it became effective June 12, 2014. See Appendix D: Certification of Enrollment Engrossed Substitute House Bill 2304 Chapter 192, Laws of 2014 63rd Legislature-Marijuana Processing Retail Licenses.

April 2, 2014	June 12, 2014

2. Based on the legislative history, SSB 5416 was in effect when Ms. Robertson was charged. The law in effect at the time a criminal offense is actually committed controls disposition of the case. State v. Schmidt, 143 Wash. 2d 658, 673–74, 23 P.3d 462, 471 (2001), as amended (May 30, 2001), as amended on denial of reconsideration (July 13, 2001). If there are apparent conflicts between statutes, then courts generally give preference to the more specific and more recently enacted statute." Tunstall ex rel. Tunstall v. Bergeson, 141 Wash.2d 201, 211, 5 P.3d 691 (2000). Along these same lines, courts also consider the sequence of all statutes that relate to the same subject matter. Department of Labor & Indus. v. Estate of MacMillan, 117 Wash.2d 222, 229, 814 P.2d 194 (1991) (citation omitted). A court may also examine the legislative history of particular enactments to ascertain legislative intent. Timberline Air Serv., Inc. v. Bell Helicopter–Textron, Inc., 125 Wash.2d 305, 312, 884 P.2d 920 (1994).

Conflicts in statutes are to be reconciled and effect given to each if this can be achieved with no distortion of the language used. State v. Becker, 59 Wash. App. 848, 852, 801 P.2d 1015, 1017 (1990) citing, Tommy P. v. Board of Cy. Comm'rs, 97 Wash.2d 385, 391, 645 P.2d 697 (1982). However, if the statutes cannot be harmonized the court looks to the legislative treatment of the statutes. Id., citing Housing Authority v. Sunnyside Vly. Irrig. Dist., 112 Wash.2d 262, 267, 772 P.2d 473 (1989).

Here, the trial court concluded SSB 5416 did not supplant the definition for "THC concentration" in EHB 2056, which defined "THC concentration" in part, as the "combined percent of delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol and tetrahydrocannabinolic acid in any part of the plant Cannabis regardless of moisture content. CP 290-300. It reasoned ESHB 2304 included the exact same definition for "THC concentration" found in EHB 2056. CP 290-300. Therefore, on January 24, 2014, when police found the material in Ms. Robertson's home, "THC concentration" included a combined percent of delta-9 THC and tetrahydrocannabinolic acid in any part of the Cannabis plant regardless of moisture content." CP 290-300. 1/6/16 RP 147.

However, the legislative history proves otherwise. To recap the history, the governor signed EHB 2056 on May 1, 2013 and it became effective that same day. It remained in effect from May 1, 2013 until SSB 5416 became effective on July 28, 2013. See Appendix B: Certification of Enrollment Substitute Senate Bill 5416, Chapter 276, Laws of 2013, 63rd Legislature 2013 Regular Session. EHB 2056 did not refer to SSB 5416 and it did not include language that stated it superseded SSB 5416. SSB 5416 remained in effect until ESHB 2304 became effective on June 12, 2014.

Therefore, because SSB 5416 was in effect when Ms. Robertson was charged, to qualify as marijuana, the material had to have THC concentration greater than 0.3 percent on a dry weight basis and the THC concentration had to be a percent of delta-9 tetrahydrocannabinol content per dry weight of any part of the plant Cannabis, or per volume of weight of marijuana product. The material did not meet this definition based on the state's analysis. As a result, the state could not have proven beyond a reasonable doubt Ms. Robertson possessed marijuana.

C. A QUESTIONABLE MEASURING DEVICE AND FAULTY MEASURING TACTICS WERE NOT ENOUGH TO SUPPORT THE SENTENCE ENHANCEMENT.

Standard of review

Before a defendant can be subjected to an enhanced penalty, the state must prove beyond a reasonable doubt every essential element of the allegation which triggers the enhanced penalty." State v. Hennessey, 80 Wash. App. 190, 194, 907 P.2d 331, 333 (1995) citing State v. Lua, 62 Wash.App. 34, 42, 813 P.2d 588, review denied, 117 Wash.2d 1025, 820 P.2d 510, review denied, 117 Wash.2d 1026, 820 P.2d 510 (1991); see also State v. Tongate, 93 Wash.2d 751, 754, 613 P.2d 121 (1980). This court must determine whether a rational trier of fact, taking the evidence in the light most favorable to the state could find, beyond a reasonable doubt, the facts needed to support the enhancement. Id. citing, Jackson v. Virginia, 443 U.S. 307, 99 S.Ct. 2781, 61 L.Ed.2d 560 (1979); State v. Green, 94 Wash.2d 216, 220-21, 616 P.2d 628 (1980).

Analysis

Proof of drug sales within 1,000 feet of a school bus stop may be relied on to increase the terms of imprisonment otherwise provided for the crime. RCW 69.50.435(1)(c). RCW 9.94A.533(6) governs the category of sentencing enhancements at issue here. It requires the court to impose an additional twenty-four months to the standard sentence range for any ranked offense that involves a violation of ... RCW 69.50.435. RCW 69.50.435 provides, in part, [a]ny person who violates RCW 69.50.401 by ... delivering ... a controlled substance listed under RCW 69.50.401 ... [w]ithin one thousand feet of a school bus route stop designated by the school district [or][w]ithin one thousand feet of the perimeter of the school grounds ... may be punished by a fine ... or by imprisonment. RCW 69.50.435(6)(c) defines "school bus route stop" as any stop designated by a school district.

1. There was no proof the device police used to measure distance from Ms. Robertson's home to the bus stops was accurate. Results of a mechanical device are not relevant, and therefore are inadmissible, until the party that offers the results makes a prima facie showing the device was functioning properly and produced accurate results. State v. Bashaw, 169 Wash.2d 133, 142, 234 P.3d 195, 197 (2010) overruled by State v. Nunez, 174 Wash. 2d 707, 285 P.3d 21 (2012).

Here, the trial court found the state proved the measuring device was accurate. The court distinguished the facts in State v. Bashaw from the facts here. The trial court noted Bashaw involved three issues. The first two issues involved a measuring device and its accuracy. The third issue was about a jury instruction. The Supreme Court reversed Bashaw on the third issue only. CP 294-300.

In that case, Bashaw was convicted of three counts delivery of a controlled substance. The jury determined each offense occurred within 1,000 feet of a school bus route stop, so her maximum sentence was doubled by statute. State v. Bashaw, 169 Wash. 2d 133 at 137, 234 P.3d 195.

To impose the school bus route stop sentence enhancements, the state had to prove Bashaw delivered a controlled substance within 1,000 feet of a school bus route stop. Bashaw, 169 Wash.2d at 139, 234 P.3d 195. At trial, witness testimony established the locations of the school bus route stops and the drug transactions. State v. Bashaw, 169 Wash. 2d at 137. All three drug transactions took place in the vicinity of the same two school bus route stops. To measure the distances, an officer testified that he used what he described as "[o]ne of those rolling wheel measurers you can zero out and roll along ahead of you and it counts out feet." He further testified that he borrowed the particular device from another police department and that he had not used it before, though he had used similar devices. After he pressed a button to zero out the numbers, the officer measured the distance from each transaction location to the school bus route stop. State v. Grimes, 165 Wash. App. 172, 182, 267 P.3d 454, 460 (2011) citing, State v. Bashaw, 169 Wash. 2d at 138.

Bashaw objected to the results of the measuring device based on a lack of foundation. Id. Our Supreme Court held that the trial court erred when it admitted the officer's testimony about the measurements without proof the device was accurate. Bashaw, 169 Wash.2d at 142–43, 234 P.3d 195. "

The trial court distinguished the facts in Bashaw from the facts here. But, the facts are similar. Like the state in Bashaw, the state here failed to make a prima facie case the roller tape the officer used produced accurate results. For example, although the court here dismissed the fact the officer had the tape for eight years but never calibrated it, whether a measuring device was calibrated reflects the device's ability to measure accurately. State v. MacKenzie, 114 Wash. App. 687, 694, 60 P.3d 607, 611 (2002).

And although the court accepted that the officer compared the device to a standard ruler, the state did not offer any proof either was an accurate measuring device.

2. The officer measured from the bus stops to wrong end point. To support a sentencing enhancement under RCW 69.50.435(1)(c), the state must show the location where the offense occurred was within 1,000 feet of the bus stop. State v. Clayton, 84 Wash.App. 318, 322, 927 P.2d 258 (1996). It is not enough the property on which a house is located was within 1,000 feet. Id. at 321–322, 927 P.2d 258. Instead, the measurement must extend to the building. Id. at 322, 927 P.2d 258.; State v. Jones, 140 Wash.App. 431, 437–438, 166 P.3d 782 (2007).

This court reaffirmed in State v. Clayton, 84 Wash.App. 318, 321, 927 P.2d 2581(1996), evidence must show the distance from the drug-free location to the location of the drugs was less than 1,000 feet, according to some type of accurate, objective and verifiable measuring device such as a map with a measuring scale, measuring tape, pacing, or other commonly accepted method.

In that case, an officer measured from the school grounds perimeter to the edge of Clayton's property line, Clayton, 84 Wash.App. at 319, and found the distance to be 962 feet and 4 inches, just 38 feet less than the statutorily required 1,000 feet to trigger the sentencing enhancement. Therefore, it was possible the crime occurred outside the 1,000-foot radius. This court concluded the terminal point of the measurement for RCW 69.50.435(a) must be the actual site on which the offense was committed. Clayton, 84 Wash.App. at 322.

The trial court here reasoned there was reasonable doubt in Clayton whether the state proved the conduct occurred within 1,000 feet of a school zone State v. Clayton, 84

Wash.App. 318, 321, 927 P.2d 2581(1996).

> In contrast, the evidence here, established that a bus rider traveling from bus stop 1 to defendant's driveway (rear of the house), then immediately traveling directly to bus stop 2 (which requires passing the side/front of the house), will have traveled a total of 499 feet in one combined trip from one stop to the other. Because the house (the front and back side of it) is in between these two stops, and based on the testimony describing the house, the rear driveway, and the measurements taken, the court finds the house itself was within 1,000 feet of a school bus stop and that the bedroom in question would not be more than 501 feet away from the driveway location where measurements were taken. (emphasis added)

CP 294-300.

What the evidence proved here was the officer only measured the distance from the bus stops to the edge of Ms. Robertson's property. 1/6/16 RP 84-85. He did not measure the distance from the school bus stops to Ms. Robertson's bedroom, where police seized evidence. Pursuant this court's ruling in Clayton that was insufficient to support the enhancement.

D. THE TRIAL COURT VIOLATED EQUAL PROTECTION RIGHTS PRINCIPLES WHEN IT ORDERED MS. ROBERTSON TO REFRAIN FROM USING MARIJUANA.

Standard of review

1. Ms. Robertson raises this issue for the first time on appeal. The general rule is that appellate courts will not consider issues raised for the first time on appeal. RAP 2.5(a); State v. Tolias, 135 Wash.2d 133, 140, 954 P.2d 907 (1998); State v. McFarland, 127 Wash.2d 322, 332–33, 899 P.2d 1251 (1995). However, a claim of error may be raised for the first time on appeal if it is a manifest error that affects a constitutional right. RAP 2.5(a)(3); State v. Walsh, 143 Wash.2d 1, 7, 17 P.3d 591 (2001); Tolias, 135 Wash.2d at 140, 954 P.2d 907. Pursuant to RAP 2.5(a)(3), to raise an error for the first time on appeal, the error must be "manifest" and truly of constitutional dimension. State v. WWJ Corp., 138 Wash.2d 595, 602, 980 P.2d 1257 (1999); State v. Scott, 110 Wash.2d 682, 688, 757 P.2d 492 (1988); State v. Kirkman, 159 Wash. 2d 918, 926, 155 P.3d 125, 130 (2007).

Ms. Robertson raised the issue about medical marijuana use at sentencing, but it is not clear from the record whether she preserved the issue for appeal. Should this court find she did not preserve the issue at trial, Ms. Robertson raises this issue here as a violation of her equal protection rights under the law. 5/9/16 RP 232.

2. Ms. Robertson is entitled to equal protection under the law to use marijuana. Under the equal protection clause of the Washington State Constitution, article [I], section 12, and the fourteenth amendment to the United States Constitution, persons similarly situated with respect to the legitimate purpose of the law must receive like treatment." State v. Coria, 120 Wash.2d 156, 169, 839 P.2d 890 (1992). "The appropriate level of scrutiny in equal protection claims depends upon the nature of the classification or rights involved." State v. Hirschfelder, 170 Wash.2d 536, 550, 242 P.3d 876 (2010). The court will apply strict scrutiny, if the classification is based on a suspect class, such as race, nationality, or alienage, or if it affects a fundamental right. Nielsen v. Wash. State Bar Ass'n, 90 Wash.2d 818, 820, 585 P.2d 1191 (1978). Intermediate scrutiny applies "when important rights or semi-suspect classifications are affected." State v. Manussier, 129 Wash.2d 652, 673, 921 P.2d 473 (1996). "Absent a fundamental right or suspect class, or an important right or semi-suspect class, a law will receive rational basis review." Hirschfelder, 170 Wash.2d at 550, 242 P.3d 876.

Under the rational basis test, the challenged law must rationally relate to a legitimate state interest. State v. Shawn P., 122 Wash.2d 553, 561, 859 P.2d 1220 (1993). The rational basis test is "highly deferential to the legislature." In re Det. of Thorell, 149 Wash.2d 724, 749, 72 P.3d 708 (2003). The rational basis test requires only that the means employed by the statute be rationally related to legitimate state goals, and not that the means be the best way of achieving that goal. Shawn P., 122 Wash.2d at 563, 859 P.2d 1220; State v. Lewis, 194 Wash. App. 709, 716, 379 P.3d 129, 132, review denied, 186 Wash. 2d 1025, 385 P.3d 118 (2016).

Here, the trial court violated Mr. Robertson's equal protection rights under the Fourteenth Amendment and article I, section 12 of the Washington Constitution, when it imposed as condition of the Family and Offender Sentencing Alternative that she refrain from marijuana use. Ms. Robertson does not allege the trial court violated a fundamental right, but she argues the trial court unconstitutionally applied this condition to her.

Marijuana use is now legal in our state. Citizens can consume marijuana openly and publically. Ms. Robertson is also a citizen. And like other citizens who choose to do so, Ms. Robertson she should not have been barred from marijuana use.

V. CONCLUSION

Given the arguments set forth above, we ask this court to reverse Ms. Robertson's conviction for possession of marijuana with the intent to manufacture/ deliver along with the sentence enhancement.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

PART I

INTENT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The people intend to stop treating adult marijuana use as a crime and try a new approach that:

(1) Allows law enforcement resources to be focused on violent and property crimes;

(2) Generates new state and local tax revenue for education, health care, research, and substance abuse prevention; and

(3) Takes marijuana out of the hands of illegal drug organizations and brings it under a tightly regulated, state-licensed system similar to that for controlling hard alcohol.

This measure authorizes the state liquor control board to regulate and tax marijuana for persons twenty-one years of age and older, and add a new threshold for driving under the influence of marijuana.

The provisions of RCW 9.95.240 and of chapter 9.96A RCW shall not apply to these cases. Subject to the provisions of this section, the state liquor control board may, in its discretion, grant or deny the renewal or license applied for. Denial may be based on, without limitation, the existence of chronic illegal activity documented in objections submitted pursuant to subsections (7)(c) and (9) of this section. Authority to approve an uncontested or unopposed license may be granted by the state liquor control board to any staff member the board designates in writing. Conditions for granting this authority shall be adopted by rule. No license of any kind may be issued to:

(2)(a) The state liquor control board may, in its discretion, subject to the provisions of section 7 of this act, suspend or cancel any license; and all protections of the licensee from criminal or civil sanctions under state law for producing, processing, or selling marijuana, useable marijuana, or marijuana-infused products thereunder shall be suspended or terminated, as the case may be.

(b) The state liquor control board shall immediately suspend the license of a person who has been certified pursuant to RCW 74.20A.320 by the department of social and health services as a person who is not in compliance with a support order. If the person has continued to meet all other requirements for reinstatement during the suspension, reissuance of the license shall be automatic upon the state liquor control board's receipt of a release issued by the department of social and health services stating that the licensee is in compliance with the order.

(c) The state liquor control board may request the appointment of administrative law judges under chapter 34.12 RCW who shall have power to administer oaths, issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, books, accounts, documents, and testimony, examine witnesses, and to receive testimony in any inquiry, investigation, hearing, or proceeding in any part of the state, under rules and regulations the state liquor control board may adopt.

(d) Witnesses shall be allowed fees and mileage each way to and from any inquiry, investigation, hearing, or proceeding at the rate authorized by RCW 34.05.446. Fees need not be paid in advance of appearance of witnesses to testify or to produce books, records, or other legal evidence.

(e) In case of disobedience of any person to comply with the order of the state liquor control board or a subpoena issued by the state liquor control board, or any of its members, or administrative law judges, or on the refusal of a witness to testify to any matter regarding which he or she may be lawfully interrogated, the judge of the superior court of the county in which the person resides, on application of any member of the board or administrative law judge, shall compel obedience by contempt proceedings, as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued from said court or a refusal to testify therein.

(3) Upon receipt of notice of the suspension or cancellation of a license, the licensee shall forthwith deliver up the license to the state liquor control board. Where the license has been suspended only, the state liquor control board shall return the license to the licensee at the expiration or termination of the period of suspension. The state liquor control board shall notify all other licensees in the county where the subject licensee has its premises of the suspension or cancellation of the license; and no other licensee or employee of another licensee may allow or cause any marijuana, useable marijuana, or marijuana-infused products to be delivered to or for any person at the premises of the subject licensee.

All conditions and restrictions imposed by the state liquor control board in the issuance of an individual license shall be listed on the face of the individual license along with the trade name, address, and expiration date.

(5) Every licensee shall post and keep posted its license, or licenses, in a conspicuous place on the premises.

(6) No licensee shall employ any person under the age of twenty-one years.

(7)(a) Before the state liquor control board issues a new or renewed license to an applicant it shall give notice of the application to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town, if the application is for a license within an incorporated city or town, or to the county legislative authority, if the application is for a license outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns.

(b) The incorporated city or town through the official or employee selected by it, or the county legislative authority or the official or employee selected by it, shall have the right to file with the state liquor control board within twenty days after the date of transmittal of the notice for applications, or at least thirty days prior to the expiration date for renewals, written objections against the applicant or against the premises for which the new or renewed license is asked. The state liquor control board may extend the time period for submitting written objections.

(c) The written objections shall include a statement of all facts upon which the objections are based, and in case written objections are filed, the city or town or county legislative authority may request, and the state liquor control board may in its discretion hold, a hearing subject to the applicable provisions of Title 34 RCW. If the state liquor control board makes an initial decision to deny a license or renewal based on the written objections of an incorporated city or town or county legislative authority, the applicant may request a hearing subject to the applicable provisions of Title 34 RCW. If a hearing is held at the request of the applicant, state liquor control board representatives shall present and defend the state liquor control board's initial decision to deny a license or renewal.

(d) Upon the granting of a license under this title the state liquor control board shall send written notification to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town in which the license is granted, or to the county legislative authority if the license is granted outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns.

(8) The state liquor control board shall not issue a license for any premises within one thousand feet of the perimeter of the grounds of any elementary or secondary school, playground, recreation center or facility, child care center, public park, public transit center, or library, or any game arcade admission to which is not restricted to persons aged twenty-one years or older.

(9) In determining whether to grant or deny a license or renewal of any license, the state liquor control board shall give substantial weight to objections from an incorporated city or town or county legislative authority based upon chronic illegal activity associated with the applicant's operations of the premises proposed to be licensed or the applicant's operation of any other licensed premises, or the conduct of the applicant's patrons inside or outside the licensed premises. "Chronic illegal activity" means (a) a pervasive pattern of activity that threatens the public health, safety, and welfare of the city, town, or county including, but not limited to, open container violations, assaults, disturbances, disorderly conduct, or other criminal law violations, or as documented in crime statistics, police reports, emergency medical response data, calls for service, field data, or similar records of a law enforcement agency for the city, town, county, or any other municipal corporation or any state agency; or (b) an unreasonably high number of citations for violations of RCW 46.61.502 associated with the applicant's or licensee's operation of any licensed premises as indicated by the reported statements given to law enforcement upon arrest.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The action, order, or decision of the state liquor control board as to any denial of an application for the reissuance of a license to produce, process, or sell marijuana, or as to any revocation, suspension, or modification of any license to produce, process, or sell marijuana, shall be an adjudicative proceeding and subject to the applicable provisions of chapter 34.05 RCW.

(1) An opportunity for a hearing may be provided to an applicant for the reissuance of a license prior to the disposition of the application, and if no opportunity for a prior hearing is provided then an opportunity for a hearing to reconsider the application must be provided the applicant.

(2) An opportunity for a hearing must be provided to a licensee prior to a revocation or modification of any license and, except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, prior to the suspension of any license.

(3) No hearing shall be required until demanded by the applicant or licensee.

(4) The state liquor control board may summarily suspend a license for a period of up to one hundred eighty days without a prior hearing if it finds that public health, safety, or welfare imperatively require emergency action, and it incorporates a finding to that effect in its order. Proceedings for revocation or other action must be promptly instituted and determined. An administrative law judge may extend the summary suspension period for up to one calendar year from the first day of the initial summary suspension in the event the proceedings for revocation or other action cannot be completed during the initial one hundred eighty-day period due to actions by the licensee. The state liquor control board's enforcement division shall complete a preliminary staff investigation of the violation before requesting an emergency suspension by the state liquor control board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) If the state liquor control board approves, a license to produce, process, or sell marijuana may be transferred, without charge, to the surviving spouse or domestic partner of a deceased licensee if the license was issued in the names of one or both of the parties. For the purpose of considering the qualifications of the surviving party to receive a marijuana producer's, marijuana processor's, or marijuana retailer's license, the state liquor control board may require a criminal history record information check. The state liquor control board may submit the criminal history record information check to the Washington state patrol and to the identification division of the federal bureau of investigation in order that these agencies may search their records for prior arrests and convictions of the individual or individuals who filled out the forms. The state liquor control board shall require fingerprinting of any applicant whose criminal history record information check is submitted to the federal bureau of investigation.

(2) The proposed sale of more than ten percent of the outstanding or issued stock of a corporation licensed under this act, or any proposed change in the officers of such a corporation, must be reported to the state liquor control board, and state liquor control board approval must be obtained before the changes are made. A fee of seventy-five dollars will be charged for the processing of the change of stock ownership or corporate officers.

A forfeiture of money, negotiable instruments, securities, or other tangible or intangible property encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if, at the time the security interest was created, the secured party neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission. No personal property may be forfeited under this subsection (1)(g), to the extent of the interest of an owner, by reason of any act or omission which that owner establishes was committed or omitted without the owner's knowledge or consent; and

(ii) The bona fide gift of a controlled substance, legend drug, or imitation controlled substance shall not result in the forfeiture of real property;

(iii) The possession of marijuana shall not result in the forfeiture of real property unless the marijuana is possessed for commercial purposes that are unlawful under Washington state law, the amount possessed is five or more plants or one pound or more of marijuana, and a substantial nexus exists between the possession of marijuana and the real property. In such a case, the intent of the offender shall be determined by the preponderance of the evidence, including the offender's prior criminal history, the amount of marijuana possessed by the offender, the sophistication of the activity or equipment used by the offender, whether the offender was licensed to produce, process, or sell marijuana, or was an employee of a licensed producer, processor, or retailer, and other evidence which demonstrates the offender's intent to engage in unlawful commercial activity;

(iv) The unlawful sale of marijuana or a legend drug shall not result in the forfeiture of real property unless the sale was forty grams or more in the case of marijuana or one hundred dollars or more in the case of a legend drug, and a substantial nexus exists between the unlawful sale and the real property; and

(v) A forfeiture of real property encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party if the secured party, at the time the security interest was created, neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission.

(2) Real or personal property subject to forfeiture under this chapter may be seized by any board inspector or law enforcement officer of this state upon process issued by any superior court having jurisdiction over the property. Seizure of real property shall include the filing of a lis pendens by the seizing agency. Real property seized under this section shall not be transferred or otherwise conveyed until ninety days after seizure or until a judgment of forfeiture is entered, whichever is later: PROVIDED, That real property seized under this section may be transferred or conveyed to any person or entity who acquires title by foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure of a security interest. Seizure of personal property without process may be made if:

(a) The seizure is incident to an arrest or a search under a search warrant or an inspection under an administrative inspection warrant;

(b) The property subject to seizure has been the subject of a prior judgment in favor of the state in a criminal injunction or forfeiture proceeding based upon this chapter;

(c) A board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property is directly or indirectly dangerous to health or safety; or

(d) The board inspector or law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that the property was used or is intended to be used in violation of this chapter.

(3) In the event of seizure pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, proceedings for forfeiture shall be deemed commenced by the seizure. The law enforcement agency under whose authority the seizure was made shall cause notice to be served within fifteen days following the seizure on the owner of the property seized and the person in charge thereof and any person having any known right or interest therein, including any community property interest, of the seizure and intended forfeiture of the seized property. Service of notice of seizure of real property shall be made according to the rules of civil procedure. However, the state may not obtain a default judgment with respect to real property against a party who is served by substituted service absent an affidavit stating that a good faith effort has been made to ascertain if the defaulted party is incarcerated within the state, and that there is no present basis to believe that the party is incarcerated within the state. Notice of seizure in the case of property subject to a security interest that has been perfected by filing a financing statement in accordance with chapter 62A.9A RCW, or a certificate of title, shall be made by service upon the secured party or the secured party's assignee at the address shown on the financing statement or the certificate of title. The notice of seizure in other cases may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including but not limited to service by certified mail with return receipt requested. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the fifteen day period following the seizure.

(4) If no person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (1)(d), (g), or (h) of this section within forty-five days of the service of notice from the seizing agency in the case of personal property and ninety days in the case of real property, the item seized shall be deemed forfeited. The community property interest in real property of a person whose spouse or domestic partner committed a violation giving rise to seizure of the real property may not be forfeited if the person did not participate in the violation.

(5) If any person notifies the seizing law enforcement agency in writing of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession of items specified in subsection (1)(b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), or (h) of this section within forty-five days of the service of notice from the seizing agency in the case of personal property and ninety days in the case of real property, the person or persons shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to be heard as to the claim or right. The notice of claim may be served by any method authorized by law or court rule including, but not limited to, service by first-class mail. Service by mail shall be deemed complete upon mailing within the forty-five day period following service of the notice of seizure in the case of personal property and within the ninety-day period following service of the notice of seizure in the case of real property. The hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or the chief law enforcement officer's designee, except where the seizing agency is a state agency as defined in RCW 34.12.020(4), the hearing shall be before the chief law enforcement officer of the seizing agency or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW, except that any person asserting a claim or right may remove the matter to a court of competent jurisdiction. Removal of any matter involving personal property may only be accomplished according to the rules of civil procedure. The person seeking removal of the matter must serve process against the state, county, political subdivision, or municipality that operates the seizing agency, and any other party of interest, in accordance with RCW 4.28.080 or 4.92.020, within forty-five days after the person seeking removal has notified the seizing law enforcement agency of the person's claim of ownership or right to possession. The court to which the matter is to be removed shall be the district court when the aggregate value of personal property is within the jurisdictional limit set forth in RCW 3.66.020. A hearing before the seizing agency and any appeal therefrom shall be under Title 34 RCW. In all cases, the burden of proof is upon the law enforcement agency to establish, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the property is subject to forfeiture.

The seizing law enforcement agency shall promptly return the article or articles to the claimant upon a determination by the administrative law judge or court that the claimant is the present lawful owner or is lawfully entitled to possession thereof of items specified in subsection (1)(b), (c), (d), (e), (f), (g), or (h) of this section.

(6) In any proceeding to forfeit property under this title, where the claimant substantially prevails, the claimant is entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees reasonably incurred by the claimant. In addition, in a court hearing between two or more claimants to the article or articles involved, the prevailing party is entitled to a judgment for costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

(7) When property is forfeited under this chapter the board or seizing law enforcement agency may:

(a) Retain it for official use or upon application by any law enforcement agency of this state release such property to such agency for the exclusive use of enforcing the provisions of this chapter;

(b) Sell that which is not required to be destroyed by law and which is not harmful to the public;

(c) Request the appropriate sheriff or director of public safety to take custody of the property and remove it for disposition in accordance with law; or

(d) Forward it to the drug enforcement administration for disposition.

(8)(a) When property is forfeited, the seizing agency shall keep a record indicating the identity of the prior owner, if known, a description of the property, the disposition of the property, the value of the property at the time of seizure, and the amount of proceeds realized from disposition of the property.

(b) Each seizing agency shall retain records of forfeited property for at least seven years.

(c) Each seizing agency shall file a report including a copy of the records of forfeited property with the state treasurer each calendar quarter.

(d) The quarterly report need not include a record of forfeited property that is still being held for use as evidence during the investigation or prosecution of a case or during the appeal from a conviction.

(9)(a) By January 31st of each year, each seizing agency shall remit to the state treasurer an amount equal to ten percent of the net proceeds of any property forfeited during the preceding calendar year. Money remitted shall be deposited in the state general fund.

(b) The net proceeds of forfeited property is the value of the forfeitable interest in the property after deducting the cost of satisfying any bona fide security interest to which the property is subject at the time of seizure; and in the case of sold property, after deducting the cost of sale, including reasonable fees or commissions paid to independent selling agents, and the cost of any valid landlord's claim for damages under subsection (15) of this section.

(c) The value of sold forfeited property is the sale price. The value of retained forfeited property is the fair market value of the property at the time of seizure, determined when possible by reference to an applicable commonly used index, such as the index used by the department of licensing for valuation of motor vehicles. A seizing agency may use, but need not use, an independent qualified appraiser to determine the value of retained property. If an appraiser is used, the value of the property appraised is net of the cost of the appraisal. The value of destroyed property and retained firearms or illegal property is zero.

(10) Forfeited property and net proceeds not required to be paid to the state treasurer shall be retained by the seizing law enforcement agency exclusively for the expansion and improvement of controlled substances related law enforcement activity. Money retained under this section may not be used to supplant preexisting funding sources.

(11) Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V that are possessed, transferred, sold, or offered for sale in violation of this chapter are contraband and shall be seized and summarily forfeited to the state. Controlled substances listed in Schedule I, II, III, IV, and V, which are seized or come into the possession of the board, the owners of which are unknown, are contraband and shall be summarily forfeited to the board.

(12) Species of plants from which controlled substances in Schedules I and II may be derived which have been planted or cultivated in violation of this chapter, or of which the owners or cultivators are unknown, or which are wild growths, may be seized and summarily forfeited to the board.

(13) The failure, upon demand by a board inspector or law enforcement officer, of the person in occupancy or in control of land or premises upon which the species of plants are growing or being stored to produce an appropriate registration or proof that he or she is the holder thereof constitutes authority for the seizure and forfeiture of the plants.

(14) Upon the entry of an order of forfeiture of real property, the court shall forward a copy of the order to the assessor of the county in which the property is located. Orders for the forfeiture of real property shall be entered by the superior court, subject to court rules. Such an order shall be filed by the seizing agency in the county auditor's records in the county in which the real property is located.

(15)(a) A landlord may assert a claim against proceeds from the sale of assets seized and forfeited under subsection (7)(b) of this section, only if:

((~~(a)~~)) (i) A law enforcement officer, while acting in his or her official capacity, directly caused damage to the complaining landlord's property while executing a search of a tenant's residence; and

((~~(b)~~)) (ii) The landlord has applied any funds remaining in the tenant's deposit, to which the landlord has a right under chapter 59.18 RCW, to cover the damage directly caused by a law enforcement officer prior to asserting a claim under the provisions of this section;

((~~(i)~~)) (A) Only if the funds applied under ((~~(b)~~)) (a)(ii) of this subsection are insufficient to satisfy the damage directly caused by a law enforcement officer, may the landlord seek compensation for the damage by filing a claim against the governmental entity under whose authority the law enforcement agency operates within thirty days after the search;

((~~(ii)~~)) (B) Only if the governmental entity denies or fails to respond to the landlord's claim within sixty days of the date of filing, may the landlord collect damages under this subsection by filing within thirty days of denial or the expiration of the sixty-day period, whichever occurs first, a claim with the seizing law enforcement agency. The seizing law enforcement agency must notify the landlord of the status of the claim by the end of the thirty-day period. Nothing in this section requires the claim to be paid by the end of the sixty-day or thirty-day period.

((~~(c)~~)) (b) For any claim filed under ((~~(b)~~)) (a)(ii) of this subsection, the law enforcement agency shall pay the claim unless the agency provides substantial proof that the landlord either:

(i) Knew or consented to actions of the tenant in violation of this chapter or chapter 69.41 or 69.52 RCW; or

(ii) Failed to respond to a notification of the illegal activity, provided by a law enforcement agency under RCW 59.18.075, within seven days of receipt of notification of the illegal activity.

(16) The landlord's claim for damages under subsection (15) of this section may not include a claim for loss of business and is limited to:

(a) Damage to tangible property and clean-up costs;

(b) The lesser of the cost of repair or fair market value of the damage directly caused by a law enforcement officer;

(c) The proceeds from the sale of the specific tenant's property seized and forfeited under subsection (7)(b) of this section; and

(d) The proceeds available after the seizing law enforcement agency satisfies any bona fide security interest in the tenant's property and costs related to sale of the tenant's property as provided by subsection (9)(b) of this section.

(17) Subsections (15) and (16) of this section do not limit any other rights a landlord may have against a tenant to collect for damages. However, if a law enforcement agency satisfies a landlord's claim under subsection (15) of this section, the rights the landlord has against the tenant for damages directly caused by a law enforcement officer under the terms of the landlord and tenant's contract are subrogated to the law enforcement agency.

(a) Public health, to include but not be limited to:

PART V

DRIVING UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF MARIJUANA

Sec. 31. RCW 46.20.308 and 2008 c 282 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle within this state is deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, to a test or tests of his or her breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcohol concentration, THC concentration, or presence of any drug in his or her breath or blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug or was in violation of RCW 46.61.503. Neither consent nor this section precludes a police officer from obtaining a search warrant for a person's breath or blood.

(2) The test or tests of breath shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug or the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while having alcohol or THC in a concentration in violation of RCW 46.61.503 in his or her system and being under the age of twenty-one. However, in those instances where the person is incapable due to physical injury, physical incapacity, or other physical limitation, of providing a breath sample or where the person is being treated in a hospital, clinic, doctor's office, emergency medical vehicle, ambulance, or other similar facility or where the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the person is under the influence of a drug, a blood test shall be administered by a qualified person as provided in RCW 46.61.506(5). The officer shall inform the person of his or her right to refuse the breath or blood test, and of his or her right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his or her choosing as provided in RCW 46.61.506. The officer shall warn the driver, in substantially the following language, that:

(a) If the driver refuses to take the test, the driver's license, permit, or privilege to drive will be revoked or denied for at least one year; and

(b) If the driver refuses to take the test, the driver's refusal to take the test may be used in a criminal trial; and

(c) If the driver submits to the test and the test is administered, the driver's license, permit, or privilege to drive will be suspended, revoked, or denied for at least ninety days if:

(i) The driver is age twenty-one or over and the test indicates either that the alcohol concentration of the driver's breath or blood is 0.08 or more((~~,~~)) or that the THC concentration of the driver's blood is 5.00 or more; or ((~~if~~))

(ii) The driver is under age twenty-one and the test indicates either that the alcohol concentration of the driver's breath or blood is 0.02 or more((~~,~~)) or that the THC concentration of the driver's blood is above 0.00; or ((~~if~~))

(iii) The driver is under age twenty-one and the driver is in violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504; and

(d) If the driver's license, permit, or privilege to drive is suspended, revoked, or denied the driver may be eligible to immediately apply for an ignition interlock driver's license.

(3) Except as provided in this section, the test administered shall be of the breath only. If an individual is unconscious or is under arrest for the crime of vehicular homicide as provided in RCW 46.61.520 or vehicular assault as provided in RCW 46.61.522, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in RCW 46.61.502, which arrest results from an accident in which there has been serious bodily injury to another person, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested.

(4) Any person who is dead, unconscious, or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him or her incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, and the person shall be deemed to have received the warnings required under subsection (2) of this section.

(5) If, following his or her arrest and receipt of warnings under subsection (2) of this section, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a test or tests of his or her breath or blood, no test shall be given except as authorized under subsection (3) or (4) of this section.

(6) If, after arrest and after the other applicable conditions and requirements of this section have been satisfied, a test or tests of the person's blood or breath is administered and the test results indicate that the alcohol concentration of the person's breath or blood is 0.08 or more, or the THC concentration of the person's blood is 5.00 or more, if the person is age twenty-one or over, or that the alcohol concentration of the person's breath or blood is 0.02 or more, or the THC concentration of the person's blood is above 0.00, if the person is under the age of twenty-one, or the person refuses to submit to a test, the arresting officer or other law enforcement officer at whose direction any test has been given, or the department, where applicable, if the arrest results in a test of the person's blood, shall:

(a) Serve notice in writing on the person on behalf of the department of its intention to suspend, revoke, or deny the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive as required by subsection (7) of this section;

(b) Serve notice in writing on the person on behalf of the department of his or her right to a hearing, specifying the steps he or she must take to obtain a hearing as provided by subsection (8) of this section and that the person waives the right to a hearing if he or she receives an ignition interlock driver's license;

(c) Mark the person's Washington state driver's license or permit to drive, if any, in a manner authorized by the department;

(d) Serve notice in writing that the marked license or permit, if any, is a temporary license that is valid for sixty days from the date of arrest or from the date notice has been given in the event notice is given by the department following a blood test, or until the suspension, revocation, or denial of the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive is sustained at a hearing pursuant to subsection (8) of this section, whichever occurs first. No temporary license is valid to any greater degree than the license or permit that it replaces; and

(e) Immediately notify the department of the arrest and transmit to the department within seventy-two hours, except as delayed as the result of a blood test, a sworn report or report under a declaration authorized by RCW 9A.72.085 that states:

(i) That the officer had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or both, or was under the age of twenty-one years and had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while having an alcohol or THC concentration in violation of RCW 46.61.503;

(ii) That after receipt of the warnings required by subsection (2) of this section the person refused to submit to a test of his or her blood or breath, or a test was administered and the results indicated that the alcohol concentration of the person's breath or blood was 0.08 or more, or the THC concentration of the person's blood was 5.00 or more, if the person is age twenty-one or over, or that the alcohol concentration of the person's breath or blood was 0.02 or more, or the THC concentration of the person's blood was above 0.00, if the person is under the age of twenty-one; and

(iii) Any other information that the director may require by rule.

(7) The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report or report under a declaration authorized by RCW 9A.72.085 under subsection (6)(e) of this section, shall suspend, revoke, or deny the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive or any nonresident operating privilege, as provided in RCW 46.20.3101, such suspension, revocation, or denial to be effective beginning sixty days from the date of arrest or from the date notice has been given in the event notice is given by the department following a blood test, or when sustained at a hearing pursuant to subsection (8) of this section, whichever occurs first.

(8) A person receiving notification under subsection (6)(b) of this section may, within twenty days after the notice has been given, request in writing a formal hearing before the department. The person shall pay a fee of two hundred dollars as part of the request. If the request is mailed, it must be postmarked within twenty days after receipt of the notification. Upon timely receipt of such a request for a formal hearing, including receipt of the required two hundred dollar fee, the department shall afford the person an opportunity for a hearing. The department may waive the required two hundred dollar fee if the person is an indigent as defined in RCW 10.101.010. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the hearing is subject to and shall be scheduled and conducted in accordance with RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The hearing shall be conducted in the county of the arrest, except that all or part of the hearing may, at the discretion of the department, be conducted by telephone or other electronic means. The hearing shall be held within sixty days following the arrest or following the date notice has been given in the event notice is given by the department following a blood test, unless otherwise agreed to by the department and the person, in which case the action by the department shall be stayed, and any valid temporary license marked under subsection (6)(c) of this section extended, if the person is otherwise eligible for licensing. For the purposes of this section, the scope of the hearing shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug or had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while having alcohol in his or her system in a concentration of 0.02 or more, or THC in his or her system in a concentration above 0.00, if the person was under the age of twenty-one, whether the person was placed under arrest, and (a) whether the person refused to submit to the test or tests upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation of the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive, or (b) if a test or tests were administered, whether the applicable requirements of this section were satisfied before the administration of the test or tests, whether the person submitted to the test or tests, or whether a test was administered without express consent as permitted under this section, and whether the test or tests indicated that the alcohol concentration of the person's breath or blood was 0.08 or more, or the THC concentration of the person's blood was 5.00 or more, if the person was age twenty-one or over at the time of the arrest, or that the alcohol concentration of the person's breath or blood was 0.02 or more, or the THC concentration of the person's blood was above 0.00, if the person was under the age of twenty-one at the time of the arrest. The sworn report or report under a declaration authorized by RCW 9A.72.085 submitted by a law enforcement officer is prima facie evidence that the officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or both, or the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while having alcohol in his or her system in a concentration of 0.02 or more, or THC in his or her system in a concentration above 0.00, and was under the age of twenty-one and that the officer complied with the requirements of this section.

A hearing officer shall conduct the hearing, may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents, and shall administer oaths to witnesses. The hearing officer shall not issue a subpoena for the attendance of a witness at the request of the person unless the request is accompanied by the fee required by RCW 5.56.010 for a witness in district court. The sworn report or report under a declaration authorized by RCW 9A.72.085 of the law enforcement officer and any other evidence accompanying the report shall be admissible without further evidentiary foundation and the certifications authorized by the criminal rules for courts of limited jurisdiction shall be admissible without further evidentiary foundation. The person may be represented by counsel, may question witnesses, may present evidence, and may testify. The department shall order that the suspension, revocation, or denial either be rescinded or sustained.

(9) If the suspension, revocation, or denial is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege, or permit is suspended, revoked, or denied has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county of arrest to review the final order of revocation by the department in the same manner as an appeal from a decision of a court of limited jurisdiction. Notice of appeal must be filed within thirty days after the date the final order is served or the right to appeal is waived. Notwithstanding RCW 46.20.334, RALJ 1.1, or other statutes or rules referencing de novo review, the appeal shall be limited to a review of the record of the administrative hearing. The appellant must pay the costs associated with obtaining the record of the hearing before the hearing officer. The filing of the appeal does not stay the effective date of the suspension, revocation, or denial. A petition filed under this subsection must include the petitioner's grounds for requesting review. Upon granting petitioner's request for review, the court shall review the department's final order of suspension, revocation, or denial as expeditiously as possible. The review must be limited to a determination of whether the department has committed any errors of law. The superior court shall accept those factual determinations supported by substantial evidence in the record: (a) That were expressly made by the department; or (b) that may reasonably be inferred from the final order of the department. The superior court may reverse, affirm, or modify the decision of the department or remand the case back to the department for further proceedings. The decision of the superior court must be in writing and filed in the clerk's office with the other papers in the case. The court shall state the reasons for the decision. If judicial relief is sought for a stay or other temporary remedy from the department's action, the court shall not grant such relief unless the court finds that the appellant is likely to prevail in the appeal and that without a stay the appellant will suffer irreparable injury. If the court stays the suspension, revocation, or denial it may impose conditions on such stay.

(10)(a) If a person whose driver's license, permit, or privilege to drive has been or will be suspended, revoked, or denied under subsection (7) of this section, other than as a result of a breath or blood test refusal, and who has not committed an offense for which he or she was granted a deferred prosecution under chapter 10.05 RCW, petitions a court for a deferred prosecution on criminal charges arising out of the arrest for which action has been or will be taken under subsection (7) of this section, or notifies the department of licensing of the intent to seek such a deferred prosecution, then the license suspension or revocation shall be stayed pending entry of the deferred prosecution. The stay shall not be longer than one hundred fifty days after the date charges are filed, or two years after the date of the arrest, whichever time period is shorter. If the court stays the suspension, revocation, or denial, it may impose conditions on such stay. If the person is otherwise eligible for licensing, the department shall issue a temporary license, or extend any valid temporary license marked under subsection (6) of this section, for the period of the stay. If a deferred prosecution treatment plan is not recommended in the report made under RCW 10.05.050, or if treatment is rejected by the court, or if the person declines to accept an offered treatment plan, or if the person violates any condition imposed by the court, then the court shall immediately direct the department to cancel the stay and any temporary marked license or extension of a temporary license issued under this subsection.

(b) A suspension, revocation, or denial imposed under this section, other than as a result of a breath or blood test refusal, shall be stayed if the person is accepted for deferred prosecution as provided in chapter 10.05 RCW for the incident upon which the suspension, revocation, or denial is based. If the deferred prosecution is terminated, the stay shall be lifted and the suspension, revocation, or denial reinstated. If the deferred prosecution is completed, the stay shall be lifted and the suspension, revocation, or denial canceled.

(c) The provisions of (b) of this subsection relating to a stay of a suspension, revocation, or denial and the cancellation of any suspension, revocation, or denial do not apply to the suspension, revocation, denial, or disqualification of a person's commercial driver's license or privilege to operate a commercial motor vehicle.

(11) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been suspended, revoked, or denied, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he or she has a license.

Sec. 32. RCW 46.20.3101 and 2004 c 95 s 4 and 2004 c 68 s 3 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Pursuant to RCW 46.20.308, the department shall suspend, revoke, or deny the arrested person's license, permit, or privilege to drive as follows:

(1) In the case of a person who has refused a test or tests:

(a) For a first refusal within seven years, where there has not been a previous incident within seven years that resulted in administrative action under this section, revocation or denial for one year;

(b) For a second or subsequent refusal within seven years, or for a first refusal where there has been one or more previous incidents within seven years that have resulted in administrative action under this section, revocation or denial for two years or until the person reaches age twenty-one, whichever is longer.

(2) In the case of an incident where a person has submitted to or been administered a test or tests indicating that the alcohol concentration of the person's breath or blood was 0.08 or more, or that the THC concentration of the person's blood was 5.00 or more:

(a) For a first incident within seven years, where there has not been a previous incident within seven years that resulted in administrative action under this section, suspension for ninety days;

(b) For a second or subsequent incident within seven years, revocation or denial for two years.

(3) In the case of an incident where a person under age twenty-one has submitted to or been administered a test or tests indicating that the alcohol concentration of the person's breath or blood was 0.02 or more, or that the THC concentration of the person's blood was above 0.00:

(a) For a first incident within seven years, suspension or denial for ninety days;

(b) For a second or subsequent incident within seven years, revocation or denial for one year or until the person reaches age twenty-one, whichever is longer.

(4) The department shall grant credit on a day-for-day basis for any portion of a suspension, revocation, or denial already served under this section for a suspension, revocation, or denial imposed under RCW 46.61.5055 arising out of the same incident.

Sec. 33. RCW 46.61.502 and 2011 c 293 s 2 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, marijuana, or any drug if the person drives a vehicle within this state:

(a) And the person has, within two hours after driving, an alcohol concentration of 0.08 or higher as shown by analysis of the person's breath or blood made under RCW 46.61.506; or

(b) The person has, within two hours after driving, a THC concentration of 5.00 or higher as shown by analysis of the person's blood made under RCW 46.61.506; or

(c) While the person is under the influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor, marijuana, or any drug; or

((~~(c)~~)) (d) While the person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor, marijuana, and any drug.

(2) The fact that a person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use a drug under the laws of this state shall not constitute a defense against a charge of violating this section.

(3)(a) It is an affirmative defense to a violation of subsection (1)(a) of this section, which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence, that the defendant consumed a sufficient quantity of alcohol after the time of driving and before the administration of an analysis of the person's breath or blood to cause the defendant's alcohol concentration to be 0.08 or more within two hours after driving. The court shall not admit evidence of this defense unless the defendant notifies the prosecution prior to the omnibus or pretrial hearing in the case of the defendant's intent to assert the affirmative defense.

(5) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, a violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor.

(6) It is a class C felony punishable under chapter 9.94A RCW, or chapter 13.40 RCW if the person is a juvenile, if:

(2) It is an affirmative defense to a violation of subsection (1) of this section, which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence, that the defendant consumed a sufficient quantity of alcohol or marijuana after the time of driving or being in physical control and before the administration of an analysis of the person's breath or blood to cause the defendant's alcohol or THC concentration to be in violation of subsection (1) of this section within two hours after driving or being in physical control. The court shall not admit evidence of this defense unless the defendant notifies the prosecution prior to the earlier of: (a) Seven days prior to trial; or (b) the omnibus or pretrial hearing in the case of the defendant's intent to assert the affirmative defense.

((~~(c)~~)) (d) While the person is under the combined influence of or affected by intoxicating liquor and any drug.

(2) The fact that a person charged with a violation of this section is or has been entitled to use a drug under the laws of this state does not constitute a defense against any charge of violating this section. No person may be convicted under this section if, prior to being pursued by a law enforcement officer, the person has moved the vehicle safely off the roadway.

(3)(a) It is an affirmative defense to a violation of subsection (1)(a) of this section which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant consumed a sufficient quantity of alcohol after the time of being in actual physical control of the vehicle and before the administration of an analysis of the person's breath or blood to cause the defendant's alcohol concentration to be 0.08 or more within two hours after being in such control. The court shall not admit evidence of this defense unless the defendant notifies the prosecution prior to the omnibus or pretrial hearing in the case of the defendant's intent to assert the affirmative defense.

(b) Analyses of blood samples obtained more than two hours after the alleged being in actual physical control of a vehicle may be used as evidence that within two hours of the alleged being in control of the vehicle, a person had a THC concentration of 5.00 or more in violation of subsection (1)(b) of this section, and in any case in which the analysis shows a THC concentration above 0.00 may be used as evidence that a person was under the influence of or affected by marijuana in violation of subsection (1)(c) or (d) of this section.

(5) Except as provided in subsection (6) of this section, a violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor.

(6) It is a class C felony punishable under chapter 9.94A RCW, or chapter 13.40 RCW if the person is a juvenile, if:

(a) The person has four or more prior offenses within ten years as defined in RCW 46.61.5055; or

(iii) An out-of-state offense comparable to the offense specified in (b)(i) or (ii) of this subsection; or

(iv) A violation of this subsection (6) or RCW 46.61.502(6).

Sec. 36. RCW 46.61.50571 and 2000 c 52 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A defendant who is charged with an offense involving driving while under the influence as defined in RCW 46.61.502, driving under age twenty-one after consuming alcohol or marijuana as defined in RCW 46.61.503, or being in physical control of a vehicle while under the influence as defined in RCW 46.61.504, shall be required to appear in person before a judicial officer within one judicial day after the arrest if the defendant is served with a citation or complaint at the time of the arrest. A court may by local court rule waive the requirement for appearance within one judicial day if it provides for the appearance at the earliest practicable day following arrest and establishes the method for identifying that day in the rule.

(2) A defendant who is charged with an offense involving driving while under the influence as defined in RCW 46.61.502, driving under age twenty-one after consuming alcohol or marijuana as defined in RCW 46.61.503, or being in physical control of a vehicle while under the influence as defined in RCW 46.61.504, and who is not served with a citation or complaint at the time of the incident, shall appear in court for arraignment in person as soon as practicable, but in no event later than fourteen days after the next day on which court is in session following the issuance of the citation or the filing of the complaint or information.

(3) At the time of an appearance required by this section, the court shall determine the necessity of imposing conditions of pretrial release according to the procedures established by court rule for a preliminary appearance or an arraignment.

(4) Appearances required by this section are mandatory and may not be waived.

Sec. 37. RCW 46.61.506 and 2010 c 53 s 1 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon the trial of any civil or criminal action or proceeding arising out of acts alleged to have been committed by any person while driving or in actual physical control of a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, if the person's alcohol concentration is less than 0.08 or the person's THC concentration is less than 5.00, it is evidence that may be considered with other competent evidence in determining whether the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug.

(2)(a) The breath analysis of the person's alcohol concentration shall be based upon grams of alcohol per two hundred ten liters of breath.

(b) The blood analysis of the person's THC concentration shall be based upon nanograms per milliliter of whole blood.

(c) The foregoing provisions of this section shall not be construed as limiting the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question whether the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug.

(3) Analysis of the person's blood or breath to be considered valid under the provisions of this section or RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 shall have been performed according to methods approved by the state toxicologist and by an individual possessing a valid permit issued by the state toxicologist for this purpose. The state toxicologist is directed to approve satisfactory techniques or methods, to supervise the examination of individuals to ascertain their qualifications and competence to conduct such analyses, and to issue permits which shall be subject to termination or revocation at the discretion of the state toxicologist.

(4)(a) A breath test performed by any instrument approved by the state toxicologist shall be admissible at trial or in an administrative proceeding if the prosecution or department produces prima facie evidence of the following:

(i) The person who performed the test was authorized to perform such test by the state toxicologist;

(ii) The person being tested did not vomit or have anything to eat, drink, or smoke for at least fifteen minutes prior to administration of the test;

(iii) The person being tested did not have any foreign substances, not to include dental work, fixed or removable, in his or her mouth at the beginning of the fifteen-minute observation period;

(iv) Prior to the start of the test, the temperature of any liquid simulator solution utilized as an external standard, as measured by a thermometer approved of by the state toxicologist was thirty-four degrees centigrade plus or minus 0.3 degrees centigrade;

(v) The internal standard test resulted in the message "verified";

(vi) The two breath samples agree to within plus or minus ten percent of their mean to be determined by the method approved by the state toxicologist;

(vii) The result of the test of the liquid simulator solution external standard or dry gas external standard result did lie between .072 to .088 inclusive; and

(viii) All blank tests gave results of .000.

(b) For purposes of this section, "prima facie evidence" is evidence of sufficient circumstances that would support a logical and reasonable inference of the facts sought to be proved. In assessing whether there is sufficient evidence of the foundational facts, the court or administrative tribunal is to assume the truth of the prosecution's or department's evidence and all reasonable inferences from it in a light most favorable to the prosecution or department.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent the subject of the test from challenging the reliability or accuracy of the test, the reliability or functioning of the instrument, or any maintenance procedures. Such challenges, however, shall not preclude the admissibility of the test once the prosecution or department has made a prima facie showing of the requirements contained in (a) of this subsection. Instead, such challenges may be considered by the trier of fact in determining what weight to give to the test result.

(5) When a blood test is administered under the provisions of RCW 46.20.308, the withdrawal of blood for the purpose of determining its alcoholic or drug content may be performed only by a physician, a registered nurse, a licensed practical nurse, a nursing assistant as defined in chapter 18.88A RCW, a physician assistant as defined in chapter 18.71A RCW, a first responder as defined in chapter 18.73 RCW, an emergency medical technician as defined in chapter 18.73 RCW, a health care assistant as defined in chapter 18.135 RCW, or any technician trained in withdrawing blood. This limitation shall not apply to the taking of breath specimens.

(6) The person tested may have a physician, or a qualified technician, chemist, registered nurse, or other qualified person of his or her own choosing administer one or more tests in addition to any administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer. The test will be admissible if the person establishes the general acceptability of the testing technique or method. The failure or inability to obtain an additional test by a person shall not preclude the admission of evidence relating to the test or tests taken at the direction of a law enforcement officer.

(7) Upon the request of the person who shall submit to a test or tests at the request of a law enforcement officer, full information concerning the test or tests shall be made available to him or her or his or her attorney.
