The judicial officers of this court will be assigned, on a rotating basis, for such periods as the Presiding Judge may from time to time determine, among the departments of this court.

(b) Presiding Judge. (1) Election. During the month of December of each even-numbered year, the judges of the court shall elect, by such manner as they may then agree or, in the absence of such agreement, by secret written ballot, one of their number to serve as Presiding Judge. MOTIONS

(a) Time Limits. (1) Length of hearing. Civil and domestic/family law and motion dockets are limited to matters requiring no more than ten minutes per side. Matters expected to exceed that limitation must be specially set by the court administrator.

(2) Responsive declarations. In matters on the domestic and family docket, and the paternity docket, responsive declarations must be served and filed by noon on the calendar day immediately prior to the docket, or 24 hours before the scheduled docket, whichever is later, unless the court expressly permits later service and/or filing.

(b) Noting Matters on Motion Dockets. Except as otherwise provided in this section, or with leave of the judicial officer presiding on the docket, matters to be heard on a motion docket must be noted with the clerk five days prior to the docket. If the judicial officer assigned to hear a docket is unavailable, another judge may consider and grant an ex parte motion for order shortening time to note a matter on a docket.

(c) Required Special Settings. The following matters may not be noted on the court's regular dockets, but must be specially set with the court administrator: motions for summary judgment; arguments on the merits in appeals from lower courts or tribunals; child hearsay (Ryan) hearings.

(d) Telephonic argument. (1) Unreported. Arguments on motions are to be conducted in person, except that, by specific arrangement with the court administrator at least two days before a hearing, argument may be made by telephone. Provided, (1) that all parties agree to telephonic argument; (2) that the judicial officer before whom the hearing will be conducted approves of telephonic argument; and (3) that no verbatim record is requested (or the record is made by a party). A party may withhold agreement to telephonic argument only for reasonable, articulable cause.

For good cause shown, on motion of a party, the court may order telephonic argument of a motion in the absence of such agreement. A motion to require telephonic argument shall itself be argued by telephone unless all affected parties are before the court when the motion is made.

(2) Verbatim record. The requirement that there be no verbatim record may be waived by the court only if: (1) no participant other than the court uses a speaker phone; (2) no speaking participant is on a cellular telephone; and (3) the reported call will begin with each party's stipulation to the following:

"This conference call argument is being reported by the official court reporter. Each party stipulates that any portion of the proceedings which is inaudible to the reporter will be noted as such in the record without jeopardy to the reporter or to any transcript being deemed accurate and complete."

Adopted April 1, 1997; amended 2005; amended, re-numbered and re-codified effective September 1, 2012]

The conference will address administrative matters relating to the trial, and resolve motions in limine and other motions entertained by the court.

Civil bench trials may be preceded by a conference on request of a party or on the court's motion.

(a) Cases Affected. Pursuant to RCW 26.12.170, this rule applies to all actions in which the court is petitioned to adopt a parenting plan or residential schedule involving minor children, and, if ordered by the court, to an action in which modification of such a plan or schedule is sought.

(b) Seminar Required. The judges of this court shall, by administrative order maintained in the records of the clerk, from time to time designate one or more providers of parenting seminars. Each party who is a parent shall, within thirty days after initiating or being served with initial documents in a case covered by this rule, contact a designated provider to schedule attendance at a parenting seminar. Prior to trial in such a case, or prior to entry of a final parenting plan or residential schedule if no trial is held, each such party shall attend and complete a parenting seminar, and file proof thereof with the court.

(c) Exemption and Enforcement. A party may seek exemption from the requirements of this rule on the basis of substantial hardship, established by motion of the party supported by written declaration or oral testimony. A party who has completed a parenting seminar, pursuant to this rule or otherwise, within twenty-four months before institution of the present action is, upon filing proof thereof, also exempt from part (b) of this rule, unless otherwise ordered by the court. Unless exempted, a party who fails to comply may be sanctioned by civil contempt remedies, by an order striking pleadings, or in such other manner as the court deems appropriate.

(b) Contents of Statement. (1) Assets. The statement shall sequentially number and identify each asset with sufficient particularity to distinguish it from other assets of the same type. As to each debt, the statement shall set forth, unless unknown to the party, the following information: the date(s) on which the debt was incurred, the purpose for which it was incurred, any security given for the debt; the balance owed at the time of trial and at the time of separation; payments made by either party after separation; whether, and to what extent, the debt is claimed to be the separate or individual debt of either party; and the proposed distribution by the court.

(3) Other relief. Each party's statement shall also set forth any other financial relief requested, other than child support, including a monetary judgment to balance the division of assets and debts, spousal maintenance, and award of costs and attorney fees.

The parties to a domestic case shall attend the conference; in other civil cases, the parties, or persons with settlement authority for a party, shall be available, and the judicial officer conducting the conference shall decide whether the parties shall be present in the conference room. LRMA 1.1.
PURPOSE OF RULES - OTHER RULES - DEFINITIONS

(a) Purpose and Scope. The purpose of these Local Rules for Mandatory Arbitration is to supplement the Mandatory Arbitration Rules (MAR) adopted by the Supreme Court in order to provide a simplified, economical procedure for the prompt and equitable resolution of disputes involving claims of $50,000 or less. THESE RULES MUST BE READ AND APPLIED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE MANDATORY ARBITRATION RULES.

These rules are not intended to address every question which may arise during arbitration, and thus leave considerable discretion to the arbitrator. Arbitrators should liberally employ such discretion in order to assure that hearings are informal and expeditious, consistent with the purposes of the statutes and rules.

(b) Administrator. As used in these rules, "Administrator" means the employee of the Grant County Superior Court who may, from time to time, be assigned by the judges thereof the position and responsibilities of Arbitration Administrator.

[Amended 1990; amended effective September 1, 2012]

LRMA 1.2
AMOUNT IN CONTROVERSY

Pursuant to RCW 7.06.020, civil matters shall be subject to mandatory arbitration if the amount claimed by any party does not exceed $50,000 exclusive of attorney fees, interest and costs, or if the parties waive claims in excess thereof for the purposes of arbitration.

[Amended 1990; amended effective September 1, 2012]

LRMA 1.3.
MOTIONS

All motions before the court relating to mandatory arbitration shall be noted on the civil motions calendar in accordance with LR 7, except as otherwise provided in these arbitration rules.

[Amended 1990; amended effective September 1, 2012]

LRMA 2.1.
TRANSFER TO ARBITRATION

(a) Statement of Arbitrability. In every civil case to which the scheduling procedure set forth in LR 26F applies, each party filing and serving a status conference statement (Form LR 8-B) shall indicate thereon whether or not the case is subject to mandatory arbitration. Alternatively, any party who asserts that a case is subject to mandatory arbitration may at any time file and serve on all other parties a statement of arbitrability.

(b) Response. A party who disputes another party's assertion that the case is or is not subject to mandatory arbitration shall so advise the court in any one of these ways: (1) by so indicating in the status conference statement (Form LR 8-B); (2) by so indicating at the commencement of the status conference required by LR 26F(a); or (3) by serving and filing a written response to another party's statement of arbitrability within 14 days of service thereof.

(c) Amendment. A party may amend a statement of arbitrability, response, or other assertion regarding arbitrability of the case at any time before assignment of an arbitrator, and thereafter only upon leave of the court for good cause shown.

(d) Failure to File. If no response or other dispute regarding arbitrability is filed or brought to the attention of the court as provided in this rule, then a statement that the case is subject to mandatory arbitration will be deemed correct.

(e) By Stipulation. A case in which all parties file a stipulation to arbitrate under MAR 8.1 will be transferred to arbitration regardless of the nature of the case or the amount in controversy.

[Amended 1990; amended effective September 1, 2012]

LRMA 2.3.
ASSIGNMENT TO ARBITRATOR

(a) Generally - Stipulations. When a case is set for arbitration, a list of five proposed arbitrators will be furnished to the parties. A master list of arbitrators will be made available on request. The parties are encouraged to stipulate to an arbitrator. In the absence of a stipulation, the arbitrator will be chosen from among the five proposed arbitrators in the manner set forth in this rule.

(b) Response by Parties. Each party may, within 14 days after a list of proposed arbitrators is furnished to the parties, nominate one or two arbitrators and strike two arbitrators from the list. If both parties respond, an arbitrator nominated by both parties will be appointed. If no arbitrator has been nominated by both parties, the Administrator will randomly appoint an arbitrator from among those not stricken by either party.

(c) Response by Only One Party. If only one party responds within 14 days, the Administrator will appoint an arbitrator nominated by that party.

(d) No Response. If no party responds within 14 days, the Administrator will randomly appoint one of the five proposed arbitrators.

(e) Additional Parties. If there are more than two adverse parties, all represented by different counsel, two additional proposed arbitrators shall be added to the list for each additional party so represented with the procedures for selection set forth in this rule to be applied. The number of adverse parties shall be determined by the Administrator, subject to review by the Presiding Judge.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012]

LRMA 3.1.
QUALIFICATIONS

(a) Arbitration Panel. There shall be a panel of arbitrators in such numbers as the Superior Court Judges may from time to time determine. A person desiring to serve as an arbitrator shall complete an information sheet on the form prescribed by the court. A list of the names of arbitrators available to hear cases, and the information sheets filed by them, will be available for public inspection at the Administrator's office. The oath of office, in a form prescribed by the court, must be completed and filed prior to an applicant being placed on the arbitration panel.

(b) Refusal - Disqualification. The appointment of an arbitrator is subject to the right of that person to decline to serve. An arbitrator must notify the Administrator immediately if declining to serve or if any cause exists for the arbitrator's disqualification from the case upon any of the grounds of interest, relationship, bias, or prejudice set forth in the Code of Judicial Conduct, Rule 2.11 governing the disqualification of judges. If disqualified, the arbitrator will immediately return all materials in a case to the Administrator.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012]

LRMA 4.2.
DISCOVERY

In determining when additional discovery beyond that directly authorized by MAR 4.2 is reasonably necessary, the arbitrator shall balance the benefits of discovery against the burdens and expenses. The arbitrator shall consider the nature and complexity of the case, the amount in controversy, values at stake, the discovery that has already occurred, the burdens on the party from whom discovery is sought, and the possibility of unfair surprise which may result if discovery is restricted. Authorized discovery shall be conducted in accordance with the civil rules except that motions concerning discovery shall be resolved by the arbitrator. Nothing in this rule shall prohibit the arbitrator from considering, in ruling on the merits of the case, any other discovery devices which may have been completed prior to assignment of the case to the arbitrator.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012]

LRMA 5.1.
NOTICE OF HEARING - TIME AND PLACE - CONTINUANCE

An arbitration hearing may be scheduled at any reasonable time and place chosen by the arbitrator. The arbitrator may grant a continuance without court order. The parties may stipulate to a continuance only with leave of the arbitrator. The arbitrator shall give reasonable notice of the hearing date and any continuance to the Administrator.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012]

LRMA 5.2.
PREHEARING STATEMENT OF PROOF - DOCUMENTS FILED WITH THE COURT

The statements of witnesses and exhibits required by MAR 5.2 shall be simultaneously exchanged by all parties. In addition to the requirements of MAR 5.2, each party shall also furnish the arbitrator with copies of pleadings and other documents contained in the court file which that party deems relevant. The court file shall remain in the custody of the County Clerk.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012]

LRMA 5.3.
CONDUCT OF HEARING - WITNESSES - RULES OF EVIDENCE

(a) Oath or Affirmation. The arbitrator shall place a witness under oath or affirmation, substantially in the following form, before the witness presents testimony: "Do you solemnly swear or affirm, under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, that the testimony you give in this matter will be the truth?"

(b) Recording. The hearing may be recorded electronically or otherwise by any party at his or her expense, providing that the means of recording do not interfere with conduct of the hearing.

(c) Rules of Evidence Generally. The Rules of Evidence, to the extent determined by the arbitrator to be applicable, should be liberally construed to promote justice and economical dispute resolution.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012]

LRMA 6.1.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012]

FILING OF AWARD - EXTENSION

A request by the arbitrator for extension of the time for filing an award under MAR 6.2 may be presented ex parte to the Presiding Judge. The arbitrator shall give all parties notice of any extension granted.

[Amended effective September 1, 2012]

LRMA 7.1.
REQUEST FOR TRIAL DE NOVO - TRIAL SETTING

Any party desiring trial de novo after an arbitration award must give notice thereof as provided in MAR 7.1(a) notwithstanding that the case is not ripe for trial setting under LR 40. If a trial date has been assigned prior to the filing of an arbitration award, it shall remain in place if a request for trial de novo is filed pursuant to MAR 7.1(a), and shall be stricken if no such request is filed within the time permitted by MAR 7.1(a).
