SEATAC MUNICIPAL COURT LAW WEEK 2013

On Monday, January 14, 2013, Justice Sheryl Gordon McCloud was sworn in as the newest member of the Washington State Supreme Court, marking the first time in state history that the Court has both a female majority and a female Chief Justice.

"OF CML WRONGS AND RIGHTS"

This Emmy Award winner brings to life for the first time the inspirational story of an unsung American civil rights hero, and demonstrates the power of ordinary citizens to rise up against injustice.

Filmmaker: Eric Paul Fournier
Screening: 4-24-13, Community

"LONG WALK TO FREEDOM"

This film depicts the story of twelve ordinary people who joined together with other Americans to protest racial inequality and discrimination in the 1960s. This film demonstrates that the struggle for equality is an ongoing challenge and shows how

"AMERICAN OUTRAGE"

This film documents the battle fought by two elderly Western Shoshone sisters against the American Government. Their fight for religious freedom and property rights drew the attention of the United Nations, whose statement denouncing the American government for their transgressions against the Western Shoshone people was unprecedented. Receiving,

"14 WOMEN"

The historic 109th Congress convened with fourteen female senators, which was, at the time, the highest number of women ever to serve in the Senate. This film chronicles the events that propelled them into service and the struggles of balancing family
