9/2/08	Skagit County Superior Court	The Skagit County Courthouse was in lockdown due to a suspect from Alger being apprehended across the street in the parking lot of the Sheriff's Office. Multiple law enforcement agencies were involved and weapons were drawn. Court rovers secured the courthouse and allowed no person to enter or leave until the situation was under control.	Threat
9/2/08	Skagit County District Court	Law Enforcement had been in pursuit of a suspect from Alger to the Skagit Co. Sheriff's Office parking lot. The road in front of the office was blocked and the office was in lock-down status due to the suspect with a gun in the parking lot at the end of the building. The incident took about ten minutes to provide clearance for staff and the public.	Threat
8/28/08	Pierce County Superior Court	During a very contested domestic violence/placement of minor children hearing, the litigants' various family members were present in the courtroom. The mother of the petitioner was asked to leave the courtroom because she was making comments. She then turned around and started yelling at the respondent's family members. Courtroom staff called the sheriff's department. A deputy responded and remained in the courtroom until the hearing was finished. A second deputy was stationed in the hall to monitor the family members.	Incident
