The Olympian November 12, 2013

On Thursday, Nov. 21, Thurston County will celebrate National Adoption Day during a special event at Family and Juvenile Court.

Several local families will publicly finalize adoptions at the celebration, which is slated to begin at 4 p.m., at Thurston County Family and Juvenile Court, 2801 32nd Ave. SW, in Tumwater.

In 2013, more than 70 adoptions were completed in Thurston County. Those adoptions included step-parents, domestic partners, individuals, and couples.

Refreshments and socializing will follow the ceremony, with activities that include Booker T. Bear, and craft projects from the Hands On Children's Museum.
