2.		5.
3.		6.

5. Washington state deadlines for Paternity Acknowledgment

- Does not apply because parentage was established either by court order or by a Paternity Acknowledgment (Affidavit) filed in a different state than Washington. (Skip to 6.)
- The Paternity Acknowledgment was filed in Washington state.
  - a. Effective date -- The Paternity Acknowledgment (and Denial, if any) became effective (valid) on the date the child was born or the date the Paternity Acknowledgment (and Denial, if any) was filed with the Washington State Registrar of Vital Statistics, whichever was later.

b. Deadline to withdraw

- The deadline to withdraw (rescind) the Paternity Acknowledgment or Denial has passed because:
Everyone who was under 18 when he/she signed the Paternity Acknowledgment (and Denial, if any) turned 19 before this case was filed; and (check one):
  - This case was filed more than 60 days from the effective date. .
  - This case was filed less than 60 days from the effective date; but everyone who signed the Acknowledgment (and Denial, if any) was before the court to decide an issue about the child before this case was filed.
- The deadline to withdraw (rescind) the Paternity Acknowledgment or Denial has not passed. The petition was filed too soon.

c. Deadline to challenge

- The deadline to challenge the Paternity Acknowledgment or Denial has passed because it has been more than four years since effective date.
- The deadline to challenge the Paternity Acknowledgment or Denial has not passed because it has been less than four years since the effective date.
Check one:
  - The court will approve parenting and/or support orders for the child because the court finds:
    - The child's acknowledged father is the father,
    - No court has said another man is the child's father,
    - There are no other open court cases to decide who the child's father is, and
    - Notice has been given to all other men who claimed to be this child's father.
  - The court will not approve parenting and/or support orders for the child because the Petitioner failed to show (check all that apply):
    - The child's acknowledged father is the father.
    - No court has said another man is the child's father.
    - There are no other open court cases to decide who the child's father is.
    - Notice has been given to all other men who claimed to be this child's father.

6. Paternity Acknowledgment filed in another state

- Does not apply because parentage was established either by court order or by Paternity Acknowledgment filed in Washington state. (Skip to 7.)

8. Jurisdiction over the children (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)

- The court can order a parenting/custody order for the children because (check all that apply; if a box applies to all of the children, you may write “the children” instead of listing names):
  - Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a custody order or parenting plan for the children, and the court still has authority to make other orders for (children’s names): _____.
  - Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the children’s home state because (check all that apply):
    - (Children’s names): _____ lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed, or if the children were less than 6 months old when the case was filed, they had lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent since birth.

  - No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for (children’s names): _____, or a court in the children’s home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:
    - The children and a parent or someone acting as a parent have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and
    - There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the children’s care, protection, education and relationships in this state.

- Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be (children's names): _____'s home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.
- Temporary emergency jurisdiction – Washington had temporary emergency jurisdiction over (children's names): _____ when the case was filed, and now has jurisdiction to make a final custody decision because:
  - When the case was filed, the children were abandoned in this state, or the children were in this state and the children (or children's parent, brother or sister) was abused or threatened with abuse;
  - The court signed a temporary order on (date) _____ saying that Washington's jurisdiction will become final if no case is filed in the children's home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for 6 months;
