This matter comes before the Court on the public health emergency in Washington State and San Juan County. The Court reiterates its findings entered in its Emergency Order entered March 16, 2020, and its First Amended Emergency Order entered March 20, 2020. The Court enters this Emergency Order 20-03 to create additional provisions for telephonic hearings and motions heard without oral argument in response to the Washington Supreme Court's entry of Amended Order No. 25700-B-607 on March 20, 2020. The actions set forth herein will take effect on March 24, 2020, and will remain in effect until further order of the Court, unless otherwise stated herein. If a date is stated herein, the date may be extended by further order of the Court.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. The First Amended Emergency Order 20-02 is amended with regard to NON-EMERGENCY CIVIL MATTERS as follows:

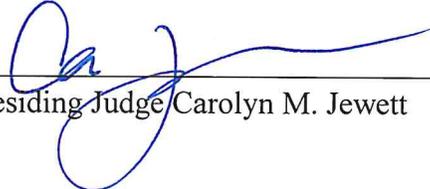

- a. EX PARTE: The Court will consider ex parte matters, including presentation of agreed orders, on a regular basis. Ex parte motions or agreed orders should be filed by fax or email if parties are represented by counsel. Fees for ex parte presentation shall be waived. Orders entered ex parte shall be returned to parties via email if an email address is provided.

2. The First Amended Emergency Order 2020-2 is amended with regard to OUT OF CUSTODY CRIMINAL MATTERS as follows:

- a. The Court will consider agreed orders submitted to the Clerk by counsel by fax or email. Orders entered ex parte shall be returned to counsel via email if an email address is provided.
- b. Parties, victims and witnesses may file motions to be heard by telephone prior to April 24, 2020. The individual filing the motion must describe why the motion should be heard on an emergency basis. If the court determines that in-person appearance is not required and that the motion should be heard prior to April 24, 2020, a telephonic hearing will be scheduled. All parties to the motion shall appear by telephone for such hearings, and defendants' signatures shall be waived in any resulting orders.

3. This Emergency Order No. 20-03 SUPPLEMENTS AND DOES NOT REPLACE the First Amended Emergency Order No. 20-02 entered March 20, 2020. All provisions of the First Amended Emergency Order No. 20-02 that are not inconsistent herewith remain in effect.

DATED this 23rd day of March, 2020.
