Rules Comment:

Why would a public servant, ever EVER have things cloaked in secrecy an open, free system, or pass rules allowing it.

In our Civil Justice system, it will mean those with the wealth and power to seal records will eventually get away with more.

Keep the records open. There are several examples in where litigants unfairly try to subvert our constitutional requirement that justice be administered openly.

There should be a very very high bar set before records are sealed.

We are not a star chamber, secret society.
