Re: Grievance of Robert Joseph Ressa against Teresa Lynn Border
ODC File No. 16-00272

Dear Ms. Border:

On June 28, 2016, we asked you to provide a written response and documents related to the above referenced grievance. To the best of my knowledge, your response, which is required by Rule 5.3(f) of the Rules for Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct (ELC), has not been received.

Under ELC 5.3(h), you must file a written response to the questions posed in the June 28, 2016 letter and provide the requested documents within ten days of this letter, i.e., on or before August 15, 2016. If we do not receive your response within the ten-day period, we will subpoena you for a deposition. If we must serve a subpoena, you will be liable for the costs of the deposition, including service of process, and attorney fees of $500.

You should be aware that failing to respond is, in itself, grounds for discipline and may subject you to interim suspension under ELC 7.2(a)(3).

Sincerely,

8 CR 45 Sections (c) and (d):

9 (c) Protection of Persons Subject to Subpoenas.

10 (1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue
11 burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this
12 duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

13 (2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things,
14 or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing
15 or trial.

16 (B) Subject to subsection (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days
17 after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or 18 attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If 19 objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant
20 to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the 21 person commanded to produce and all other parties, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel
22 production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying
23 commanded.

24 (3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it:

- (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;
- (ii) fails to comply with RCW 5.56.010 or subsection (e)(2) of this rule;
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden, provided that the court may condition denial of the motion upon a requirement that the subpoenaing party advance the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible things.

(B) If a subpoena

- (i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or
- (ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) Duties in Responding to Subpoena.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2)(A) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

(B) If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information in camera to the court for a determination of the claim. The person responding to the subpoena must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

12 (3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it:

(i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;

13 (ii) fails to comply with RCW 5.56.010 or subsection (e)(2) of this rule;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies; or

14 (iv) subjects a person to undue burden, provided that the court may condition denial of the motion upon a requirement that the subpoenaing party advance the reasonable cost of producing the books, papers, documents, or tangible things.

(B) If a subpoena

15 (i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

16 (ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

17 (d) Duties in Responding to Subpoena.

18 (1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

19 (2)(A) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

20 (B) If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information in camera to the court for a determination of the claim.
