Shall designate the items of expense which are to be paid with public funds and, where appropriate, the items of expense to be paid by a party or the amount the party must contribute towards the expense of review.

- a). The Trial Court's Order "Shall" designate the extent to which public funds are to be used for payment of the expense of the record on review, ---
- b). Limited to those issues raised in good faith, and the order of indigency must be transmitted to the Appellate Court as part of the record on review.
- c). Did the Trial Court follow these procedures?
- d). And did the State Supreme Court acknowledge Trial Court Rules which was not followed but ignored by the Trial Court?

C. GROUNDS FOR RELIEF AND ARGUMENT.

2. If Court Commissioner Mary S. Neal 'Granted Petitioner to file Service of his Appeal by Waiving the cost of filing his Appeal in its May 31st 2020 Court order, And if the Trial Court in its 05/28/2019, Order of Indigency Waived Petitioner's filing fee's for both the Trial Court and for the Appellate Court to Determine what portions of the Clerk's Records "shall" be reproduced at public expense pursuant to RAP Rule 15.2(d)(2), ---
