APPELLANTS WILL RELY ON OPENING BRIEF

Without waiving any of the previous arguments and issues raised in their opening brief, Appellants rely on the arguments and issues in their opening brief to answer the issues and arguments of Respondent's Brief. Appellants note that Respondents cross-appealed on the issue of the trial judge reversal of CR 11 sanctions that they were granted (temporarily). Appellants addressed this in their opening brief as issue 8 and rely on such arguments (especially on page 14) of such brief as a response "brief" to such cross appeal.

Respectively submitted this 12th Day of August, 2013
