

INTERPRETING AND LANGUAGE ACCESS

The use of qualified interpreters is authorized in judicial proceedings involving hearing impaired or non-English-speaking individuals and courts are authorized to provide vital information necessary to access judicial proceedings in languages other than English.

[Adopted effective July 17, 1987; Amended effective September 1, 2022.]