- not approve a Restraining Order because: _____

- approve a Restraining Order because: _____

17. Pregnancy

- Neither partner is pregnant.
- One of the partners is pregnant (check one): Petitioner Respondent

Conclusion: The pregnancy shall not delay finalization of this case. Finalization of this case shall not affect any future case about the unborn child's parentage that is filed within the time limits allowed by law.

A case about the parentage of the unborn child has been joined (combined) with this case. The court's Findings and Conclusions about Parentage will be filed separately.

Other (specify): _____

Note: The law considers the other partner to be the parent of any child born during the domestic partnership or within 300 days after it ends. If the other partner is not the parent, either partner may file a Petition to Decide Parentage (FL Parentage 301) in court. In most cases, the deadline to file the Petition to Decide Parentage is before the child turns four. (See RCW 26.26A.115, 26.26A.435.)

If everyone agrees, both partners and the child's biological father can sign an Acknowledgment (and Denial) of Parentage. Those forms must be notarized and filed with the Washington State Registrar of Vital Statistics to be valid.

18. Children of the domestic partnership

- The domestic partners have no children together who are still dependent.
- The domestic partners have the following children together who are still dependent (only list children the partners have together, not children from other relationships):

Child's name	Age	Child's name	Age
1.		4.
2.		5.
3.		6.

If there are children listed above who do not have both partners listed on their birth certificates, the State Registrar of Vital Statistics should be ordered to amend the children's birth certificates to list both partners as parents.

Other (specify): _____

19. Jurisdiction over the children (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)

- Does not apply. The domestic partners have no children together who are still dependent.
- The court can approve a Parenting Plan for the children the domestic partners have together because (check all that apply; if a box applies to all of the children, you may write "the children" instead of listing names):
- Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a custody order or parenting plan for the children, and the court still has authority to make other orders for (children's names): _____

Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the children’s home state because (check all that apply):

(Children’s names): _____ lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed, or if the children were less than 6 months old when the case was filed, they had lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent since birth.

There were times the children were not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if they were less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.

(Children’s names): _____ do not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the children’s home state sometime in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent or someone acting as a parent of the children still lives in Washington.

(Children’s names): _____ do not have another home state.

No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for (children’s names): _____, or a court in the children’s home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:

- The children and a parent or someone acting as a parent have ties to Washington beyond just living here; and
- There is a lot of information (substantial evidence) about the children’s care, protection, education and relationships in this state.

Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be (children’s names): _____’s home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.

Temporary emergency jurisdiction – Washington had temporary emergency jurisdiction over (children’s names): _____ when the case was filed, and now has jurisdiction to make a final custody decision because:

- When the case was filed, the children were abandoned in this state, or the children were in this state and the children (or children’s parent, brother or sister) was abused or threatened with abuse;
- The court signed a temporary order on (date) _____ saying that Washington’s jurisdiction will become final if no case is filed in the children’s home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for 6 months;
- The children have now lived in Washington for 6 months; and
- No case concerning the children has been started in the children’s home state (or tribe).

Other reason (specify): _____

The court cannot approve a Parenting Plan because the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.

20. Parenting Plan

- The domestic partners have no children together who are under 18 years old.
 - The court signed the final Parenting Plan filed separately today or on (date): _____.
 - Both parents agreed to and signed the Parenting Plan.
 - Other (specify): _____
- The court cannot approve a Parenting Plan because the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.

21. Child Support

- The domestic partners have no children together who are still dependent.
- The dependent children should be supported according to state law.
- The court signed the final Child Support Order and Worksheets filed separately today or on (date): _____.
- There is no need for the court to make a child support order because the DSHS Division of Child Support (DCS) has already established an administrative child support order for the children of this domestic partnership in DCS case number(s) _____.
- Other (specify): _____

22. Other findings or conclusions (if any)
