14. Jurisdiction over children (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)

The court can decide this case for the children because (check all that apply; if a box applies to all of the children, you may write “the children” instead of listing names):

- Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a parenting plan, residential schedule or custody order for the children, and the court still has authority to make other orders for (children’s names): _____.
- Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the children’s home state because (check all that apply):
  - (Children’s names): _____ lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed, or if the children are less than 6 months old, they have lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent since birth.
  - There were times the children were not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if they are less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.
  - (Children’s names): _____ do not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the children’s home state at some time in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent or someone acting as a parent of the children still lives in Washington.
  - (Children’s names): _____ do not have another home state.
- No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for (children’s names): _____.

_____ or a court in the children’s home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:

- The children and a parent or someone acting as a parent have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and
- There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the children's care, protection, education, and relationships in this state.

Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be (children's names): _____'s home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.

Temporary emergency jurisdiction – The court can make decisions for (children's names): _____ because the children are in this state now and were abandoned here or need emergency protection because the children (or the children's parent, brother, or sister) were abused or threatened with abuse. (Check one):

A custody case involving the children was filed in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. Washington should take temporary emergency jurisdiction over the children until the Petitioner can get a court order from the children's home state (or tribe).

There is no valid custody order or open custody case in the children's home state (name of state or tribe): _____. If no case is filed in the children's home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for 6 months, (date): _____, Washington should have final jurisdiction over the children.

Other reason (specify): _____
