	The facts establish by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence, including the testimony of a qualified expert witness that continued custody of the child by [] Parent 1 [] Parent 2 [] Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or physical damage to the child.
	DCYF made active efforts by actively working with the parent, parents, or Indian Custodian to engage them in remedial services and rehabilitative programs to prevent the breakup of the Indian family beyond simply providing referrals to such services, but those efforts have been unsuccessful.
	[] This finding is based on the following:
[]	DCYF has not made active efforts. This finding is based on the following:
•
	[] Releasing the child to either parent would not subject the child to substantial and immediate danger or threat of such danger, and the child must immediately be returned to the care of [] Parent 1 [] Parent 2.
	[] Although DCYF did not make active efforts, returning the child to the parent or Indian custodian would subject the child to substantial and immediate danger or threat of such danger.
	The Petitioner improperly removed the child, under RCW 13.38.160, and the court should decline jurisdiction over the petition and the child should be immediately returned to [] Parent 1 [] Parent 2.
