ASSOCIATION'S STATEMENT OF ADDITIONAL
AUTHORITIES (RAP 10.8)

The Washington State Bar Association (Association) submits this statement of additional authorities under RAP 10.8. Oral argument was held in this matter on March 12, 2013.

The following cases pertain to the issue of whether a three-year suspension is a disproportionate sanction for a lawyer's abandonment of his practice, which was addressed at pages 30-31 of the Association's brief:<sup>1</sup>

1. Robert Stark, Bar No. 26732, Supreme Court No. 201,011-3 (2012) (lawyer disbarred);
2. Christina Denison, Bar No. 25096, Supreme Court No. 200,888-7 (2010) (lawyer disbarred);

<sup>1</sup> All these cases arise from default proceedings. Because they are public but not published cases, for each we attach the hearing officer's Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Recommendation, the Disciplinary Board order, and the Supreme Court order. See In re Disciplinary Proceeding Against Cohen, 150 Wn.2d 744, 763, 82 P.3d 224 (2004) (when presenting unpublished cases for proportionality review, party must do more than cite Bar News notices).
