DAYTON MUNICIPAL COURT

COLUMBIA COUNTY DISTRICT COURT

IN THE MATTER OF:	)	NO. 2020-04
COURT OPERATIONS	)	NEWLY AMENDED
CREATED BY PUBLIC HEALTH	)	ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
EMERGENCY IN WASHINGTON	)
STATE	)

WHEREAS, on February 29, 2020, Governor Inslee proclaimed a state of emergency due to the novel coronavirus disease (COVID-19) outbreak in Washington; and

WHEREAS, on March 13, 2020, President Trump declared a national emergency due to the novel coronavirus disease (COVID-19) outbreak across the United States; and

WHEREAS, during this state of emergency, the Center for Disease Control and Prevention and the Washington State Department of Health have recommended increasingly stringent social distancing measures of at least six feet between people, and have encouraged vulnerable individuals to avoid public spaces; and

WHEREAS, consistent with these recommendations, Governor Inslee has banned gatherings of more-than fifty people and ordered all schools, businesses, faith-based organizations, and other public venues to close during the ongoing public health emergency and the CDC has recommended restricting gatherings to no more than 10 people; and

1           WHEREAS, many Washington courts have already taken steps necessary to protect 2 public health while ensuring continued access to justice and essential court services, (See 3 Administrative Order No. 2020-002 entered in this Court on March 18, 2020); and

4           WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of Washington has entered Order No. 25700-B-607, to 5 allow the presiding judges across Washington to effectively administer their courts in 6 response to this state of emergency, including the authority to adopt, modify, and suspend 7 court rules and orders, and as warranted to address the emergency conditions; and

8           WHEREAS, this Court desires to amend its Administrative Order No. 2020-02 to be in 9 compliance with Washington Supreme Court Amended Ordered 25700-B-607;

10           WHEREAS, this Court desires to newly amend its Administrative Order No. 2020-03 to 11 be in compliance with the Washington Supreme Court Revised and Extended Order Regarding 12 Court Operations No. 25700-B-615

14           NOW, THEREFORE, EFFECTIVE APRIL 14, 2020 UNTIL THIS ORDER IS 15           RESCINDED, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

- 16
17           1) CLERK’S: The Court will maintain regular hours of operation unless otherwise 18 amended by further order and notice to the Administrative Office of the Courts. The 19 Court encourages all parties to make payments online, over the phone or through the 20 mail. The Clerks will continue to accept filings and provide copies of documents via 21 email, subject to the provisions of this Order, unless and until the court determines that it 22 is necessary to close the Courthouse.
- 23           2) PARTY SIGNATURES: The court will not require any defendant's signature on court 24 orders. Instead, the order and docket will note how the party received notice and copy of 25 any applicable order. Counsel, if a party is represented, shall be responsible for delivering 26 court orders to the party.
- 27           3) INFRACTIONS: All currently scheduled in-person infraction hearings will be continued 28 to a date certain no sooner than May 26, 2020. The court finds good cause pursuant to IRLJ 6.1 and CRLJ 6 for such continuances. Anyone with a pending infraction will

1 continue to have the option to submit written responses online or by email or mail for 2 mitigation matters. Anyone who desires a contested hearing will be required to appear on 3 a date and time set by the court. Anyone who receives a notice of infraction is still 4 required to respond to the notice of infraction within fifteen (15) days of the date the 5 notice is personally served or, if the notice is served by mail, within eighteen (18) days of 6 the date the notice is mailed. Individuals can respond by mail, by delivering their 7 response to the Clerks' area, or by submitting their response online through the court's 8 website.

9 4) IN-CUSTODY CRIMINAL HEARINGS: All in-custody hearings regarding pretrial
10 release or other release from detention shall be by video conference from the jail. All 11 other in-custody criminal hearings will be continued to a date certain no sooner than 12 May 4, 2020. Counsel are encouraged, in cases where nothing is to take place other than 13 continuing the hearing, to present agreed motions and orders for ex parte signature by the 14 court.

15 5) OUT OF IN CUSTODY ARRAGINMENTS: All out of custody arraignment shall be 16 heard no later than 45 days after the filing of the applicable charge. Good cause exists 17 under CrRLJ4.1 to extend the arraignment dates. The new arraignment date shall be 18 considered the "initial commencement date" for purposes of establishing the time for trial
19 under CrRLJ3.3(c)(1).

20 6) ALL OTHER CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS: All other criminal matters shall likewise be 21 continued to a date set by the court, or on or after May 4, 2020, except those motions, 22 actions on agreed orders, conferences or other proceedings that can appropriately be 23 conducted by telephone or other means that do not require in-person attendance. The 24 court will accept agreed motions to continue without the defendant have to appear in 25 court. The court also finds and concludes in accordance with CrRLJ 3.3(f) that all 26 continuances granted or ordered by the court pursuant to this Amended Order are 27 required in the administration of justice and further finds that good cause exists for such 28 continuances and that criminal defendants will not be prejudiced in the presentation of their defense by any such continuances.

- 1 7) MONITORING AND POST-JUDGMENT SUPERVISION: Show cause hearings for 2 active monitoring will continue to be filed but will be scheduled for no sooner than sixty
3 (60) days from the date of this Order, absent an emergency which warrants a sooner 4 hearing.
- 5 8) CRIMINAL JURY TRIALS: Until further Order of this court, no criminal jury trials shall 6 be called. All currently scheduled jury trials shall be continued by the court to a date
7 certain no later than sixty (60) days from the currently scheduled trial date. If a 8 defendant claims that his or her ability to present a defense will be compromised by such 9 continuance, steps will be taken to remedy the situation, such as preserving testimony via 10 deposition or other means. Based on the above-referenced Washington Supreme Court 11 Amended Order, court rules, including but not limited to, CrRLJ 3.3 are suspended.
- 12 9) CONTINUANCES REQUIRED IN ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE: Continuance of 13 criminal hearings and trial as provided in this Amended Order is required in the 14 administration of justice. Based upon the court's finding that the serious danger posed by 15 COVID-19 is good cause to continue criminal jury trials, and constitutes an unavoidable
16 circumstance under CrRLJ 3.3(e)(8), the time between the date of this Amended Order 17 and the date of the next scheduled trial are EXCLUDED when calculating time for 18 trial. CrRLJ 3.3(e)(3)
- 19 10) CIVIL MATTERS: The court finds good cause to continue any currently set civil bench 20 trials and small claims hearings 60 (sixty) days from its currently scheduled date. The 21 clerk will notify the parties of the new trial date. All civil motions or other hearings will 22 be heard by the court at their regularly scheduled date and time, if such hearings can be 23 conducted by telephone. Otherwise, such motions or other hearings will be rescheduled 24 to a date certain no sooner than May 26, 2020.
- 25 11) BENCH WARRANTS: Bench warrants may be issued by the court for violations of 26 conditions of release from now through May 4, 2020. However, the court will not issue
27 bench warrants for failure to appear in person for court hearings or post-trial supervision 28 meetings unless the court determines that it is necessary to do for the immediate preservation of public or individual safety.

1 12) CIVIL PROTECTION ORDERS: The court will continue to issue civil protection orders 2 as appropriate, but the court will schedule all in-person hearings related to such orders to 3 a date set by the court, or on or after May 4, 2020. If any such matter must be heard by 4 the court prior to May 4, 2020, such matter will be heard by telephone or other means
5 that does not require in-person attendance, unless impossible. Where any such matters 6 must be heard in person, social distancing and other public health measures must be 7 strictly observed. Telephonic or other hearings required to be public shall be recorded, 8 with the recording preserved for the record.

9 13) EX PARTE NO CONTACT ORDERS: The court may enter ex parte no contact orders
10 pursuant to RCW 10.99.040, RCW 10.99.045, RCW 10.14.040, RCW 7.90.150, RCW
11 9A.46.085, and/or RCW 9A.46.040, when an information, citation, or complaint is filed 12 with the court and the court finds that probable cause is present for a sex offense, 13 domestic violence offense, stalking offense, or harassment offense. Ex parte orders may 14 be served upon the defendant by mail. This provision shall not relieve the prosecution of 15 proving a knowing violation of such an ex parte order in any prosecution for violating the 16 order. Good cause exists for the court to extend ex parte orders beyond the initial person 17 until a hearing can be held.

18 14) GENERAL HYGIENE PRACTICES: all person entering the courthouse may be 19 required by Court Security or the Clerks, to use hand sanitizer immediately upon entering 20 the courthouse. All individuals who enter the courthouse shall practice the recommended 21 six-foot social distancing recommendations by the public health authorities. Anyone who 22 is complaining of, or exhibiting symptoms that could cause concern to the Court Security 23 Officer or the Clerks shall be prohibited from entering the courthouse. Anyone who has 24 business with the court who is experience or exhibiting symptoms of COVID-19 are 25 encouraged to contact the court by phone or email and request a continuance of their 26 court date, which will be routinely granted by the court during the time that this Order 27 remains in effect.
