IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

STATE OF WASHINGTON,)
Respondent,)	NO. 90229-1
vs.)	PETITIONER'S REPLY TO STATE'S
)	MOTION TO STRIKE REPLY BRIEF
ROBERT LEE FREEMAN,)
Petitioner.)

I. Identity of Moving Party.

The petitioner requests the relief designated in part II.

II. Statement of Relief Sought.

Petitioner respectfully request that this Court deny respondent's motion to strike petitioner's reply brief.

III. Facts Relevant to Motion.

Petitioner relies on the case facts, the case history, the court rules and traditional briefing practices.

IV. Grounds for Relief and Argument.

Mr. Freeman is the moving party in this case. He has raised several issues for consideration and provided case citations and analysis. The respondent filed a brief in opposition giving this Court its opinion and analysis. Respondent made arguments that needed to be replied to in order for this Court to fully appreciate the

1 complexity of the issues raised by Mr. Freeman and to assure this Court that the
2 respondent's position is untenable. Mr. Freeman is in prison even though his
3 constitutional right to a public trial was violated twice during his trial. Surely, such a
4 situation warrants full briefing from the parties – i.e. the same amount provided to 5 courts in virtually all contested cases in Washington and throughout the United 6 States. The motion to strike should, respectfully, be denied.

V. Conclusion.

Based on the arguments, records and files contained herein, petitioner respectfully request that this Court deny respondent's motion to strike petitioner's reply brief.
