

LCrRLJ 8.2B
MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

All motions for continuance shall be in writing and supported by an affidavit substantially in the form of attachment A hereto. The moving party will set forth in the affidavit the following information:

- 1. Date of arraignment;
2. Date the trial is currently set;
3. Dates of prior continuances and which party requested the same;
4. Reason for this requested continuance, including the date the information upon which this motion is made came to the attention of the moving party;
5. If the request is based on the unavailability of witnesses, include the earliest date the witnesses will be available (whether before or after the current trial date set);
6. Any other facts known to the moving party bearing on questions of due diligence in moving for the continuance or which will assist the court in setting an appropriate date if the continuance is granted.

The non-moving party if in opposition to the motion for continuance, when given five (5) working days notice of the motion, shall file an affidavit setting forth any prejudice their client will suffer if the continuance is granted. Failure to file such an affidavit shall be deemed a waiver of a claim of prejudice by the non-moving party.
