Subject: Revisions to General Rule 15

To Whom it May Concern,
With reference to an editorial today in the Seattle Times
(http://seattletimes.com/html/opinion/2023488494_kathygeorgegeorgeerbopedsealingcourtcases30xml.html),
I hereby submit my comment.

And the comment is short and sweet:
Per a previous direction of the Supreme Court, "Openness is a vital part of our constitution."
PLEASE do NOT approve the sweeping revisions to General Rule 15 that have been proposed.
The 2006 rule amendment should stay in effect.
It is vital to keep our records open.

Thank you for your consideration.
Sincerely,
Linda Melvin
