Domestic Partnership Family Law Handbook 2014

Summary

2014 Domestic Partnership Family Law Handbook Summary

The Family Law Handbook was developed to help you understand family law in Washington State.

The Legislature initially directed the Washington State Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) to create a Family Law Handbook for individuals getting a marriage license. The AOC asked that the Secretary of State provide this summary of the Domestic Partnership Family Law Handbook to individuals filing a Declaration of State-Registered Domestic Partnership. The Handbook is also distributed to individuals filing, or responding to, an action to dissolve their domestic partnership.

The Handbook may help you understand the rights and responsibilities partners have to each other and any children during and after the domestic partnership.

Chapters in the Handbook Include:

- ◆ WASHINGTON STATE-REGISTERED DOMESTIC PARTNERSHIPS
- ◆ PRE-PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENTS
- ◆ ENDING A DOMESTIC PARTNERSHIP
- ◆ PROPERTY RIGHTS: DIVIDING ASSETS AND DEBT
- ◆ MAINTENANCE (ALIMONY)
- ◆ THE EFFECTS OF DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP ON CHILDREN
- ◆ SHARED PARENTING FOR PARENTS DISSOLVING THEIR PARTNERSHIP
- ◆ RELOCATION OF CHILDREN
- ◆ CHILD SUPPORT
- ◆ DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
- ◆ CHILD ABUSE AND NEGLECT
- ◆ COMMUNITY RESOURCES

While the Handbook is not designed to give legal advice, it will provide general information about the partnership contract and laws about dissolution of partnerships in Washington State. Domestic partnership law is new to Washington and is evolving. Significant changes were made to marriage and domestic partnership law, effective December 6, 2012, and June 30, 2014. It is always a good idea to consult with an attorney about your rights and responsibilities regarding any legal issue, including starting or ending a domestic partnership.
