MOTION FOR FILING FEE
REVIEW

I. IDENTITY OF MOVING PARTY

Juliet S. Sarioi, moves this Court for Motion for Filing Fee Review.

II STATEMENT OF RELIEF SOUGHT

Petitioner Pray for review under the qualifying reasons to read as follows:

i) Filing Fee is waived because of the Trial Court decision "Failure to State Claim" as the issue being sought or have been reviewed by the Court of Appeals.

2) Transfer by Certificate preclusions under RAP 2.5 which states "split authority between the Appellate Courts."

III FACTS RELEVANT TO MOTION

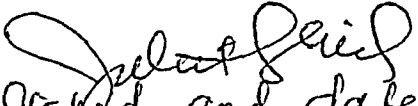

under Court of Appeals decision certifying "We Affirm" to the Superior Court decision failure to State claim is a requirement satisfaction of RAP 7.3. "The Court of Appeals retains the authority to act in a case pending before it until review is accepted by the Supreme Court." "The appellate Court has the authority to determine whether a matter is properly before it, and to perform all acts necessary or appropriate to secure the fair and orderly review of a case."

Hereupon, the reasoning "we affirm" is "we certify" and that, the Court of appeals have received all necessary facts under the issue that is requested for review. wherefore, transfer of the case by Certificate under RAP 2.5 have been fulfilled.

IV. GROUNDS FOR RELIEF AND ARGUMENT.

Hereupon, Consideration under the reasoning that, the readiness of the Case for review has been Certified to be transferred to the Supreme Court in pursuant to RAP 7.3. And that, Waiver or application for filing fee is carried out under the "Split authority" of the appellate Courts.

Wherefore, Petitioner hereby entered and Pray for Motion for Filing Fee Review be granted at the Supreme Court of the State of Washington.
