Warning! If you do not obey this order you may be found in contempt, arrested, fined, or ordered to pay lawyer fees.

3. Expert Report

The court appoints the following person as paternity testing expert. S/he (or someone s/he appoints) must prepare a report for this case.

Name of expert

Name of lab/testing company

The party who receives the report from the expert must file it with the court and serve copies on all other parties.

4. Testing Costs

- Does not apply.
- The fees for the genetic testing ordered above must be paid in advance by:
 - the party who requested the order for genetic testing.
 - the following people:
 - (Name) _____ must pay _____%, and
 - (Name) _____ must pay _____%.
- If the court determines that (name): _____ is the parent, that parent must reimburse the party who paid the testing fees in advance.
- The court will decide later if anyone must reimburse the party who paid the testing fees in advance.

5. Chain of Custody and Using Results as Evidence

- The parties have the right to challenge how the labs handle these samples (chain of custody). The parties also have the right to object to having the test results used as evidence in this case.
- The parties agree not to challenge how the labs handle these samples (chain of custody). The parties also agree not to object to having the test results used as evidence in this case.

6. Disagreement about Results

If any party does not agree with the results, s/he has 30 days to tell the lab to interpret the test results again using a different ethnic or racial group.

A party may also ask the Court to order additional testing. If the previous tests showed a 99% probability (or higher) that the person tested is the father, the Court will not order more tests unless the person asking for them pays for the tests in advance.

7. Other Orders (if any)
