

Superior Court of Washington, County of _____

In re:

Petitioner/s (person/s who started this case):

And Respondent/s (other party/parties):

No. _____

Motion for Temporary Change to Parenting/Custody Order (Military Parent)
(MTTCP)

Motion for Temporary Change to Parenting/Custody Order (Military Parent)

To both parties:

Deadline! Your papers must be filed and served by the deadline in your county's Local Court Rules, or by the State Court Rules if there is no local rule. Court Rules and forms are online at www.courts.wa.gov.

If you want the court to consider your side, you must:

- File your original documents with the Superior Court Clerk; AND
- Give the Judge/Commissioner a copy of your papers (if required by your county's Local Court Rules); AND
- Have a copy of your papers served on all other parties or their lawyers; AND
- Go to the hearing.

The court may not allow you to testify at the motion hearing. Read your county's Local Court Rules, if any.

Bring proposed orders to the hearing.

To the person filing this motion:

You must schedule a hearing on this motion. You may use the Notice of Hearing (form FL All Family 185) unless your county's Local Court Rules require a different form. Contact the court for scheduling information.

To the person receiving this motion:

If you do not agree with the requests in this motion, file a statement (using form FL All Family 135, Declaration) explaining why the court should not approve those requests. You may file other written proof supporting your side.

I declare:

1. I am the (check one): [] Petitioner. [] Respondent.

2. I received military orders to report for temporary duty, deployment, activation, or mobilization on (date): _____. This temporary duty will interfere with my parenting time, which is listed in a parenting/custody order approved by the court on (date): _____.

3. While I am deployed, I ask the Court to give some or all of my parenting time/visitation with my children to another person who is (check one):

A relative of the children (name): _____
(Relationship to children): _____

Someone who is not the children's relative, but has a close and significant relationship with the children (name): _____

4. This other person should have (check one):

all of my parenting time/visitation described in the current parenting/custody order.

time with the children as follows (specify dates and times): _____

5. I do not know of any reason why visitation with this other person should be limited under RCW 26.09.191 (child abuse, domestic violence, sex offense, drug or alcohol abuse, or other serious problems that could affect the children as listed in RCW 26.09.191).

6. Attempt to reach agreement with other parent or custodian (check one):

The other party agrees to my proposed change to the parenting/custody order.

My parenting/custody order (check one): requires does not require me to try to solve disagreements through a dispute resolution process (mediation, arbitration, or counseling) before asking the court to decide.

If a dispute resolution process is required:

I have tried to reach an agreement with the other party through the dispute resolution process required by my parenting/custody order, but we did not agree.

I should be excused from using the dispute resolution process because:

7. Giving my parenting/visitation time to this other person during my deployment is in the best interest of the children because (explain):

Email (if applicable): _____

Warning! Documents filed with the court are available for anyone to see unless they are sealed. Financial, medical, and confidential reports, as described in General Rule 22, must be sealed so they can only be seen by the court, the other party, and the lawyers in your case. Seal those documents by filing them separately, using a Sealed cover sheet (form FL All Family 011, 012, or 013). You may ask for an order to seal other documents.
