3. Jurisdiction over the children (RCW 26.27.201 – .221, .231, .261, .271)

- ☐ The court cannot decide this case for the children because the court does not have jurisdiction over the children.
- ☐ The court can decide this case for the children because (check all that apply; if a box applies to all of the children, you may write "the children" instead of listing names):
 - ☐ Exclusive, continuing jurisdiction – A Washington court has already made a parenting plan, residential schedule or custody order for the children, and the court still has authority to make other orders for (children's names): _____.
 - ☐ Home state jurisdiction – Washington is the children's home state because (check all that apply):
 - ☐ (Children's names): _____ lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent for at least the 6 months just before this case was filed, or if the children were less than 6 months old when the case was filed, they had lived in Washington with a parent or someone acting as a parent since birth.
 - ☐ There were times the children were not in Washington in the 6 months just before this case was filed (or since birth if they were less than 6 months old), but those were temporary absences.
 - ☐ (Children's names): _____ do not live in Washington right now, but Washington was the children's home state at sometime in the 6 months just before this case was filed, and a parent or someone acting as a parent of the children still lives in Washington.
 - ☐ (Children's names): _____ do not have another home state.
 - ☐ No home state or home state declined – No court of any other state (or tribe) has the jurisdiction to make decisions for (children's names): _____, or a court in the children's home state (or tribe) decided it is better to have this case in Washington and:

- ☐ Other state declined – The courts in other states (or tribes) that might be (children's names): _____'s home state have refused to take this case because it is better to have this case in Washington.
- ☐ Temporary emergency jurisdiction – Washington had temporary emergency jurisdiction over (children's names): _____ when the case was filed, and now has jurisdiction to make a final custody decision because:
 - When the case was filed, the children were abandoned in this state, or the children were in this state and the children (or children's parent, brother or sister) was abused or threatened with abuse;
 - The court signed a temporary order on (date) _____ saying that Washington's jurisdiction will become final if no case is filed in the children's home state (or tribe) by the time the children have been in Washington for 6 months;
 - The children have now lived in Washington for 6 months; and
 - No case concerning the children has been started in the children's home state (or tribe).

 - ☐ live with the person who wants to move most of the time. Based on the factors listed below, the Court concludes that the planned move (check one): ☐ would ☐ would not cause more harm to the children than good to the children and the person who wants to move.

Factors:

- a. Relationships: The children's relationships with each parent, any siblings, and other important people in the children's life.
