WINGS CONFERENCE | 15

FRIDAY, AUGUST 7 WENATCHEE VALLEY COLLEGE 8:00 AM - 5:00 PM

The Working Interdisciplinary Network of Guardianship Stakeholders (WINGS) serves to enhance the quality of care and life of adults affected or potentially affected by guardianship and other decision-making alternatives. WINGS is an ongoing problem-solving mechanism made up of key stakeholders.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

This free conference is a forum to advance a partnership with the Washington State Supreme Court and community members to:

- IDENTIFY strengths and weaknesses in the state's current approach to adult guardianship and less restrictive decision-making options;
- ADDRESS key policy and practice issues;
- ENGAGE in outreach, education and training, including training on supported decision-making;
- SERVE as an ongoing problem-solving mechanism to enhance the quality of care and quality of life of adults affected or potentially affected by guardianship and other decision-making alternatives, and provide the support they need.

HOW TO REGISTER

See PAGE 4 for registration form and details.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Individuals in Washington who are interested in improving decision support for persons with diminished decision-making ability, including:

- FAMILY AND FRIENDS of those who are under guardianship or may need decision support in the future.
- PROFESSIONALS who work in the fields of aging, developmental disabilities, mental illness, elder abuse prevention and intervention, or law and fiduciary related fields.

SPEAKER BIOS

Chief Justice Barbara Madsen

Chief Justice Madsen is the third woman elected to the Washington Supreme Court and was unanimously elected by her colleagues to serve a second term as the 55th Chief Justice in 2012.

As Chief Justice, she is the court's chief spokesperson, presides over Supreme Court hearings and conferences, and co-chairs the state's Board for Judicial Administration. Chief Justice Madsen has also chaired the Washington State Gender & Justice Commission since 1998. Chief Justice Madsen is from Renton and is a graduate of the Gonzaga University School of Law.

Mary Joy Quinn, RN, MA

For more than 30 years, Mary Joy served the San Francisco Probate Court as both Director and Conservatorship Court Investigator. Prior to that, Mary Joy served as a public health nurse and as the director of a psychiatric day treatment center for older adults. Her education background includes a Masters in Psychology with a focus on Gerontology. She is a published author and has contributed to many publications focusing on elder abuse and neglect, conservatorship and guardianship, undue influence, and remedies for elder abuse and neglect with the civil and criminal courts. Mary Joy is also a member and past president of the National College of Probate Judges. She currently serves as the technical advisor for WINGS.
