Appellant.	)

PER CURIAM — Jesus Solis-Vazquez appeals the financial obligations and nonrestitution interest imposed following his convictions for possession with intent to deliver, first degree criminal impersonation, and two counts of third degree assault. He contends, and the State concedes, that he is indigent and that under the 2018 statutory amendments and State v. Ramirez, 191 Wn.2d 732, 426 P.3d 714 (2018), the trial court erred in imposing discretionary financial obligations, interest on nonrestitution financial obligations, and a DNA collection fee.

We accept the State’s concession and remand with instructions to strike the discretionary financial obligations, the DNA fee, and the nonrestitution interest from the judgment and sentence.
