ORIGINAL

COMES NOW the appellant, James Eserjose, by and through his attorney, Thomas E. Weaver, and makes the following statement of additional authorities:

State of Hawaii v. Mariano, 114 HI 271, 160 P.3d 1258 (2007) (finding that New York v. Harris is inconsistent with article 1, section 7 of the Hawaii Constitution, which protects against unreasonable “invasions of privacy,” and commenting that the Court “cannot condone the parsimonious Fourth Amendment protection the [United States] Supreme Court doled out in Harris”).

Dated this 25th day of November, 2009.

Thomas E. Weaver
WSBA #22488
Attorney for Appellant
