Pursuant to RAP 10.8, appellant cites to the following additional authority:

State v. Jacob Nathaniel Cox, __ Wn.App.2d __, __ P.3d __ (April 20, 2021)<sup>1</sup> (recognizing that, when analyzing whether defendant’s right to present a defense was violated, reviewing courts must first determine whether the evidence is minimally relevant and whether the State has shown it is so prejudicial as to disrupt the fairness of the fact-finding process; and, only after this is done, does the reviewing court proceed to balance the State’s interest in excluding the evidence against the defendant’s need for it).
