Currently the longest serving elected judge in Washington State.*

Judge McCullough began his service in King County Superior Court on November 8, 1989.

IF WE STAND TALL IT IS BECAUSE WE STAND ON THE SHOULDERS OF MANY ANCESTORS

African proverb

Washington State Minority and Justice Commission (WSMJC) Mission Statement

WSMJC was created by an order of the Washington State Supreme Court to determine whether racial and ethnic bias exists in the courts of the State of Washington. To the extent that it exists, WSMJC is charged with taking creative steps to overcome it. To the extent that such bias does not exist, WSMJC is charged with taking creative steps to prevent it.

Outreach Committee Mission Statement

The mission of the Outreach Committee is to facilitate communication between the Washington State Minority and Justice Commission, the public, and the legal and court communities of Washington State, including to promote equal employment in judicial and non-judicial leadership positions for racial, ethnic, and cultural minorities, and to study and improve the conditions under which minorities or persons of color interact with and participate in the justice system.

Acknowledgements

WSMJC would like to thank the co-chairs of the Outreach Commission Committee, The Honorable Bonnie J. Glenn and Lisa Castilleja, Esq. for their leadership and commitment to this project; Honorable Faye R. Chess and Esperanza Borboa for serving as co-chairs on this project, Franklin G. Thomas, WSMJC Senior Court Program Analyst; Moriah Freed, Supreme Court Commissions Court Program Assistant, and the members of the Outreach Committee for their support, guidance, and review of this project. This directory was last updated March 1, 2022

Dear Friends –

On behalf of the Minority and Justice Commission, we are pleased to share this updated directory of judicial officers that reflects the diversity of our judiciary in the State of Washington. It is an excellent resource for locating speakers, networking, and mentoring.

The Minority and Justice Commission, established by the Supreme Court of the State of Washington in 1990, was originally charged with the task of fostering and supporting a fair and bias-free system of justice. While we have not fully realized a perfect system of justice, we believe our work has helped move us in the right direction. Building a judiciary that reflects the richness of our state in all of its diversity is a significant step toward this goal.

Each judicial officer has opted to be included in this directory. By “opting in” they have agreed to serve as a resource to you, the community which we serve. They have agreed to serve as mentors, speakers and are available to share information on how to become judicial officers and the work we are called to do.

We thank the following for their tremendous work in compiling the directory:

Judge Faye R. Chess
Esperanza Borboa
Frank Thomas
Moriah Freed

Finally, we wish to acknowledge and pay tribute to Judge LeRoy McCullough, a tireless champion for youth and justice. Judge McCullough has been a mentor to many of us and we wish to thank and honor him for his kindness and generosity over the years. His service has impacted a generation of judicial officers and attorneys, and we are ever so grateful for his example.

Sincerely,

Justice Mary I. Yu
Washington State Supreme Court
Co-Chair, Minority and Justice Commission

Judge Veronica Galvan
King County Superior Court
Co-Chair, Minority and Justice Commission

DIVERSITY OF VOICES

Robe of Justice..., we belong!

Robe of justice...,
I watched you from afar.
Too far for so long, like a faded dream.
Could I reach you?
How might you feel?
Would we fit together?
Was I your color?
Questions without end, until....
I believed!
I am here now.
Wondering no more.
Robe of justice..., together...,
We belong!

Judge David Estudillo, US District Court of Western Washington

I too, am Justice

I too, sing justice

I am the darker brother
the resilient sister

The discounted

They ask me for directions

if I have met my public defender

Attorneys chatter and hand me copies
for the Judge

But I laugh, I study hard,
and watch
and learn
Today,
I am at the table
beyond the bar, on the bench

Nobody'll dare
Say to me
"Wait in the back of the courtroom"
Then.

They will see how just I have been How just I have always been
and be ashamed.

I, too, am Justice.

Commissioner Jonathon Lack (with administration of Langston Hughes), King County Superior Court

Justice Is Not Blind

Some may say our justice system is blind,
unfortunately, we all know that's not true.
Especially for people of color,
Like me and you.

How can that be? many have said.
To answer this question,
just look at what you've read.
The founding of our nation was inequitable starting day one,
from the very time the revolution was won.
While the patriots may have fought for liberty and justice,
an admirable concept most will find,
this concept, however, did not apply to folks of a different kind.

The forefathers claimed all men were endowed with inalienable rights, what they failed to mention is, this only applied to whites.
Our whitewashed history ignores the bigotry and hate,
that formulated the very essence of this nation and its current fate.
From court decisions regarding slavery to internment decisions during World War Two,
our system of justice seems to be stacked against me and you.

So, you see our justice system is based on a faulty notion,
whose gap between truth and reality is wider than an ocean.
Systemic racism permeates justice every day of the year, so much so that BIPOCS live in a constant state of fear.
Systemic Racism oppresses those not part of the privileged race,
making life extremely difficult for the oppressed to face.

Fear not all, do not despair,
we can create changes towards making the system fair.
Court decisions which enable this broken system to properly perform, help to ensure that injustices and systemic failures can be reformed.

So how do we provide justice and make changes for all to see?
A small but significant step is to increase the bench diversity.
Seeing people of color in charge of a court,
will provide BIPOC people a comfort of sorts.
Because in the deep recesses of their minds,

they know our shared history brings an understanding of some kind.
That we understand the systemic issues and the need to be treated fair, will help assuage some of the fears created by the system nightmare.

Having judges who understand systemic issues and the foundation created, can help the courts and the entire justice system that is related.
It is hard to understand the struggles of those who before you stand, if you have never had similar experiences to the BIPOCs of our great land.

So, in closing I say this to all,
from the tiniest of tiny to the tallest of tall,
increasing diversity doesn't take a great toll,
but it will have a lasting impact on society as a whole.

Magistrate Judge Jerome Roache, Seattle Municipal Court

The Color of Justice

Here we stand the faces of justice
Various ancestries, languages, and hues
Giving voice to contrasting and diverse views

Here we stand at the portal of justice
Born of perseverance, hopes, and dreams
Climbing obstacles much harder than they seem

Here we stand a vision of justice
First in our family, in our community, in our court
First in this land or having come from a distant port

Here we stand a symbol of justice
Of the people, for the people, ready to serve
Our mere presence making the unseen heard

Here we stand the future of justice
Conveying belief that you'll have the process that's due
Providing confidence that this system is also for you
