SUPREME COURT
STATE OF WASHINGTON

Hatsuya Harbord Petitioner/PLA

Suprem Court No. 93529-7

Safeway Inc. Respondent/DEF

Appellate Court No. 72731-1-1

Motion to change to Notice of Appeal
From Notice for discretionary Review because No oral argument at the Court

Process/Immigrant/Appellant, Hatsuya Harbord asks the Court to change to Appeal "Appeals Court decision on this case #72731-1-1" because Appellant did not have any chance to say Appellant's side of this case at Appeals Court DIV [E].

Appellant filed Preliminary Appellant's Brief due to Appellant's spouse unknown medical status on August 2015. Appellant filed the document to the Court for "unfair ground to fight against DEF due to Appellant's spouse continued one illness to other illnesses.

Appeals Court DIV [E] did not give any chance to resubmit Appellant's Brief. How discriminated against Appellant.

1053 change to Appeal Court decision

 ORIGINAL

How Appeals Court DIV [I] judged against Appellant without Appellant's
Brief on case # 1273-1-1

Appellant was violated humans Rights, "If a party files a notice of appeal from a decision which may not be subject to review as a matter of right, the clerk or a party may refer for hearing the question whether the decision is reviewable as a matter of right." Appellant requests to change to Rule 6.1 Appeal as a matter of right and oral argument/hearing at the Court.

Appeals Court DIV [I] did not hear from Appellant's side.
Respondent filed his respondent's Brief without sending a copy of his document to Appellant. It should be default. It should be strike.

Appeals Court DIV [I] discriminated against Appellant.
"Discretionary Review" does NOT have any oral argument at hearing.
No hearing from the Appellant. Appellant wants to file Appellant's Brief.
Appellant asks to "Appeal" from Appeals Court decision with Bias, prejudice discriminated against Appellant." Appellant asks to "Appeal."
