CLERK OF COURT OF APPEALS DIV II
STATE OF WASHINGTON

To Whom It May Concern,

I did not understand that if my counsel had filed a motion to suppress evidence that had been illegally obtained, it would have likely been granted. Through the whole process of the Alford Plea, my counsel never advised me on any of my legal right. Basically, he neither said nor asked anything that would pertain to my defense. When it was decided to enter the plea, he told me "...there was nothing he could do for me, and that I needed to sign or they would put me away for twenty years."

Sincerely,

Robert T. Rude
