

Domestic violence continues to be a significant problem in Washington. Regardless of your practice area, do you know how to recognize DV issues? Do you know how to help your clients and their families maintain safety? Attend this seminar led by a faculty of judges, experts, and experienced attorneys to better understand the complicated dynamics of domestic violence. Gain knowledge you need to effectively and ethically represent your clients.

- Understand the dynamics of domestic violence
- Learn how to recognize domestic violence with your clients regardless of your practice area
- Examine the protections and purpose of the Domestic Violence Protection Act
- Find out about different safety orders and learn how to draft and enforce them
- Study the impact DV has on children
- Understand the components of an effective coordinated community response
- Review the ethical considerations when representing clients in DV cases
